At Jubbulpore, East Indies, Manaton C. Ommanney, of the E. I. Company's Civil Service, to Louisa E. Costley, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Costley, of the Hon. Company's Native Infantry.

DEATHS.

Suddenly, on Thursday evening, Mr. Francis Creagh, of Lower Wentlooghe-street, was engaged as usual at business during the day, and in perfect health five minutes before his death, when he suddenly dropped upon the stairs, and never spoke after.

In Mungret-street, Catherine Fitzgerald, widow of the late Mr. John Allen, in North Great George's-street, Dublin, Lady Ferguson, relict of the late Sir R. Ferguson, Bart. of Londonderry, and mother to Sir R. Ferguson, Bart. M.P.

Mhetabelia Wilson, daughter of George Wilson, late of Betvilly, county Dublin, and wife of George Wilson, late of Spring-hill, and now of Termon Glebe, county Tyrone.

Lieut. Bartholomew O'Flahely, Royal Marines, late of Rockwellcottage, Kenmare, county Kerry.

At the King's Arms Hotel, Fermoy, where he removed a few days since from his detachment in Kilkare, for the benefit of his health, Lieut. McCroone, 95th Regiment, sincerely regretted by his brother officers.

At his house, Leinster-row, Dublin, Edward Fitzgerald, Esq. in Stafford street, Gabriel Clarke, Esq. M.D. fifty years a Practitioner in Dublin.

In Dublin, the Rev. George Acock, for thirty years incumbent of the united parishes of Graigh and Ullard, in the diocese of Leighlin. Suddenly, in Dingle, James Hickson, Esq. a respectable merchant of that town.

At an advanced age, the very Rev. John Corrin, a Dean of the Roman Catholic Church, and for more than fifty years Parish Priest of Wexford. He was universally beloved and respected by all classes of the inhabitants, being remarkable for his humane and benevolent disposition; but what endeared him most to all who had the pleasure of knowing him personally, or hearing of his amiable character, was the praiseworthy and humane part he took at the time and on an occasion of great public importance; having been the instrument in the hands of God of putting a stop to the sacrifice on the bridge of Wexford in 1798, when it was intended by the insurgents to put to death every Protestant they had in custody who would not join them. Just as they had finished the inhuman butcherie of 97 unoffending and harmless persons, and in the act of hurrying more into eternity, Father Corrin, in the most humane manner, rushed on the bridge and at the risk of his own life saved those on their knees ready to be piked, and prevented the further effusion of innocent blood.

In Armagh, in his 73rd year, Jane, relict of the late Rev. Thomas Carpendale, many years Master of the College of Armagh. Sidney Anne, eldest daughter of John Fox, of Moyley House, King's County, Esq.

At Armagh, Percy Jocelyn M'Master, Esq.

At Carrick-on-Suir, near Carrick-on-Suir, Mrs. Moore, wife of Christopher Moore, of Clonmel, county Waterford, Esq.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Mr. John Bourke.

At Cong, Mayo, Richard Moore, Esq. killed by a fall in hunting.

At Cashel, Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald.

At Hythe, near Southampton, Mrs. Amelia Barry, aged 90.

At Thos. Sibly, Elizabeth Lucy, relict of the late Captain Temple Hardy, R.N. aged 71.

At Devonport-street, London, Harriet, relict of P. Tilghman, Esq. and eldest daughter of the late Admiral Milbanke.

In Cavendish-square, Sir George Leman Tuthill, Knight, M.D.

At Wakefield, in his 85th year, Richard Burrell, Esq.

At Waltham, Lieut. Geo. Shaw, R.N.

At Tooting, Matthew Lumsden, Esq. L.L.D.

At Edinburgh, Andrew Skene, Esq. advocate.

At Savannah la Mar, William Coote, Esq.

At Berlin, the Hon. Sevilla Howard, wife of Henry F. Howard, of Cornbury Castle, Esq. and daughter of Lord Erskine.

At Lisburn, aged 17, Susan, only daughter of Edward Gibbon, of Wakefield Esq.

King's Arms Hotel, Fermoy, at a private sale.

 Mystical Irish Toasts to the Irish Toasts to the

Berkeley Park, London, the late Prime Minister, at the Kensington Palace, London, at the private sale of

Prime Minister, at the private sale of

Pickles and Mincemeat to the

New Music to the

Clonmel, the late Prime Minister, at the private sale of

Sweet Irish Stout to the

Flour, Cider, and Wine to the

Mountmeath, the late Prime Minister, at the private sale of

VALENTINE'S DAY BALANCE-HANDLING.

JOHN SMITH, 79 Westmoreland-street, Dublin, balances and handles with a splendid and original pattern in a Neapolitan Plated Ware.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10th.

BERLAND balance-handles, 6d.

A list of Property.

The Possibility of getting 6d. at the auctioneer by stating that these are "plain," "equal," "silver," "gold," "bronze," etc., and various devices are to be had by the artist in the mode of correspondence. Artists in the mode of correspondence will be required to produce Urns, Grecian Urns, Grecian Urns, and Grecian Urns for the Cabinet of the Secretary of State. The figures, very beautiful, of Dresden.

The PLATINUM, Art of Plain and Greek Urns, and the Crucifixes and Trays, large and small, size, Tea Urns, and Fruit Basins, Silver Dinner Pots, Salt Spoons, and Fruit Basins, Toast Racks, Silver Dinner Pots, &c. &c.

At Kilkenny, the late Capt. and Mrs. Walsh, Esq. and Mrs. Walsh, Esq. Carvers to me.

The entire property of Twelve Carvers to me.

Sale to commence on...