

of approbation from all quarters showed how a full, respectable and intellectual auditory appreciated so able a summary of the history of Imperial Rome—that has played so conspicuous a part on the world's stage.

On Tuesday morning, in the Convent of Mercy, Ennis, Miss Mary Jane Kerin, in religion Sister Mary Xavier, with Miss Doyle, a lay Sister, received the white veil from the Rt. Rev. Dr. Vaughan, R.C. Bishop of Killaloe.

The Committee of the Gerald Griffin Library of the Young Men's Society thankfully acknowledge the following subscriptions:—James Duffy, Esq., 5*l.*; Mr. Sergeant O'Brien, M. P., 2*l.*; Major Gavin, 1*l.*; also the following annual subscriptions:—Very Rev. Dr. Downes, Edmund Beveridge, M. O'Brien, Dr. Bourke, Wm. Ryan, J. O'Gorman, T. M'Namara, 10*s* each.

George Hunt, Esq. H.M.S. Revenge, just returned from the Crimea, has arrived at his father's, in this city.

Captain Edmond Purcell, R.N. is promoted to Rear-Admiral, and Captain George Lloyd to Rear-Admiral on the retired list.

Lieut. J. Packwood, R.N. of the Cornwall, is dismissed that ship, by sentence of court-martial, for having refused to pay debts knowingly incurred.

Lieut. the Hon. H. A. Moreton, R.N. of the Cressy, 81, is dismissed the service, for intoxication, while officer of the night watch. Lieut. Smallpage, R.N. of the Bellisle, is dismissed the ship for absence without leave, and reduced to the bottom of his list.

Sir Wm. Burnett, Director General of the Navy medical department, has retired upon 1000*l.* a year pension.

Daniel Guerin, of Convent-st., a labouring man, died of hydrophobia this week from the bite of a rabid dog, at Christmas last. Dr. Gore and Dr. M'Mahon attended him during the paroxysms, which were frightful, but his case was incurable.

Thursday night last, a mare was cut and disfigured on the lands of Corbally, by some villains, who hacked and cut off all the hair from the feet and mane. The beast is the property of Mr. Jas. O'Brien, Lock-quay.

The late Sir Henry Bishop had £150 a year as Professor of Music, at Oxford University.

Valentine Vousden, whose death was reported this last month, is performing at Liverpool.

Thomas Bergin, a boy attending the National school at Shinrone, died on Tuesday, it is alleged from severe punishment there.

We publish this day gratis, a Supplement of six columns to the LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

We refer our readers to Mr. Hutchins, Surgeon Dentist's advertisement, he having reduced his fees, for the accommodation of the public.