W. C. HARRISON, Esq; President.

††† Mr. DALY and Mr. HEAPHY, anxious to place the Theatres Royal of CORK and LIMERICK on the firmest basis, and to secure them a permanency of public favour, with all possible deference, beg leave to inform the Audience of those Cities, that they have entered into the following Agreement: As they understand it is a wish of several of the most respectable Citizens of Cork and Limerick, that Theatrical Entertainments should occasionally be performed sometimes as well during the Winter, as the Summer season, Mr. DALY has agreed to leave the Theatres of Cork and Limerick for the Winter Season, to the direction of Mr. HEAPHY, as often as a proper Company can be engaged for that purpose; and they have agreed to give them every exterior or internal repairs proper for the occasion, at a mutual and joint expence.
Mr. DALY begs leave, with the utmost respect, to assure the public, that he will exert every endeavour to engage such a Company for the Summer Season, as he possibly can find at liberty to enter into Engagements with him.
The capital Performers he has occasionally brought to Cork and Limerick, will, it is hoped, be some evidence of his wish to do every thing to give the Audience of those Cities all possible satisfaction.

Mr. DALY being obliged at last Summer (to his immediate disadvantage and very great loss) to give his time wholly in attending a circumstance of the greatest moment to the Theatres of Dublin, Cork, and Limerick, which matter is now happily brought to a conclusion; he flatters himself he will in future avail himself of the advantages of his situation, which will enable him to procure a succession of Theatrical Entertainments, deserving, it is hoped, of universal approbation and favour.
