

UT AND ABOUT

monthly calendar and time table is d with each copy of this evening's

If match, Newport v. Nenagh, played in ast week, resulted in a win for the home two matches.

Pierre Robertson, B.A., after five residence at the Galway Grammar as just left to take up work in the 1st as headmaster of one of the Govern-ools.

enry A. Blake, G.O.M.G., ex-Colonial r, was sworn in as a magistrate for the Cork, at Youghal Petty Sessions, before E. Horne, R.M.

and Mrs. O'Reilly, of the Kilkenny lice, have been the recipients of a valu-entation from the Postmaster and staff fice, on the occasion of their recent a.

unza is largely prevalent in Waterford, are also very evident in the two dis-istricts, no less than twenty additional iving been reported on Thursday, and also scarlatina.

angling below Athlunkard Bridge a few ago Mr. John Boyd, Secretary to the r Commissioners, captured a salmon g 30lbs stated that District Inspector McAuley, wel, who is most popular in the locality, ngaged in quelling a disturbance some o between two rival parties, was struck of the combatants. Much indignation locally, as the officer is held in much or the tact and even manner in which always discharged his duties.

Here Medical Association, in passing e ion expressing their sense of loss at the re of Dr. Faris from the Clare County ry, recommended that only a medical f some years' knowledge of practical work should be appointed to the vacant rev. Denis Cleary, P.P. O'Callaghan's has been promoted by the Most Rev. arty, Lord Bishop of Killaloe, to fill the in the Chapter of that diocese.

aturday evening the staff of the Ennis lice presented a massive marble clock to is, who had been their M.O. for the past s, on his leaving for England. Mr. er, postmaster, presided.

y, whilst fishing on Sunday in the Bandon ear the striction, came across the dead f Jason Allshire, an inhabitant of the The deceased, who was in the employ- of Messrs. John Clarke and Co., as an ant, was unmarried, and was about 45 f age. He was very popular, and belonged st respectable family.

THE CORPORATION.

eting of the Corporation has been con- for Thursday night to dispose of some

DEATH OF MR. HARE L.D.S.

We deeply regret to perceive by a wire this afternoon, the announcement of the death of an old and valued citizen, Mr. George F. Hare, L.D.S., which took place to-day at the residence of his niece, Tramore, Co. Waterford. Mr. Hare had been in failing health for some weeks back, but his demise, though not altogether unexpected, will come as a great shock to a large number of friends in the city where he was such a familiar and popular figure. He was a native of Ipswich, and came to Limerick some fifty years ago from London. He was qualified L.D.S. in 1863, and proved himself a very eminent man in his profession. Mr. Hare was a great lover of art and literature. As a violinist, he was one of the oldest and most prominent in our midst, and gave his services ungrudgingly at amateur entertainments held in this city for the past thirty or forty years. He was father of Mr. St. George Hare, R.A., whose paintings have been hung with great success in the National Gallery and elsewhere. Another son is Dr. Leopold Hare, of the sanatorium, Co. Dublin, and three other sons, one of whom is in San Francisco, follow the profession of dentists. Mr. Hare was the most affable and kindest of men, and his death, though he had reached the ripe old age of seventy-three years, will be deeply regretted by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. Mr. Hare was an old member of the Wesleyan congregation, and occupied high offices in connection with the Church. We deeply sympathise with his widow and family in their bereavement.

DEATH OF A GIFTED LIMERICK MUSICIAN.

Widespread regret will be felt in Limerick at the death of Mr. John F. Murray. The melancholy event took place at his residence, Mardyke Villas, Cork, on Sunday, and was unexpected. The deceased gentleman, who was a native of this city, was organist at Mount St. Alphonsus Church for a number of years, where his exceptional abilities as a musician were greatly appreciated, and for that matter in the city generally. After leaving Limerick he went to Belfast, and later on to Cork, where he figured largely in musical circles, and, as in Limerick, organised some brilliant concerts. Mr. Murray took a deep interest in his students, and among none perhaps will his untimely demise be felt more than by past members of Mount St. Alphonsus choir, by whom he was held in the highest esteem. The remains will arrive in Limerick to-morrow at 3.10 for interment in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery.

HOME RULE DEBATE.

Mr. Redmond's Motion.

In the House of Commons yesterday, Mr. Redmond moved his resolution setting forth that the present government of Ireland is "in opposition to the will of the Irish people," and that a resolution of the members "can only be

Stop Press News

R. I. TEACHERS AND EDUCATION BILL.

Mr. McKenna, replying to a deput- tion of Roman Catholic teachers who he received privately to-day, on t Education Bill, said he was opposed any form of contracting out. It w not his remedy, but he had to take in consideration the political circu- stances, and he saw no other way meeting the Catholic claim.

KINCARDINESHIRE UNIONIST CANDIDATE.

Mr. Sydney Gammell was to- d chosen as Unionist candidate f Kincardineshire in the bye-electi caused by the death of Mr. Cromlic.

KILRUSH QUARTER SESSIONS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.) The Easter Quarter Sessions for Wes were opened at the Courthouse, Kilr Monday, before his Honor County Court Bodkin, K.C. The officials present were Mr. T. (Registrar) and Mr. Fogarty (Assistan of the Crown).

A COMPLAINT.

Mr. John Cullinan, at the opening court, made a complaint against the ac a civil bill officer named Frawley for ne duty. He said he sent him three proc the 11th of March, and he returne unserved on the 30th March. The on- nation he offered was that he could nc the parties; that there were no people houses but little children under sixteen of age, whereas the people might have l in the gardens, and he did not take the to find them.

His Honor—Is that all you ask me to Mr. Cullinan—Yes, to censure him time it occurs I will ask you to oblige pay the costs.

Frawley, questioned by the Court, der neglect. He had gone there no less the times, but could not find the people houses.

Mr. Cullinan—Why didn't you p processes then?

Frawley said he did not know what to His Honor warned the process-serve should take the course the law directed. not occur again.

CONVENIENCING THE TEACHERS.