DEATHS.

At the residence of her husband, Upper Mallow-street, in this city, on Monday, the 19th inst. Enza, the beloved wife of Doctor Joseph Parker. The premature demise of this amiable and kind lady, who only gave birth to a daughter a few days previous, has cast her family and relatives into deep affliction.
She was a devoted and loving wife, an affectionate and endearing parent, a faithful Christian and follower of her Redeemer.
The loss of so truly good a lady is deeply deplored, and will be long remembered by the large family upon whom her parental care was so ardently bestowed. The remains of Mrs Parker will be removed for interment to the family vault at St. John's church, on to-morrow morning, at eight o'clock.
