

several traders who inst street obstrucrges, the persons so d costs.
st Thomas O'Dons dismissed after a celebrated yesterday at ery and Depot Bat-

Military grounds,
bled in review order senior officer: in the ave. The paucity of interesting, and the line facing the em-
eft by half batteries MacDougal, the field
e joie by the infantry ound. Having given ms, and three hearty tillery and infantry
ed past Colonel Rowith a steadiness which and discipline. The
and of Major Younge, ound mounted upon mour to her gracious-med joyous peals, and ed their gayest flags s office that several magistrates, were rey grounds, a course similar occasion in

's Battery of Royal for the Carragh, on ery will succeed Capt.

promotion, has taken olwich.
second battalion 24th lkeale,) received this ald M'Kay, 1 51 S.L., ll; prosperous voyage;
land."

the Royal Artillery in attempt at self destrucke, on Thursday, by le of laudanum. Dr.
n, and having used the
atives for several hours,
ally saved.

tion 20th regiment, has or General of India as lic Works Department,

n the 47th Regiment,
rates at Cork for trial,
th a silver watch value,
The prisoner said that ul out of a man's body

n Regiment, stationed the euphonious one of window of Mr. Samuel
-street, and attempted ich were inside exposed
a very bad character,
he suffered three months
every day in imprisonmitted for trial. The establishment and pro-

General to the Forces in India.
At Sierra Leone, Henry Francis Lake, Esq; Captain 1st West India Regt, to Frances Matilda, daughter of the late John H Burke, Esq, Trinidad.

DEATHS.

On Monday last, in Dublin, at an advanced age, sincerely and deservedly regretted by her family and friends, Helen, relict of the late R Scully, Esq, of Richmond-place, in this city.
On the 16th instant, at his residence, Ballsbridge House, co. Cork, Robert Wren, Esq, deeply and deservedly regretted.
In Kilkee, Margaret, daughter of Frederick Carey, Esq, RN.
At Rathfriland county Cork, Fanny, daughter of the late David Halahan, Esq
At Ranelagh, Dublin, Mrs Charlotte Frances Peppard, relict
of Standish O'Grady, Esq, formerly of the Six Clerks' Office, Dublin.
At Eaton-place, London, the Hon Augustus Barrington, son of George, fifth Viscount Barrington.
Margaret, relict of Major Humphreys, 8th Veteran Bat
At Abbeyville, county Tipperary, Mary, relict of Colonel Campbell, of Blackhall, Kincardineshire.
At Hillsborough, Ion Robert Simpson Unthank, son of Ion Studdart, Esq, Sub-Inspector of Constabulary.
Maria, relict of Edward Mills M'Donogh, of Elmpark House, county Roscommon, Esq.
At Killyleagh, Maria, relict of Captain Wm Howe, Adjutant of the Royal North Down Militia.
At Mough House, county Leitrim, Capt James Lawder, 28th
Madras Native Infantry.
In Bandon, Margaret Fearn, wife of William Fearn, formerly Corporal of the 35th Regiment, and afterward Sergeant-Major of the Reading Constabulary.
At Calcutta, George Alexander, son of the late George T Bell Booth, Esq, of Drumcarbin, county Cavan.
In Dublin, Michael Joseph Regan, Esq, of Galway.
At Great Charles-street, Dublin, Henry Cashel, Esq.
At Wynnefield-place, Rathmines, Bessie, wife of James A Pope, Esq.
At Comber, county Down, the Rev James Olliffe, Wesleyan minister.
At Ballymoney, North of Ireland, Robert, son of the Rev W
J Stavely, DD.
At Upper Kevin-street, Dublin, Mary, wife of Mr Francis Dowling.
At Leeson-street, Dublin, Frances, widow of the late Thomas Vickers, Esq, barrister-at-law.
At Stephen's-green, Dublin, John Robert Hodson, Esq.
At Roundtown, near Dublin, Mary Catherine, wife of Mr Michael Henry Gill.
At Aberdeen, Jane Easton, relict of John Young, Esq, late of Drogheda.
At the Convent of Mercy in Ballina, Sister Mary Paul Joseph Brennan, daughter of Mr John Brennan, merchant, Sligo.
Charles Henry, son of the late John R Fitzsimons, Esq, of Galway.
At Madeira, Sir Francis Hopkins, Bart, of Rochford, county Westmeath.
At Philadelphia, James D Campbell, Esq, son of James Campbell, Esq, late of Moville, county Donegal.
At Warrenpoint, county Down, Alexander M'Combe, Esq.
At Grace-street, Belfast, Rose Ann, wife of Mr J Evans.
At Omagh, Mrs Moss, relict of the late Hugh Moss, Esq.
At Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Mr Thomas Hughes, late proprietor of the Oxmantown Foundry.
In Wexford, Mrs Elizabeth Warren, relict of Captain John Warren, of the merchant service.
At Corduff, county Leitrim, Mary, relict of M Lyons, Esq.
At Tullybrick, county Cavan, Mrs Ellen Smith, mother of the Rev Thomas Smith, CC.
In Liverpool, Harriet P, daughter of the late William Irvine Robinson, Esq, of Belfast.
At Hastings, William Edmund Curtis, Esq, late of the 1st Royal Dragoons, son of Sir W Curtis, Bart
In London, Angelica Helen, daughter of the Honourable Sir Thomas Joshua Platt.
In Belgium, George Stainforth, Esq, late of Hutton, Yorkshire, and formerly of the 23rd Fusiliers, with which regiment
he served at Waterloo.
At Regent's-park, London, Lieut-Colonel S R Bagshawe, late of the Bengal Army.
At Chelsea, Edward T Hudson, Esq, formerly of the 23d
Royal Welsh Fusiliers
At Deyrah Dhoon, East Indies, Colonel John Angelo, late of the Bengal 3d Light Cavalry.
At Wanston Cottage, Hants, Thomas Tatlock, Esq, one of the few surviving Peninsular officers.
In Russia, Lucy, Baroness de Chandoir, daughter of the late Sir Alexander Crichton.
At Marlborough College, Edward Lawford Brown, Esq, Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, Assistant Master of the above College.
At Travers' Naval College, Windsor, Lieut Oke, RN.
At Norwood, Ross, Edwyna, wife of Lieut-Colonel Powell, MP, of Nanteos, Cardiganshire.
At Dacca, Bengal, Lieut Reginald Travers, Kamroop Regt, son of the late Benjamin Travers, Esq, of Grosvenor-square, London.

HAMS, BACON, &c., on the usual terms.
Mr. Boyd having had for some years, practiperience of the business, now purposes to gi-branch his personal attention.
We continue, as usual, to purchase and keep for export and otherwise, and shall be glad to take consignments to our MELBOURNE, SYDNEY CAPETOWN correspondents.
May 19, 1860.

Salesman Wanted.

AN Experienced SHAWL and FANCY D HAND. Apply to
W. TODD and CO.
7, 8, 9, William-St
May 19, 1860.

COOK.

WANTED, in the Country, a steady actison as Cook; she should thoroughly stand her Business, and her character should be investigation. She must be a Protestant.
Apply at the LIMEBICK CHRONICLE Office
Testimonials addressed to A. B.
May 16

AS BUTLER, OR GENERAL INSIDE
VANT, with a small family, an expeman, can drive horse and car in the countquired; understands lamps, plate, and furnitrustworthy, which his character will prove;
sober and well conducted; is a Protestant;
incumbrance, and can be heard of for a week previously engaged, by applying to B.O., 55, T street, Limerick. Wages not his object but place.

This Day is Published, 8vo., Cloth, price
HISTORICAL MEMOIR OF THE O'BE
With Notes. Appendix, and a Gene-
Table of their several Branches. Compiled f
Irish Annalists. By JOHN O'DONOGHUE, Barrister-at-Law.
Dublin: HODGINS, SMITH & Co., 104, Gra
Booksellers to the University.
May 19

NEW GARDEN, FLOWER, & AGRICUL
SEEDS, &c.

Alexander Campbell & S

CHURCHILL NURSERIES, GLASNEVIN,
And Seed Warehouse, 7, Eden Quay. Du
MOST respectfully beg to call the attentio Public to their very select, fine, and fr of the above Seeds, which in point of quality excelled in any part of Europe. In Farm S offer, with confidence, their superior stock of Swede and other Turnips; imported Italian, F
Cow, and other Grasses; Clovers, Parsnips Cabbage, Rape, &c.. all of which are warrant entire satisfaction. For Garden and Flower S stock contains the most approved varieties as duced, all of which (they are proud to say) utmost satisfaction during the past trying season which they had not a single complaint of fault also beg to draw the attention of parties Conservatories and Greenhouses, to their collection of Pelargoniums, and other Greenhou Dahalias, and every description of Bedding Pl of which they possess an immense stock. C may be had on application, and in order disappointment early orders are most re-solicited.