

DEATHS.

Yesterday at his seat, Glin Castle, of the prevailing epidemic, after a few hours illness, and in the prime of life, John J. Fitzgerald, Esq. Knight of Glin, Lieut.-Colonel County Limerick Militia, Deputy Lieutenant and Magistrate of this County—a gentleman of most affable manners and cultivated mind, an excellent resident landlord, and whose death is regretted by all who had the pleasure of his friendship or acquaintance. The influence of his position, and his personal exertions were ever devoted to relieve the wants of the poor, by constant attendance at the board of Guardians of the union of which he was their respected Chairman.

At Ballinacorra house, on yesterday morning, to the deep regret of her relatives and friends, Frances, widow of the late Richard Massey Yeilding, Esq. of Bellevue in this County, and mother of William Richard Yeilding, Esq. whose death was recorded in our last.

At the house of her brother, Robert Anglim, Esq. Glentworth-street, on Saturday evening last, after a lingering illness, borne with perfect resignation and Christian fortitude, Ellen, daughter of the late James Anglim, Esq. of this City.

At her father's house, Laurel Cottage, on the North Strand, Sophia, second daughter of Joseph Robinson, Esq. of this city.

At her residence, Leinster Road, Rathmines, Dublin, on Saturday last, Sarah, aged 69, relict of the late Alexander Marshall, Esq., and mother of James Marshall, Esq. of this City. Her remains were brought down from Dublin, and interred this morning in St. John's Church.

At Killonan, on Monday, after a protracted illness, Rebecca, the beloved wife of Mr. Michael Cahill. Her virtues endeared her to all who knew her, and her loss is deeply felt by her afflicted family and sorrowing friends.

At Black Castle, county Meath, Margaret, daughter of John Ruxton, Esq.

At Mary-street, Cork, aged 80 years, Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. Wm. Watkins, Builder.

Thomas Butler, many years Porter at the Chamber of Commerce.

At Roche's-street, Maria, daughter of Bartholomew Carroll, porter at the Limerick Club.

At Mullinavat, county Kilkenny, Mr. M. Aylward, father to the Rev. E. Aylward, parish priest of Castlecomer.

In Drogheda, Mr. Carberry M'Cann.

Of typhus fever, at Ballyphehane house, Robert Augustus, third son of Charles Lyster, aged 25.

At Castlereagh, Roscommon, Arthur Wellesley Young, Esq. Ann, relict of the late Mr. John Hendrick, of Cork.

At Fethard, aged 83 years, Mrs. Rossiter, relict of William Rossiter, Esq. of Ramstown, county Wexford.

At the residence of her son, the Rev. Thomas Butler, C.C. Rathfarnham, Margaret Butler, aged 70 years.

The Rev. John Goodwin, P.P. Ballybay, Monaghan.

At Ballinacraw, William Hay, Esq. M.D.

At Bangor, William, eldest son of S. M'Murray, aged 16.

At Monaghan, Mr. James G. Lepper, Licentiate of the Apothecaries Hall.

At Pembroke-park, Dublin, Mr. William Laing, formerly connected with the Provincial and National Banks, Galway.

At her residence Upper Baggot-st., Miss Jane Ramsey, in her 80th year.

William Flanders, Esq. Brunswick-square, a life subscriber of £1500 to the London Missionary society.

At Paddington, Catherine, widow of Capt. Robert Matthews, 88th Regt.

In London, James Clancy, youngest son of John Clancy, Esq. Kilnemanagh, county Tipperary.

At Union-grove, Wandsworth-road, Elizabeth, wife of Herbert Wigan Swayne, Esq. of Markyate-street, Bedfordshire.

At Kennington, in the 78th year of his age, James Parker, Esq. formerly of Queen-street, Cheapside.

At his residence, Bury-street, St. Mary-Axe, Don Pacifico.

At Edinburgh, Professor Robert Jameson, aged 79—a large contributor to the Encyclopædia Britannica, and who occupied the chair of natural history in Edinburgh University.

At Carmarthen, Fanny, daughter of Capt. R. H. De Winton, late 99th Regt.

At Partick, Glasgow, Hugh Colquhoun, sen. Esq.

At Westover, Isle of Wight, Edith Maria Charlotte, youngest daughter of the Hon. W. A'Court Holmes.

At Ember-court, Eliza S., youngest daughter of Sir Charles Sullivan, Bart.

At Lyons, Lieut. A. Grey, R.N., son of the Lord Bishop of Hereford.

On his homeward voyage for the restoration of his health, the Rev. James Chambers, jun., Head Master of the High School, St. Helena, and Government Inspector of Schools.

At New York, Thomas Lillis, a native of Croom, County of Limerick.

At Rome, Julia, the wife of Capt. Bristow, and eldest daughter of the late Lieut.-General Henry Raleigh Knight.

At Buenos Ayres, Thomas Bass Oliver, Esq. eldest son of the late Thomas Barfoot Oliver, Esq. Quorndon-hall, Leicestershire.

A Cork ;
let), on Wed
31
7
12
1
Four wheels
&c. at 1 o'C
WI
April 26.

Left at Mr.
A FASH
A Patent able, and eas

Want
A Smart
of age,
sant with th
Apply per

A LIGHT Horse day for this Thomas-st.

THE Bos
termin Tenders to or more ship
the month o
" Each A
or Biscuit p (to be given addition to
and the nec
Children ur Bread or Bi voyage. Th
ken up by t
the part occ
such, and M insured."

Tenders amount per sureties for be lodged w
the 3d May cessarily be
By

Office, A

The H
ONTA
sure, c
House is q
ing Rooms and Store
There is Offices. three miles
Apply t
the Owner