

can bring the charge of selling against the parties.
was fined 5s and costs, for selling cense.

NG.—A case came before the magissessions on Thursday, which we think deserves special mention of, with a view to the attention of parents to the atrocious conduct carried on in this city. Constable a young woman named Margaret stated he had at least forty cases of against, and in one case a child from the effects of her cruel treatment charge on which he now brought previous day she took up a little girl age, the daughter of Mr. Kennedy, ck-st. The child was playing outside when this woman came to her, and handsome toy, took her in her arms and to a hall in Michael-street, where the child of every article of her chemise, and there left her crying.— The director of the night watch happened to at the time, and hearing the cries of the child had it immediately wrapped up in and made such enquiries as led to its to her parents.

It is said there were no less than 28 particulars whose children had been stripped.
Donnell said that Mr. Kennedy's case was sufficient to transport that horrible considered informations against her, and she was for trial.

Police Court this day Edward Lee, and assault, was fined 5s. and costs, in satisfaction. Michael Crowe, a vagrant, was sent to gaol for 3 months and was well whipped, for wilfully smashing the streets.

and fair on Patrick's day there was good improved rates, for dairy stock, for increase of heifers. Store cattle were not much in demand, at fair prices.

At the petty sessions, on Thursday, Capt.
was intended to prosecute Wm. B. Smyth, for selling Emigration board forms, to Australia, to Malachy Waters. The fine of £20, with £2 2s. costs, to be paid in 14 days, or 3 months imprisonment.
The "entrance" in articles Kilmallock read "stakes".

BOURSIING CLUB.—The open champion Club comes off at Clorane on Wednesday next, and we have learned that 22 nominations are nearly all secured.— Entered from Scotland, England, Co.
Kerry, Co. Kerry. The entrance is 3l, 10s.
dog to get 60l., second 20l., third 7l., &c. Much excitement must prevail on so many strange dogs of high character dogs of the Club, which hitherto has been much of. We hope they will pull through.
The members of the Club and their friends dine at Cruise's on Tuesday.

Lord, H.M.S. Gorgon fired a feu de joie in celebration of the birth of the son of the Emperor and Empress of France. Fireworks were displayed, and the people were allowed to enjoy themselves beyond their

Charles Dewey Day, Senior Judge of the Court of Queen's Bench, Montreal, Canada.
At St. Pancras church, William Walters, banker, to Emily, daughter of the late R. M. Smith, of Bromley, Kent, Esq.
Alfred Lane, Esq. of Regent-street, to Mary Jane, daughter of the late John Treacy, Esq. of Cheapside
At St. Michael's, Toxteth-park, John Ashton Bestock, Esq.
Scots Fusilier Guards, to Harriet Anna, daughter of the late Joseph Brooks Yates, Esq. West Dingle, near Liverpool.
At Colombo, W. J. Gorhan, Esq. Lieutenant Ceylon Regt., to Matilda, daughter of Lt-Col. Laird, and grand-daughter of the late Major Sargent, of this city.
At St Matthias, Stoke Newington, Frederic York, third surviving son of Robert St. Leger, Esq. formerly of Glenview, county Limerick, to Christian Emma, eldest daughter of John Muddell, Esq. late of Sturley, Hants.

DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, after a short illness, Michael Codmore, Esq. of Ballyclough, in this county—a gentleman well known by the sporting community in all parts of Ireland, and generally esteemed for his kind and inoffensive demeanour. He was one of the most athletic men in Ireland

Yesterday morning at the North Strand, after a short illness, Mrs. Collins, relict of the late Michael Collins, Esq.
Bogmount, Abbeyfeale, and sister of the late Martin Honan, Esq. of Quinsboro', near this city. In her decease her sorrowing relatives have to mourn the loss of a truly kind and affectionate friend, possessed in an eminent degree of all those endearing qualities which ever gained for her the love and regard of all who came within her gentle influence, whilst by the poor her unobtrusive charity and warm sympathy must ever be remembered with the liveliest gratitude.

This morning, at the residence of her brother, Patrick-street, Mary, sister of Mr. Andrew Tracy, at the advanced age of 75 years. Her life was marked by piety, virtue, and charity

On Tuesday, at his seat, Mildrum, county Tipperary, sincerely lamented, the Rev. Richard Lloyd.

This morning, at the house, Dominican chapel, after a short illness, the Rev. Patrick Kelly, O.P., a clergyman deeply regretted. The Rev. Gentleman was a native of Sligo, and officiated in this city nearly five years.

At Mount Bayly, county Clare, Henry Bayly, Esq., a gentleman highly esteemed.

In George's-street, this day, Mr Theophilus E. Cooper, for some years conductor of the Haberdashery department of Arnott, Carnock & Co.

Stephen Meade, Esq. late of Rathmines, son of the late John Meade Thomas, Esq. of Limerick.

At Clonmel, Eleanor Mary, daughter of Thomas Kelly, Esq.
of Charlestown, county Kilkenny.

In Waterford, Walter Whelan, Esq. solicitor.

In Athlone, Mrs. Eleanor Scheockle, widow of the late Capt.
Scheockle.

Yesterday, in Dublin, Capt. Kempeon, Harbour Master.

In Leeson-street, Thomas Kearney, Esq. Assistant Commissary-General.

George Taylor Owen, Esq. of Dublin, solicitor.

At Norwich, Lewis Evans, MD. Physician to the Forces, aged 72.

At Wootton Rectory, Oxfordshire, the wife of the Rev. Wm.
Blackstone Lee

At Hedsor, Bucks, the Rt. Hon. Lord Boston.

At Llandudlas, Rhyl, North Wales, Hester, relict of the late Joseph Archer, Esq. formerly of Killymon, co. Wicklow.

At Plymouth, the Rev. Fortescue Wells, Chaplain in the Royal Navy.

Major Frances Charles Darke, HEICS, 21 Rifles, Bombay Presidency.

At Southend, Essex, Sarah, widow of the late Rear Admiral Bingham, of Hants.

In Upper Albany-street, Capt. Charles C. Irvine, RN.

At Barnet, John Humphrys, Esq. son of the late Rev. John Humphrys LL.D.

Mr. Richard Freeman, of Thurlow Lodge, Dulwich, Surrey.

At Hastings, Elizabeth Legg, wife of the Rev. C. B. Holder.

In Edinburgh, Harriot Emma, widow of Major Henry Siddons, Bengal Engineers.

In Edinburgh, the Hon. Augusta Mackenzie, daughter of the late Lord Seaforth.

At Paris, Marianne, wife of Walter Long, Esq. MP. of Wiltshire.

At Parma, Italy, Valerio Count Magawly Coratti, of Carl, late of Temora, in the King's County, Chamberlain to her Royal Highness the Archduchess Regent of Parma, Director of the Central House of Detention, and a Major in the Army.

He fell in the full vigour of manhood, by the hands of two assassins, in the streets of Parma, whilst in company with his wife and her sister.

At Simpheropol, Alexander, son of Sir Archibald William Crichton, physician to the Emperor of Russia.

The great success which attended the induced the Committee to have a larger and improved scale. New an-diferent kinds of work are expected Scotland, France and Italy; and it is stated that those Ladies who have interesting and useful Schools will expend the utmost in procuring contribution for the approaching Bazaar.
The Police Reports of the improvement of the conduct of the destitute people in the neighbourhood of these Ragged Schools is incontrovertible evidence of the benefit.

To prevent the inconvenience of overcrowded, the Garden will be open and are to have Stalls will reserve the nicest things for the second and third arrangement those kind friends it is convenient to attend the first day their power to purchase some of the Refreshments will be provided for to partake of them in the Gardens.

Contributions of work will be received from the following Ladies:—

FOR LURGAN-STREET SCHOOL
Mrs. Miss Kinnaird, 3, Fitzwilliam Mrs. Webber, 12, Pembroke place.
Mrs. Wm, M. Burke, 41, Lower Ba-Mrs. Kenny, 8, Clifton terrace, Mo-Mrs. Samuel Hill, Prospect terrace, Mrs. Howe, 8 Mountjoy place.
Mrs. Anne Hill, 2, Mountjoy place.

FOR MILL-STREET SCHOOL
Mrs. J. H. Nunn, 9, Wellington
Mrs. Lecson street.
Mrs. M. Gabbett, 13, Fitzwilliam st
Mrs. Smith, 10, Upper Fitzwilliam
Mrs. E. Fetherston H. Sydney ave-Mrs. Richard J. Lane, 70, Lower I-Mrs. Maddock, 38, Fitzwilliam pla-Mrs. Maurice Colles, 25, Lower Ba-Mrs. Batty, 59, Stephen's green, Ea-
Mrs. Gabbett, 17, Lower Mount st
Mrs. Nunn, 6, Dawson street.

FOR TOWNSEND-STREET SCHOOL
Mrs. N. Bridges, 19, Brunswick st
Mrs. Bolton Massy, 55, Stephen's g-Mrs. M. A. Saurin, Stephen's green Mrs. J. Hawkins, 20, Middle Gard-Mrs. J. Smyly, 13, Merrion square
Mrs. Martley, 15, Harcourt street.
Mrs. Hardy, 9, Upper Mount street
Mrs. B. Whately, Palace.
Mrs. Lyster, 3, Waterloo place.

FOR THE COOMBE SCHOOL
Mrs. Misses Crampton, 14, Merrion
Mrs. Mrs. Pakenham, 40, Harcourt
Mrs. Napier, 17, Mountjoy square, Mrs. Kincaid, 3, Herbert street.
Mrs. R. Geoghegan, 7, Merrion sq
Mrs. J. R. Stewart, Monkstown, I-Mrs. J. Smyley, 13, Merrion squa-Mrs. Bolton, 70, Camden street.
Mrs. Foster, 4, Fitzwilliam place.

If inconvenient to send Work for purchasing Materials or Toys accepted.