DEATHS.

At her son's residence, James-Brook Hall, county Cork, Martha, relict of the late Michael Goold Adams, Esq. and sister of the Earl of Bantry.

At Ryde, Isle of Wight, on Sunday last, the Hon. Erina Gun Cunninghame, wife of Robert Gun Cunninghame, of Newtown-mount-kennedy, Esq.

On the 28th ult. at her house in Henry-street, Mrs. Jane Marshall, relict of the late Lawrence Marshall, Esq. of Timoline.
Her innocence and Christian charity endeared her to her family and friends.

In Baltinglass, aged 84 years, Jane Taylor, of the Society of Friends, relict of William Taylor, of Clogheen, county Tipperary.
The Rev. James O'Brien, P.P. of Knockany, in this county.

In Bandon, in the 85th year of her age, Mary, relict of the late John Teulon, Esq. of Cork.

Elizabeth, widow of Richard Shaw, Esq. of Molesworth-street, Dublin, and daughter of the late William Hayes, of Killura, county of Limerick, Esq.

At Clarence Plains, Van Dieman's Land, Margaret, widow of the late Dr. M'Ardell, of Cappoquin, county Waterford, daughter of the late Rev. Harris Oldfield, and sister to Archdeacon Oldfield, of Roscommon.

At Commeen, county of Cork, William Travers, Esq.

In London, Lucinda, wife of Abel Benjamin Orpen, of Cork, Esq.

On the 20th inst. at Liskennet, in this county, after a few days' illness, James Therry, of Bettyville, in the county of Cork, Esq. eldest son of John Therry, Esq.—one of the late Commissioners of the Revenue, and nephew of Lieut.-General Sir Henry Keatinge, K.C.B. The unexpected demise of this respected gentleman (prematurely cut off in the prime of life) has plunged his afflicted wife and child in profound sorrow, and diffused a deep gloom amongst his numerous relatives—to them, respectively, he was justly endeared by every quality that could render valued an husband, father, or friend; and whilst the circle of his social acquaintance must regret the urbane and polished gentleman, the poor of his neighbourhood will long lament the loss of an impartial and intelligent magistrate. [In consequence of inaccuracy, we rein-sert the obituary of the late James Therry, Esq.]

In Dublin, Mr. Thomas Stritch, formerly of the Lax-weir, Corbally.

At Rathmines Terrace, Frederick Bond Eaton, son of Benjamin Eaton, Esq.

The Rev. Thomas Bogue, P.P. of Clones.

At Lough Oona, county Monaghan, aged 81 years, the Rev. Mr.
Moffatt, Rector of Currin and Drumkrin.

In Belfast, Francis Hamilton Blackwood, Esq.

William, son of William Booth, Esq. of Clover-hill, county of Roscommon.

At Liverpool, Elizabeth Dalrymple Hay, widow of the late Leveson Douglas Stewart, Esq. Royal Navy.

At Sea Bank, Jane M'Ewen, wife of Alexander Kay, Esq. merchant, and Provost of Dundee; and thereafter, George Duncan.

At Edinburgh, John Easton, M.D. Esq. of Courance Hill, Dum-friesshire.

At Gateside, Hamilton, in his 73d year, Mr. Duncan Campbell, Supervisor of Excise.

At Gloucester-place, Portman-square. Robert Bridgman, eldest son of Robert Cunninghame Taylor, Esq.

In her 89th year, at Wem, Shropshire, Mrs. Hannah Williams, mother of Sir John Bickerton Williams.

At Paris, Col. Sir Robert Steele, of Beaminster-house, Dorset.

At Irvine, William Gillies, Esq. Provost of that Burgh.

George Forbes, Esq. Sloane-street, in his 82d year.

In Montagu-place, Montagu-square, Florence Rose, daughter of the late Anthony Montonnier Hawkins, M.D. of Monmouth.

Mary Bunn, daughter of Robert Menzies, Esq. of Upper Stamford-street.

At sea, on his voyage to England, Col. S. Reid, Bengal Army.

At Sydney, New South Wales, William Morgan, Esq.

In Sandy Bay, Hobart Town, Van Dieman's Land, Major Henry Hatton Jacob, late 80th Regt.

On Monday, at his residence, Colville, of fever, William Nash, Esq. Stipendiary Magistrate, of Clonmel, son of the late E. Nash, Esq. of Eallytigue, in this county. The demise of this gentleman is sincerely mourned by a fond wife and a wide circle of relations and friends. As a magistrate he was upright and impartial, and in private life he was much esteemed by all who knew him.

Tuesday, at an advanced age, in Clonmel, Wm. Lonergan, Esq.

In Jersey, aged 27 years, Christopher Bilton, only son of the late C. Bilton, of Sackville-street.
