LIMERICK

We have authority to assert, that the 27th Regiment, Commanded by General Maffy, now on their route from Glasgow, will march into this City, the first division on the 24th. and the remainder on the 25th Instant.

The conduct of the Military in Garrison in this City is indeed truly laudable and exemplary in the utmost degree. The good understanding which subsists between them and the citizens, is a striking proof of the salutary effects resulting from the peculiar care and attention of the officers, and the excellent discipline which is at present kept up and observed through the whole.

This morning a new-born female Infant was found buried in the King's Island.

Mr. Philip Roche, John, has opened the following Prices for real New Grains Butter, 60s. per Cwt. for first Quality } in full bound
