

tract must use plication at the

the Dispensary,
jars, hampers,
r's risk.

naming two sol-
nd, for the due ved by me up to

ORE,
rk of Union.

nthly.

On.

Revised Valua-
y custody, and person affected
e 21 days next ndays, between
, and 4 o'clock

f the Union.
April 9.

n.

WANTED.

THURSDAY, the
to the Election
r the annexed

the following

riet Boola
Broadford
Dromcolloher
Feenagh
riet Kilmeedy
Mahoonagh
Ballino-west
Clouncagh
Knockaderry
ct Ballintobber
Cleanglass
Danganbeg
lengort
Mount Plumer
mes of Two Officers to be in the War-
dged with me
above named exceed 6d. to dged with the

ive Districts,
o perform the rs under the
be held indig-
f Candidates.
for re-elecidates will be

MOORE,
of Union.

(3p)

In London, Edward Power, Esq. of Gloucester, to Caroline
Sarah, daughter of Capt. Payne, late of the Grenadier Guards.

DEATHS.

On yesterday evening, in Robert-street, Mr. James Hickie, an extensive iron merchant, and an old and respectable citizen—characterised through life for the warm sincerity of his private friendship, and the strict probity of his public dealings.

April the 5th, in Manchester-street, London, Daniel Cronin, Esq. of the Park, Killarney.

On the 7th inst. at Rutland, in the King's County, after a tedious illness, which she bore with Christian piety and resignation, Amelia, the wife of Charles H. Minchin, Esq.

At Cavendish-road West, St. John's-wood, Lieut-Colonel Thomas Best Jervis, FRS, aged 61, HEIC Engineers, and Founder and Director of the Topographical and Statistical Depot, War Department.

On the 8th of February, at Sandridge, Victoria, Jessie, the beloved wife of John Russell Keaya, Esq. of the Colonial Customs.

On the 3d inst. at Bolstons, West Brompton, aged 83 years, Elizabeth, relict of Dr. Maguire, and mother of the late Lieut. Francis Maguire, 4th (or King's Own) Regt., who was killed on the breach at St. Sebastian when gallantly leading the forlorn hope, (which he volunteered to command), at the successful storming of that important fortress, on the morning of 1st August, 1813. This incident has been communicated by brother officer who saw him fall.

At Birr Castle, the Hon. John Parsons, aged 11 years.
At Tivoli Gardens, Glanmire-road, Jane Kenifeck, daughter of the late Patrick Kenifeck, Esq. of Cork, aged 35, and niece of Mrs. Pierce Mahony.

In Cork, Jane Isabella, daughter of the late Capt. Davies.
At Inane, in the parish of Creagh, Jane, wife of Thomas Long, Esq.

Mr. John Lanelan, of Cork.
John Cheevers, Esq. DL, county Galway.
At Castlebar, Frances, relict of John Acton, Esq. MD, aged 78 years.

In Mullingar, Mr. John Tuite.
At Blackrock, Cork, Anne, wife of John Lindsay, Esq. barrister-at-law.

At Blackpool, Cork, suddenly, Jacob F. Fletcher, Esq. of Lancashire.

At Leitrim-place, Wicklow, Elizabeth, wife of James Nolan, Esq. aged 49.
At Maryville, Blackrock, Anne, wife of J. Lindsay, Esq. barrister-at-law.

At Ballyjamesduff, Elizabeth, wife of the Rev. George MacDonnell, aged 29.
At the residence of her son, Weston Park, Leixlip, aged 70 years, Mrs. Doyle.

John, youngest son of Mr. D. Kavanagh, of Kilballyron, county Wicklow.

At Templeogue, Caroline, daughter of Robert Long, Esq.
At Killown Cottage, the Rev. Charles Walker, AB, second son of Paul Walker, Esq.

In Dublin, John M'Carthy, Esq. aged 70.
In Dublin, Ellen, child of Mr. Edward Toomey.

At Benown, the relict of Peter Chaigneau, of Dublin, barrister-at-law.

At The Hill, Monaghan, Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late Mr. James G. Lepper, sen. apothecary.

At Usher's Island, John Harley, Esq.
In Belfast, Mr. Samuel Swallow.

In Coleraine, Jane, relict of the late Mr. James Wilson, Dirlagh, Aghanloo, aged 84.
At Ravarra, Mr. William Woods, aged 96.

At Haverford West, Anthony Denny, Esq. son of the late Edward Denny, Esq. of Derryvolland, in the county of Fermagh, aged 33.

At Colnbrook, near Windsor, from the effects of an accident on the previous day, George Francis Crozier, Esq. the only son of the Rev. Graham P. Crozier, rector of the Union of Tannagh, county Sligo.

At West Derby, William, only child of L. Fosberry, Esq.
At Douglas Castle, on Monday last, Lord Douglas.

At Torquay, R. T. Mansergh St. George, Esq. of Hatley, Torquay, and of Headford Castle, county Galway.

At Gosport, Emily, the wife of Capt. Potter.
In Edinburgh, Frances Sarah, the wife of Charles Edward Barrett Lenhard, Lieutenant 5th Dragoon Guards, aged 17 years and 10 months.

At Osmington, near Weymouth, Frances, the wife of Edwd. Atkins Wood, Esq. and eldest daughter of Lieut-Col. Hervey Smith, of Apsley house, near Woburn, Beds.

At Brixton, Surrey, Lt-Col. McVicar.
At Newport, Isle of Wight, Lady Worsley Holmes, relict of the late Sir Leonard Worsley Holmes, Bart.

Edney Thomas, aged 6 years, son of the Rev. George Dundas, Incumbent of St. Mathias's, Nottingham.
At Thebes, John Kincaid Lennox, late Captain 12th Royal Lancers.

Whilt on his passage home from India, Lieut. Charles J. Phillipps, HM 60th Rifle Regt.

of that meeting.
On Wednesday, the 1st
Vere passed through Rat
nounced, that on the following would canvass the electors.
nesday a meeting was hastily ascertained with as much acc
the notice permitted, that ou reside in, or have votes from would give most energetic su and De Vere; that 11 would that "2" would follow in the Archdeacon. As may fairly state of the constituency, the day was an enthusiastic and tion of confidence in our pr held in the public market pl o'clock in the day, continued uninterrupted by a single mu and terminated by a triumph
the town, to the manifest sa its inhabitants. In the letter deacon Fitzgerald invites Vere to a public meeting to keale on the 8th of May; now gentlemen, who by that time Parliamentary duties, that w their sincerity, or explanation
and we deprecate any furthe Priest or Layman to disturb feeling which have always exi tants of this town.

So much for the letter, but an allusion which we cannot Having referred to some d Catholicity, he says—"Our m would be equally ready to gi have never been called on to it is certain that they owe t
tion of this county to their b and as such representation and power, it may be said wit has been a gainful one." No tion can any honest or can paragraph, except an unmis
the gentlemen, referred to,
which they now profess, wer
enced by the unworthy moti liamentary position? It mea thing. Now does the Arch is the slightest grounds fo Monsell was in Parliament place. Mr. De Vere after h Catholic religion was more more than once refused to life; but it would be an insu attempt a defence on this su
never proceeded from the bitt their religious or political very humiliating to conside
the first time proceed from priest.

Rathkeale, April 8, 1857.
John Ferguson, Solicit
Robert Ferguson, Bar
Wm. Hogan, Cottage,
David O'Hanlon, M.I
Thomas Holmes, M.D
Michael Fitzgibbon, E
J. M'Donnell.
Joseph Casey.
Stephen Casey.
James Hayes.
Timothy Couhey.
John Costelloe.
April 11.