On Palm Sunday, the Rev. the Lord Bishop preached at Ballymena. The Duke of Barrington's House was filled with donors. Donations from the entire county were thankfully received by the different Churches.

Mr. Lambe, Church Warden, of Lismore.

Oak, Ash, Birch, and Hazel.

Mr. O'Neill, St. John's, Enniscorthy.

Application to the Magistrates.

Agyard, Cramer & Co., Limerick.

Bryan, the Solicitor, of Midleton.

From the Palatinate.

For sale.

THE HOUSE

SITUATE WITHIN 2 MILES OF THE COACH ROAD, is a neat Country House, with a large and convenient farm, in the neighborhood.

The Demesne contains about 300 acres, with a good stock of brushwood and tillage. The situation is fine, and the surrounding landscape is good.

The Tenant's farm is about 60 acres of land, and the house is well adapted for a small family.

The new house is let for £20 per annum, and is well situated in the vicinity of the town.

Proposals to purchase.

Esq. Thomas-smith, of Cork.

Esq. Thomas-smith, of Limerick.

JAMES BURROWS, Surveyor.

Charles Vasey, Esq. to Lord Plunkett.

CHEVYELIER BARLEY.

STEIN AND BROWN have imported in the Foyle Packet from London 4 Quarters best quality of CHEVYELIER BARLEY, which they are selling at their Distillery, Thomond-gate, at THREE PENNY PER STONE under cost.

April 8.