

from them it is impossible to and judicious annual expenditure ne, and much more effective for yal Highness paid a compliment rpa, which, as an adjunct of the of rendering great service to the ounty Limerick Militia have enlisted the line since their disembodiment. s of that gallant regiment, the r the command of Lieut.-Colonel Captains Herbert and Sandes. Day, Godfrey; Ensigns Raymond in and Adjutant Spring, with 300 ay proceeded from the Curragh arracks, where they are to be Militia Regiments will be called the 1st and 22d of next month. of the line return from India, the oing duty will be disembodied. at Militia regiments disembodied lled in.

Militia has been called out for training and exercise. The regi- at Boyle on the 1st May.

Militia Artillery at Portsmouth are n readiness to embark for Water- e of being disembodied between the Artillery are to assemble for train- y.

Militia will assemble at the Cavalry n. on Tuesday, the 1st of May for raining. At the expiration of that r the current year will be paid.

tries held yesterday, Messrs. Thomas uel Wormsighton were appointed the parish of St. Michael for the ens- n Carte and William Shaw, for Tri- s Thomas Power and William Wilkin-; Messrs. Myles and Frost, for St. s. Harrison Lee, sen., and John Pea- s.

y V. Watson presided at the Easter h of St. Patrick's, Kilkenny, on Mon- Rogers and Mr. Wm. Lander, were Vardene.

Hamilton, begs to acknowledge the anonymous; also £1 from a friend, Mary's parish.

a Protestant pauper from another ough into Bantry workhouse in the number of his creed to three, d to entitle the guardians to have a n.

sermons have been publicly burned - the impression that they contain o American slavery.

p, Esq., M.P., has subscribed 50l. the Kilgarvan Church, diocese of doe.

don is to preside to-morrow at the the Church Education Society in enant has appointed the Rev. Dr. loon, to the deanery of Kilmore, ise of Lord Fitzgerald and Vesey, ev. Frederick Fitzpatrick, son-in- s of Headford, to the valuable liv- nt by the promotion of the Rev. Dr. . Mr. Brougham is appointed to the rt, vacant by the promotion of the 'itzpatrick.

Mary Telford, daughter of the late Capt W Riddock, 4th King's Own Regiment. At the British Chapel, Nice, Esther Jane Browne, daughter of Peter Browne, Esq, for many years British Secretary of Legation at Copenhagen, to the Marquess Della Valle-Casa-Nova, brother of the Duke of Ventignano.

DEATHS.

At Dromeland, on the 10th inst., the Hon. Ellen Geraldine O'Brien, aged 16, fourth daughter of the Right Hon. Lord Inchiquin.

On Saturday last, John Fitzgerald, Esq. T.C. proprietor of the Garryowen brewery, a gentleman whose death is deeply and deservedly regretted by his family and friends. He was of mild and unassuming manner, a kind and affectionate husband, a fond parent, and sincere friend. His remains were this day interred at Mount-St. Laurence Cemetery, attended by the Corporation and civic retinue. The funeral requisites were supplied by the firm of Slattery & Co., George's-street.

On Good Friday, at Rynearna, county of Clare, Bridget, wife of Thomas O'Donoghue, Esq.

On the 22nd of March, of inflammation of the lungs at the residence of Frederick Bell, Esq, J.P. Fermoy, county Cork, Mrs Katherine Turton, of Tros-ey-afon, Beaumaris, North Wales, widow of the late Major Richard Turton, of H.M.'s 40th Regt, and daughter of Jocelyn Thomas, Esq, late of Bristol, county Carlow.

On Easter Sunday, at Chadville House, county Tipperary, after a protracted illness, Mrs Ryan, relict of the late William Ryan, Esq, much regretted.

At Liscahane, Millstreet, county Cork, Arabella Maria, wife of Denis O'Sullivan, Esq.

At his father's house, Square, Listowel, George Church, Esq., M.D.

At Dromore Cottage, near Bantry, Peter M'Swainy, Esq, late of Dirreen House, county Kerry.

In Cork, Mary, sister of Mr Joseph Abbott, of Great George's-street, in that city.

At Mount-infant, Cork, Bridget, wife of Mr Edward Fitzgerald.

At Upper Castle-street, Tralee, the wife of Mr T Jeffcott.

At Michael-street, Waterford, Mary Anne, wife of Mr Daniel Coman.

In Waterford, Susan, daughter of Thomas Barnes, Esq.

In Dublin, Richard Meade, Esq, one of the vice-presidents and trustees of the Incorporated Society of Attorneys and Solicitors of Ireland.

At Gardenfield, county Galway, James, son of the late James Kirwan, Esq, J.P.

At Nun's Island, county Galway, Emily, daughter of Wm Davy, Esq, Pro-Collector of Inland Revenue.

In Dunmore, county Galway, Mr Wm Murphy, James Whitmore, of Green's lane, Waterford, at the advanced age of 101 years.

At Newcastle, county Waterford, John May, aged 110 years.

At Booterstown-avenue, Dublin, James Arthur, son of the late James Arthur Mayne, Esq.

At Tullyra Castle, county Galway, John Martyn, Esq.

At Hillsboro', near Roscrea, Henry Buckley, Esq.

At Rathrobbin, King's County, Florence Helena, daughter of Francis M Biddulph, Esq.

At Abbeystown, Roscommon, Eliza Lady Moriarty, widow of Sir Thomas Moriarty, M.D.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Juliana, wife of Thos. Nixon, Esq, Captain Fermanagh Militia.

At Lower Mountpleasant-avenue, Dublin, John Aston, son of Mr John S Peake.

Mr Robert Campbell, Belfast.

At Cullenswood, Dublin, Marian Beale, the daughter of Mr James Bland.

At Aughton-terrace, Belfast, Mrs Isabella Aughton.

In Belfast, Marco, son of Modesto Silo.

At Kingstown, Michael, son of Michael Jones, Esq.

At Rathmines, Abraham Palmer, Esq.

At North Circular-road, Dublin, Elizabeth, wife of Ellish Bayly, timber merchant.

At Staplestown, county Wexford, Miss Catherine Duggan.

At Kensington, the Lady Audley.

At Hyde-park, London, Thomas Keogh, Esq, Secretary to the Board of Inland Revenue.

At Brighton, Anna Maria, widow of Samuel Le Fevre, Esq, and daughter of the Hon. Peter Boyle de Blaquiere.

At Hobart Town, Tasmania, Isabella, relict of Robert Bentley, Esq, of the Bank of Ireland, and daughter of the late Godfrey Green Vaughan, Esq, Upper Temple-street, Dublin.

At Newry, George, son of R B Hardy, Esq.

At Honduras, Capt James Branghall, of the ship Arcturion. Captain Branghall was a Galway man, and brother of Doctor P Branghall.

At Regent's-park, London, Philip Martineau, Esq, one of the Taxing Masters of the Court of Chancery.

In London, Major-General Wm Henry Law.

At Greenwich, Charles Lee, Esq, Clerk of the Works at the Royal Hospital.

At Regent's-park, London, Martin Statoly, Esq.

At Chatham, Col J S Lewis, formerly of the 63d Regt.

Mr Sergeant Wallinger.

of Mr. Christy's on a B Belvoir is within 10 8 of Six-Mile-Bridge, 3 The usual Commission addition to the bidding Edmon AUCTION

A Pair Horse William-street, at 11 o' ing, 23rd Inst.; the Sale Sharp.—E. B.

For Sale THE Clipper Built Copenhagen, 162 T castle-on-Tyne in Septer was classed at French She now lies at Dingle Coast of Ireland, has die in prime condition, and. This vessel was dismantled Bay of Dingle, and the have given instructions at Noon, on WEDNESDA Quay, where she now li This vessel is well wo as she has always been k an handsome model and Any further informati Simmelkair, who is on b cation to Messrs. JO

April 7

Theatre Ro

GARRISON AMA MONDAY EVENING the Patronage of BORTON, C.B., in aid of Chorus, "War Song," derer," Captain Grantha Swallows," Captain Gran "Soldiers' Love," Guar well to Terence," Miss 3 me Good Friends now if 9th Regt.

AFTER THE Song, "Hearts of O AFTER TO O ETHIOPIA Accompanyist

PROGRAMME to be perform CONDUCTOR

1. Overture, "William "Il Travatore," Marriot ner; 4. Selection, "Nor Cornet," Muller; 6. G Montgomery; 7. Selectio

1st Verse, Captain Bri Chorus—The By New Barracks, April 1