

denial of the opinions so flip--General, the public will draw pinions given before so grave a acts of such importance, should d; but an over-anxiety for dis-it of our talents, often turns the now ask the Major-General, for d political, was the Sixpenny Was it not for that of his Noble on the Grand Jury that carried rough the Abbey, will, we doubt nbered by his Lordship! The me men—men scarcely known to the notoriety with which they, aimed at the property of others, over-work themselves:—of this, ot be in point, but we have heard that however exceptionable is ecked!—but into these things we present. We will ask who is the cavalierly speaks of? Surely, we omewhat better than the General, on amongst the Shrievalty of our n reading the General's evidence, —although summoned to give evitate of Ireland, yet, by a kind of e kept it a case to the local (politics affairs of Limerick. On this said has a lynx's eye, fancying that, if le David, he would be called to the n, that whatever chance little David questionable) that the General deludes at either by Brevet or the order of on which the anniversary of the Sovereign is celebrated, the same City with every becoming respect, shered in with merry chimes from and the vessels in the harbour ex-At noon, the troops consisting of a y, Major St. Clair—3d Dragoon y—19th Foot, Colonel Milne—and y—the entire under the command ir John Elley, K. C. B. fired a l Salute, which were answered by om the numerous population collast, an unoccupied house on the n, near Kilfinan, was maliciously following night, another house on d the same fate, together with turf, utensils which were deposited in it.

Monday last, the house of John s of Corrageen, County Tipperary, ned; and on the following night, a James Lister, on the lands of Cor-o destroyed.

kite notice was served on Mr. Smith-near Golden; Mr. Smithwick was spudence, in coming to that part of e land, and was warned to leave the coffin.

from Galway and three from Ennis, ay under a guard of the 25th Regt. ing forwarded to Cook for transporta-ort of the 61st.

Tullough in the West of the County sturbed on Sunday last, by the excess ting factions the Sextons, who assem-bers to meet an opposite party—They reed among themselves and a dreadful hich several severe cuts and blows were civil bills were disposed of by the Bar-Sessions.
ave been convicted for assaults, before Rathkeale Sessions, which terminated hn, David, and William Buttiner, to month to hard labour, and to find bail of Limerick, to keep the peace for 7

John Hewson, Esq. of Castle-Hewson, to Laura, eldest daughter of John S. Brown Esq. of Shannonview.

In Dublin, the Rev. George Edward Venables Vernon, Rector of Carlow, to Jane, only child of the Rev. Thomas Kingsbury, Archdeacon of Killala.

In Cork, George W. Foott, Esq. eldest son of Wade Foott, Esq. of Elm-Park, County Cork, to Ellen, eldest daughter of Alderman Sir Anthony Perrier.

At Whitechurch, County Kilkenny, the Rev. William Andes, of Carrick-on-Suir, to Miss Burrowes.

B. Alexander, Esq. of Moate, to Maria Teresa, second daughter of John Hopkins, of Moat Lodge, Esq.

In London, William Tighe, Esq. of Woodstock, to Lady Louisa Lennox, fifth daughter of the late Duke of Richmond.

Lieut.-Colonel George Disbrowe, Grenadier Guards, to Louisa, daughter of Lord Kilmaine.

At Mary-la-bonne New Church, John Leveson Gower, of Bill-hill, Berkshire, Esq. to Miss Charlotte Mitchell, daughter of Lady Harriet and the late Colonel Mitchell

At Clifton Church, William G. Bird, Esq. of Litchfield, to Phebe Aane, daughter of the late Rev. James Olive, Rector of St. Paul's, Bristol.

Captain Long, to the Hon. Miss Stanley, daughter of Lord Stanley.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday, at his seat, Bunratty Castle, County Clare, Thomas Studdert, Esq. the senior Magistrate of that County—~~was~~ an affectionate husband, a kind parent, a liberal landlord, and a truly upright honorable man—no individual in society discharged the relative and social duties in a more excellent manner: and his truly amiable character will live long in the recollection of those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance—it is therefore needless to say, that his death is a source of deep affliction to his extensive family and connexions.

At Moyne, the Rev. Thomas Coghlan, O. S. D. of the Becar Convent, Galway.

In Parliament-street, Cork, Catherine, only daughter of Mr. T. Buckley, Architect.

On Tuesday, at Ballybricken, in this County, James O'Shaughnessy, Esq. The death of this valued and respected Gentleman will be felt as a severe loss by all who were in the sphere of his benevolence; while the circle of acquaintance, of which he was the soul and centre, deeply lament him. In contemplating this event, we behold another illustration of the instability of earthly things—snatched from an admiring circle of friends, at a period when his amiable qualifications had arrived at full maturity. His premature decease is the source of infinite regret to every individual of his acquaintance. In the domestic circle where the human character may be truly estimated, he displayed an uniform and gentle peculiarity of manner, which is always the characteristic of a well regulated and generous mind.

In Sackville-street, Dublin, the wife of Mr. Lawless.
Villiers Hilliard, of Billervough, County Kerry, Esq.

At Dundrum, Mr. Walter Dyas, late of Dublin.

In Sligo, the relict of Andrew Hume, Esq.

In Dublin, Mrs. Smith, eldest daughter of the late Hugh Reilly, of Anna, County Cavan, Esq.

In Kinsale, Mrs. Mason, relict of James Mason, Esq.
Mr. John Geoghegan, of Dublin.

At Simon's Court, Brooke Taylor, third son of Brooke Taylor Otley, Esq.

In London, Lady Charlotte Berkeley, of a daughter.
Lieutenant-Colonel the Hon. Henry Percy, C. B.

P. and fifth son of the Earl of Beverly.

At Mallow, Miss Riall, daughter of Wm. Riall, Esq.

Lady Harpur, relict of Sir Henry Harpur, Bart.

Captain Philip Gill, of the Berkshire Militia.

At Genoa, Lieutenant-Colonel William Wauchope, of Niddrie Marischall, in the County of Edinburgh.

At Langenberg, on the 5th inst. his Serene Highness Prince Charles Louis, of Hohenlohe, aged 62.

On his return from India, Lieut. James Buchanan, 25th Regiment.

NOTICE.

THE Auction of SHEEP advertised for TUESDAY.

the most fashionable stock of GOODS are for sale, containing every article now in de-don. Having bought for ready money, sh sell on the most moderate terms.

Of a few amongst the many new artic leave to enumerate the Ribbet and French Scarfs, Silk Handkerchiefs, Ribbons and quite new and beautiful description; a Bonnets, &c. &c.

Her particular attention shall be a orders from the country.

N. B.—A large supply of FAMILY M as usual.

C 4/17 Limerick,

WITHIN A MILE OF LIMERICK

alter
TO BE LET,
FOR THREE LIVES,
Or the Interest to be Sold, and immediate possession given

KILQUANE

OTHERWISE CHURCH-LAND,

IN THE COUNTY OF CLARE

And less than a mile from Thomons

And contiguous to the Salmon-W

THE intended Bridge at Athloncard Farm within a few minutes ride of contains nearly 30 Acres of Pasture and are nearly Four Acres now under Wheat, tilled with Early Potatoes, and a large q nure on different parts of the ground.

Proposals in writing to be made to ALB who will Set or Sell it only to a Solvent Limerick, Ap

WELLESLEY-PLACE

A DESIRABLE RESIDENCE

NORTH STRA

TO BE LET BY THE Y

OR FOR SUCH TERM AS MAY BE AG

From the first day of May

THE HOUSE and OFFICES are e for the immediate accommodation o together with Si acres of highly impro most tastefully. There are two Garden of one Acre five years old, in full be derable sum has been expended on m Offices comfortable: and the value o will be considerably increased by the Ne

Application to be made to HENRY COLLIS, Esqrs. Limerick.

C H Kair

COUNTY TIPPERARY

TO BE LET,

IN THE WHOLE OR IN D

FOR THREE LIVES,

(Subject to Redemption

THAT PART OF THE L

MIDDLE CL

As lately held by Thos. and M CONTAINING Fifty-Two Acres Perches, with Turbary for the us being part of the Estate of Henry near the town of Toomivara, Barony Proposals (post-paid) will be rece COLE BOWEN, Esq. Post-Office, TYDD, Esq. Clonmel.

C H Kair Clonmel