

re, £2 2s. of 40s. Irish upon which fine has been
of Industry.
appropriately styled of Beauty," is in portance to female er, not any attack
ne skin than inclepped, and vulgarly hilblains. Equally ul influence of solar s, Tan, &c. all of
nts and removes.
his faithful auxiliary lliancy, and perpetraction.—See Ad.

Last impression:—
oventer our earnest
Stamp Duty reduc-tor of the Exchequer
ntage of assimilating
r of a rich country, Ireland is to have
ery 2d. stamp sheet, y of legislation, the one penny! An imavy embarrassments, kation with a wealthy
tifle all competition.
e force and truth.—
overwhelming power
rtial legislation.
President and Vice-at the Senior United o commemorate the oops in Egypt, under the 27th, or gallant and Colonel Reeves,
a veteran who served
; Waterloo, received ria, and with singular the wound with his e brave Abercrombie ptain Kelly re-entered This veteran officer
f Captain T. E. Kelly, n the Cape of Good King's County.
the Lord Chancellor, ree law subpoenas for ector-General of the days to assume the

J. Trevelyan, Bart. of Nettlecombe Court, Somersetshire.
At Prestbury, Lieutenant Mathews, 2d West India Regiment, only son of Benjamin Mathews, Esq. county Kerry, to Anne, relict of Ensign William Scott Cooper, and daughter of the late Henry J.
Postlethwaite, Esq.

DEATHS.

In Garryduff, in the prime of life, after a very few days' illness, Jane, the beloved wife of Henry Clanchy, Esq. loved and esteemed by her friends and acquaintances.

At Arthur's-Quay, Mr. Henry Irwin, son of the late Mr. James Irwin, of this City, the celebrated Mathematical Teacher. The deceased was a strictly upright and worthy man.

At the Mail-Coach Office, George-street, Garrett O'Shaughnessy, Esq. for a number of years the respectable and efficient Representative of that establishment. In the arduous duties, which incessantly devolved upon him in a public capacity, no individual was more distinguished for rectitude, firmness, and probity in all his transactions. As a citizen he ever maintained an independence of principle in mind and action, coupled with an obliging disposition, which those who knew his real worth can best appreciate. In private life his friendship was most steadfast and sincere, while as husband and father his character could not be excelled. Mr. O'Shaughnessy was brother of the late venerable and respected Roman Catholic Bishop of Killaloe.

At Sidney-place, Cork, at the advanced age of 87 years, Robert Otway, Esq. formerly of the Island of Grenada.

At Charlestown, in the Island of Nevis, of fever, on the 8th of February last, aged 19 years, Henry, eldest son of Mr. Edward Worrall, of George-street. The premature death of this promising young man is a source of deep affliction to his family and friends by whom he was universally beloved.

In Lower Rutland-street, Dublin, Miss Ursula Chartres, sister to the late Richard Chartres, of Granitefield, county Dublin, Esq. aged 86.

In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Mrs. Catherine Underwood, relict of the late James Underwood, Esq. and sister of William Bellingham Swan, Esq.

Mr. Henry Kinsley, of Middle Mountjoy-street, Dublin.
In Trinity-street, Dublin, Mr. Milliken, cutler.
At Summerhill, Cork, Samuel Reily, Esq. aged 88 years.
In Princes-street, Cork, Mr. Denis Hartnett.
At Ennis College, James, son of Mr. James Hogan, of this City.
In Ennis, Mr. L. Meehan.
At Mitchelstown, William O'Brien, Esq. Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London.
In Carlow, the Rev. Meade Nesbitt Stone, M.D.
Wednesday, William Whitty, Esq. late Mayor of Wexford.
Saturday, Miss Anne Cahill.
At Carrick-on-Shannon, G. M'Dermott, Esq. formerly Paymaster of the Leitrim Militia.
In Sligo, Maria, wife of Dr. David Carter
In Newbliss, county Monaghan, James Moorehead, Esq. M.D. aged 73 years.
Catherine, wife of Richard Walsh, Esq. of Waterford.
At Stradbally, on the 17th, Eugene Ebenezer, youngest son of James J. Fisher, of this City.
At Whitechapel-house, Kilkenny, Ursula, relict of the late Thomas Baker, Esq. of Carrick-on-Suir.
Margaret Frederica, wife of Captain J. Locke, Upper Fitzroystreet, Fitzroy-square.
Sir James Home, Bart.
At Serjeant's Inn, Temple, aged 79, Lydia, relict of Alexander Burroughs Irwin, Esq. of the Island of St. Vincent.
At Kensington, aged 18, George, eldest son of the Dean of Chester.
Surgeon Logan, 5th Dragoon Guards.
At Lees Court, Kent, the Right Hon. Lord Sondes.
At Woolwich, Jane, wife of Edward Neale Wilford, Esq. of the Royal Artillery, and youngest daughter of the late John Drew, Esq.
At West Lulworth, Dorset, Captain Benjamin Crispin, R.N.
At Edinburgh, Mrs. Douglas, widow of Archibald Douglas, Esq. advocate.
At Swinford Park, on the 5th, Lieut.-General Sir Robert Bolton, G.C.H. Colonel of the 7th Dragoon Guards, formerly Aide-de-Camp to George III. and Equerry to George IV.
At Macao, four days after she arrived from England, Isabell Ann, wife of John Templemore, Esq.
Lieut.-Colonel Hubert de Burgh, Bengal Army.

Every WEDNESDAY
Market held in the
of the Shannon, mi-centre of an agricul-worthy the attentio-
A safe and comm-
NESDAY from Kildy

Cratloe and

AT a Meeting of held at the D instant,—Rev. Mr.
It was proposed by the Rev. M. Ma
That John Watson
Secretary and Treas
It was also reso
applications for reli to 6110 during the quested to solicit t prietors in the Par scribers.

Ya

THE well know 27 Tons, the several Prizes last s as the owner does Application to O'CONNELL, E
Tralee.

Grocer
INT
THE PRO
MR. THU

TO be Sold by A
at his late Re
ing of Raw and
Cape Wine, Spirit Spirits, distilled in isting of Canister
Imperial Copper M
and Weights, Cot Drainer. Also, a
the House.—The
on a lease of 61 y extensive business expended upon i Immediate possess
The House, &c
to 4 o'Clock.
Terms Sale—C
Duty.—Sale to c

EXPORTS.