

vacant, and also, the Chapel Royal. It has purposes retaining the late Dean of Derry the Deanery House, but we having enjoyed the dignities, no claim for compensation.

Pepper has been installed in the Cathedral Church

George's-in-the-East on a tragical nature, that no congregation had to be

Thomas Longley, Bishop of Ely, nominated to the Archbishopric by the death of the Most Reverend at Rochester in 1794. He has been collated to the Prebend of Emly. The Prebend of Emly has been vacant by the promotion in aid of building the Connell are now pursuing all desirous of aiding in participating in here such a number of

has been erected in the memory of the late Very Rev W.G.

in the Archdiocese of on Sunday week. gratefully acknowledge to D. Cregan 7l., being the Mel Benson's bequest—2l. establishment, Mount St. nothing for the poor school at Adare. Also 10s. Adare, for the orphan has left 200l. for the church of Wexford. of Petonwell, has been high and the chaplaincy vacant by the death of Gort.

has contributed 10l. per the schools of the Rev.

for the Pope has been in Tuam by Dr. M'Hale. Connell, the nephew son to the late John Jarney, is at present at Aux Carmes, on Order in Ireland.

Bishop of Newfoundland upon the Rev whom left Ireland for his studies there.

At Southampton, Henry Charles, son of Henry Hildyard, Esq, late of Rio de Janeiro, to Jane, daughter of the late Capt Robert Moresby, Indian Navy.

DEATHS.

On the 16th instant, at Albert-place, in the 19th year of his age, Thomas Browne, second son of the late Rev Thomas Browne Brady, Rector and Prebend of Tomgranie, county Clare.

In Clonmel, David Staig, Esq, formerly a partner in the banking firm of Sir James Anderson, Bart. and Co, Fermoy.

At Nelson-street, Tralee, Mr Alfred Henry Jones, surgeon Dentist.

On the 10th instant, P J Quinlivan, master of the National School, Ardagh, aged 27, much regretted by a numerous circle of friends.

At Tyreda, near Tulla, county Clare, Mr Peter Lynch, late Student of Maynooth College.

At Borrisokane, Honora, wife of Mr Matthew Clarke.

At Booterstown, co. Dublin, Hugh O'Callaghan, Esq, DL, In Cork, the Rev Thomas O'Brien, OSF.

At Raheen, county Cork, Mr Patrick Murray.

At George-street, Waterford, James Nolan, Esq.

Katherine, daughter of the late Maurice Jones, Esq, Harbour View, county Wexford.

At Wellington-quay, Wexford, Mr John Devereux.

At Woodmount, county Wicklow, Michael Hudson, Esq.

Wm Mossop, Esq, druggist, of North Earl-street, Dublin.

At Coleraine, Alexander Cuthbert, Esq, merchant.

At Kingstown, Miss Alicia Hussey, in her 74th year.

At Mountain View, Dalkey, Mrs Ellen Anne Greene.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, Mrs Anne Kelly, relict of Thomas Kelly, Esq, Castletown, Queen's County.

In Dublin, Julia, wife of Mr Michael Kelly, Clonlisk, King's County.

Ann, widow of John Law, Esq, Phoenix-park, Dublin.

At Portrush, Charlotte Mary, the infant daughter of Smith Bryan, Esq.

At Camolin, county Wexford, Maria, daughter of the Rev D Brownrigg.

At Talbot-street, Dublin, Francis M'Kenna, son of William A M'Kenna, solicitor.

On his return voyage to the western coast of Africa, Vere Webb, son of Mr John M'Nally, of Old Mountpleasant, Dublin, solicitor.

At Newry, Mr Wm Irvine.

At Charlemont-mall, Dublin, Miss Mary Barry.

At Rathgar, Miss Charlotte Bagnall.

Mr William Ormsby Gore, M.P. for the northern division of Shropshire.

Suddenly, at his residence near Clapham-common, Sir Chas. Barry, the eminent architect.

At Old Burlington-street, London, Lieut-Colonel Herbert Blount, late of the 68th Light Infantry.

At Harlow, Essex, the Rev Thomas Finch, minister of the Dissenting congregation in that place.

The Chevalier Thomas Corner Stone, Attache to the Portuguese Embassy in London.

At Bayswater, Wm O Byers, Esq, of the War-office.

At Barrackpore, India, Arthur Henry Carter, Esq, Lieut 74th Bengal Native Infantry.

In Camp, at Saugor, Brevet Major Kinkead, of her Majesty's Madras Artillery.

At Gondah, Oude, Frederick Gowland Horn, Esq, Lieutenant 20th Regiment.

At Secorie, near Nagpore, Captain Colin Charles Robertson, 11th Bengal Native Infantry.

At Ryde, Isle of Wight, Selwyn Valentine Page, Lieutenant 2d Battalion 12th Regiment.

At Kamptee, Captain Carlton Thomas Collingwood, Madras Artillery.

The Rev Colin Campbell, son of the late Lieut-General Colin Campbell, Lieut-Governor of Gibraltar.

At Port Royal, Jamaica, Charlotte Bivia, daughter of the late Captain Chandler, 17th Lancers.

At Kamptee, Captain Roger D Dansey, 3d Madras European Regiment.

At Walmer, Elizabeth Honora, widow of Vice-Admiral Sir Richard Lee, KCB.

At Brighton, Ann, widow of Lieut P S Manico, RN.

At Notting-hill, London, Paul Harris Nicholas, Esq, on Reserved Half Pay Royal Marines, one of the few remaining survivors of those who served in the Belleisle at Trafalgar.

THE inter these B. 6 A.M. to 1/2 p. For further

May 9

THE Sub Corn

Limerick,

Limer

THE Gas

pared Tons of Coal 750 tons at

September or before the Tenders

MONDAY, Water-Gate

15th May

Be

THE Co

Constructing D

according to the City Su

from 10 un Tenders of the Cou

The Corp of the Tenc

May 16

THAT Day

tion on the to exist,

allowed to for the Tr

Proprietor to remain

The Pe parties off

Town E

May 16