DEATHS.

Yesterday, of fever, at his house, George's street, to the deep affliction of an attached wife and numerous circle of friends, Henry Webber Smith, Esq.
 At Adare, on the 27th inst. after a short illness, in his 28th year, John Charles Mackay, Esq. brother to George G. Mackay, Esq. M.D. Medical Superintendent of the Adare Fever Hospital and Dispensary.
 Sunday last, at Richmond Place, Mr. John Ryan, late conductor of the Garryowen brewery—a gentleman highly regarded by his fellow citizens for probity and suavity of manner.
 At the Island, much regretted, Ann, wife of Mr. John Nolan.
 At Kilbarron, county Clare, the residence of his father, Doctor Edward M'Grath, of fever, caught in the discharge of his duties as Assistant Physician to the Scariff workhouse.
 At Tralee, of fever, Walter Hussey, Esq.
 Mr. Richard E. Dunne, of the St. Michael's day police.
 In Wexford, of fever, Thomas Redmond, Esq. solicitor.
 Of fever, at Rock spring Terrace, Thomas Connor, Esq.
 On the 19th instant, at the residence of her brother, after a short illness, Alice Maude Mary, third daughter of the late Edward O'Neill, Esq. of Ture Castle, county Donegal, and sister to Miss H. Bruce O'Neill, the gifted authoress of "Nugge Canorce."
 At Upper Dominick street, Mr. Richard Burke.
 In Enniscortny, Anna, wife of Thomas E. Freeman, Esq.
 Mr. Thomas Flood, Newhall, county Kildare.
 On the 24th inst. in Mallow street, in his 72d year, John Tyrrell Baylee. For more than 50 years he was known and respected in this City as an accomplished scholar, a warm friend, and sincere Christian. Few men have passed through life so untainted by the spirit of the world, or unsullied by its faults. His end was peace and joy, in the full realization of the faith and hope and love of a crucified and risen SAVIOUR.
 At Leap Castle, Roscrea, Edward Sheppard, Esq. Firgrove, Bridgenorth.
 At Bantry, Mr. Timothy Sullivan, traveller for Messrs. W. Fitzgibbon & Co. Cork.
