

...here, from Kilkenny, and this morning proceeded on their route to Kinsale. Died. Last Tuesday, most deservedly lamented, Mrs. Hoops, of Shanrahan, near Clougheen.

LIMERICK.

We are informed from good authority, that on Sunday night last, about 300 of those detested People called White Boys, assembled near Ballygarane, in this county; entered the houses of the Colony of Germans settled there, and took from thence a great number of Fire Arms.

Yesterday morning three troops of the 18th Light Dragoons marched for Rathkeale.

This morning died at her house in Dominick-street, Mrs. Stacpoole, relict of George Stacpoole, of Annah, Co. Clare, Esq; and Sister to the Right Hon. Lord Massy; she filled the several relations of Life, in a manner truly exemplary; in her the virtues of charity, benevolence and humility shone with their native lustre: Society must feel the loss of so rare a character, who, as she inherited every amiable quality, died universally beloved, revered, lamented, and most, by them who knew her best.—Her memory will be ever dear to a numerous family, to whom she was a most affectionate parent.

Last night about 11 o'Clock, as a servant of Mr. Thomas Fitzgibbon's was going to his master's house, he was attacked by three fellows in the Irishtown, knocked down and robbed of a pair of boots and a waistcoat, also of his own watch, and only for the timely appearance of a Gentleman, they would have taken away his life.

The Publication of the List of Subscribers to Mr. Crosbie's Experiment, is unavoidably postponed until Monday next, as the returns have not been made to the Treasurer agreeable to request.

Port-News, April 4. Arrived, the Delight, Pierce, Pool, ballast.—5. Sailed, the Peggy, M'Murrick, London, Beef, Pork and Oats.—The Elizabeth, Treharn, Bordeaux, Beef, Butter and Salmon.

March 9, 1786.

WHEREAS

a paragraph hath appeared in the Dublin Evening Post of the 16th Ult. and thence copied into several other Papers, stating a Transaction, as if between a Mr. M'Kenzie, and one of our Fire Companies, in such a Manner as may probably have Injured the Irish Companies in general in the Estimation of the Public, and more especially as the said Statement hath never since been refuted by the particular Company that may have occasioned it. Now, the DUBLIN INSURANCE COMPANY against Fire think proper to declare, that the said Transaction could not have any relation whatsoever to them, as the said Mr. M'Kenzie was not insured in their Office; that they never did refuse an Adjustment of any Difference by Arbitration, and have punctually and honourably discharged all their Engagements with the Public from their first Delay or any Manner of Litigation, and this they do with no other View than merely to wipe away any unjust Prejudice that the printer of an indiscriminate Charge against all the Companies may have improperly occasioned, and which by their Silence they must have participated of alike with any other Company.

Dublin, Signed by Order, J. T. ASHENHURST, Sec; on Houses, Goods and Merchandize against Fires, will be received and Punctually Executed by Mr. A. WATSON, Agent to the Dublin Company in Limerick.

March 20, 1786.

ORDNANCE-OFFICE,

Dublin-Castle, March 3d. 1786.

WHEREAS a Robbery has been committed in one of the Store Rooms in the Lower Castle-yard, by making a large hole through the outside Wall of the Building next White's-court in Great Ship-street, and several Articles of Tents and Havresacks stolen and carried away; and as it appears that the Hole or Entrance into the Building where the Theft was committed was made from an Apartment in White's-court, occupied by Nathaniel Alcock (a person employed by the City Gunsmiths) who has absconded, and there being every reason to believe that the said Alcock and his Confederates were the Persons who committed the said Robbery. The principal Officers of his Majesty's Ordnance, do hereby offer a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS for the apprehension of the said Nathaniel Alcock, or any other Person or Persons who shall be proved to have been concerned in the said Robbery.
