

Conway, for receiving
-the first to be impris-
s; Michael Guinane,
a week and fined 20s.

reward for discovery
se of John Connor at robbed him of money

of this County, has,
force, under warrant he cabins and other s of Rathkeale, and e encroachment upon as private property.

of eight or ten persons ker, a respectable far-fellows broke in three the bed-rooms fortu-coat, which hung on a slept, was perforated ench, two men of the arged with the murder

in this County, have an, was murdered at during a conflict beys and Poleens.

e pursuing their violent shamefully disfigured ck-street, in that City.

ts."

ay, the Keeper in an itor, who had struck rmer through the body
ort time after.

Police of Ballymakey, e of Charles Piper, of ng the inmates, and appeared to be a stranger, houses on the Galway

; She stated that she
of a child, but admit-g a new born child was eaten off, it is supposed be the mother, has not

n Wednesday, Michael
, was sentenced to pay months, for having in ks, and two new stocks

leap races, Ennis, was who left the following essy, (favorite against u, Mr. Keane's Jolly,
ansergh's Bidy Mac,
ly, the winner, is sire
a very promising steeple way has incurred a liampliance with some of Laws.

Tuesday, May 5—Fitznd others—cause was order obtained by the ated as Medical Officer Dispensary, which was

n Dublin 6th June :—
et, London, and South
ickey, late of William-Carrickfergus 1st June, vision dealer and comm Navigation Company to 1000 of £100 each.

atre for five nights.

At Tottenham, the Rev. F. M. MacCarthy, vicar of St. John's, Bridport, to Frances, daughter of W. Robinson, Esq. LL.D. of Tottenham.

DEATHS.

In Sackville-street, Dublin, Charles Benson, Esq. Barrackmaster of the Royal Barracks, Dublin. A few weeks have only elapsed since this gentleman's appointment, and his family have now to deplore the loss of the best of husband and father, the service a most efficient officer, and society a polished gentleman.

In Dawson-street, Dublin, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with that cheerfulness and pious resignation which might have been expected from her writings and her character, Mrs. Hemans.

At his residence, Merrion-square, Dublin, John Lloyd, Esq. K.C. and Commissioner of the Insolvent Court.

On Monday morning at her lodgings in William-street, after a painful illness, which she bore with pious fortitude, Christina, wife of John Cleary, Esq. of Mitchelstown, in this county. The death of this Lady has plunged a respectable circle of relatives and friends into the deepest anguish. Her remains were interred this day in the family vault at Tullabracca.

In Cornwallis-street, after a very short illness, Eliza, widow of the late Mr. Edward Fennessy, of Patrick-street, in this city.

At Lock-quay, Mr. Michael Callanan, late of Patrick-street.

At Castletown, Berehaven, Jeremiah O'Sullivan, Esq. of Patrick's-hill, Cork.

Harriet, daughter of Herbert Gillman, Esq. of Montenotte, Cork.

In Tipperary, Mary Anne, wife of Mr. William Byrom, late of this city.

Friday, at Thomond-Gate, deeply regretted by her family and friends, Mrs. Halpin, relict of the late Mr. Wm. Halpin, clothier and blanket manufacturer.

In Patrick street, Mrs. Wilkinson, wife of Mr. Samuel Wilkinson umbrella-manufacturer.

In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Theophilus Thos. Underwood, Esq. At his house in Dublin, Samuel Gatchell, Esq. a member of the Society of Friends.

At her house in Dawson-street, Dublin, Mary, relict of the Rev. Dr. St. George, of Kirlush House, county Kilkenny, aged 86.

In Dublin, Mr. George Ivie, formerly of Waterford.

In Capel-street, Dublin, Mr. James Burnside.

Samuel Mason, Cobsey Lodge, Roundtown, Esq. aged 78 years.

Aged 12 years, Rebecca, daughter of John Wilson, Laurel Lodge, Roundtown, Esq.

At Sidmouth, aged 75, Sophia, relict of the late William Pollard, of Castlepollard, county Westmeath, Esq.

At Burnside Cottage, near Portstewart, in the 84th year of her age, Elizabeth, relict of Robert Galt, Esq. J.P. Edendarve, co. Londonderry.

At Ranelagh, of apoplexy, James M'Donogh, Esq. many years Assistant-Surgeon to the King's County Militia.

At Mount Murray, Alexander, eldest son of Alexander Murray, Esq. of Mount Murray, county Westmeath.

At Park-house, Wexford, the Lady of Captain James Harvey.

At Rahan, of fever, aged 24 years, Hamilton, eldest son of the Rev. Charles Palmer.

At Crumlin, county Antrim, Thomas M'Donald, Esq. M.D.

Anne, eldest daughter of Robert Montgomery, Esq. of Sandymount, near Belfast.

At Scribblestown, Frances Laura, daughter of William W. Fitzwilliam Hume, of Hume Wood, county Wicklow, Esq.

Miss Kelly, Custom-house, London.

In Munster-street, Regent's Park, Major Phineas M'Pherson, half-pay unattached, aged 53.

In London, Lieut. Wm. Oglander, Scots Fusileer Guards.

In Bryanston street, Lieut. Colonel John Bell, formerly of the Madras Artillery, aged 76th.

At Clapham, in her 94th year, Mrs. Elizabeth Ceok, widow of the celebrated circumnavigator, Captain James Cook.

At Woolwich, in the 98th year of her age, Mrs. Bradbridge, relict of Thomas Bradbridge, Esq. of the Royal Ordnance.

At Plymouth, Matilda Ann, youngest daughter of Captain J. W. Amos, late of the 35th Regiment.

On board the ship Hero, of Malown, on his passage home from Bombay, Major Hunt, 2d Foot.

At Boyce Court, near Ledbury, John Drummond, Esq. aged 81.

At Brighton, Mrs. Elizabeth Bruce Warren, the widow of the late Henry Warren, Esq. of Beckenham, Kent.

At East Cowes Castle, John Nash, Esq. in his 83d year.

At Philadelphia, aged 66, Mr. Alfree Clare, formerly Principal of the Will-office in the Bank of England.

The Right Hon. Selkirk, 14th Lord Semphill. The title devolves on his eldest sister, Maria Janet, now Baroness Semphill.

At Blackheath, the Hon. Sir Arthur Kaye Legge, K.C.B. Admiral of the Blue, in his 69th year.

In Paris, Major-General Sir James Campbell, K.C.B. and K.C.H. Colonel of the 74th Regiment.

At Quebec, Josephine, daughter of George Adams, Esq. Deputy-Assistant-Commissary-General.

At St. Paul's, Yarmark Mountain, Canada, Margaret Franklin, a native of Tipperary (Ireland), widow of the late Michael Dwyer, of Quebec, and mother of Lieut.-Colonel Dwyer.

At Patna, Bengal, in his 47th year, Sir James Harington, Bart.

At Madeira, Henry Edward Hoare, Esq. late Captain in the 66th Regiment, and second son of Peter Richard Hoare, of Southfield, Somersetsire, Esq.

In December last, of the cholera, M. W. B. Parry, on board the Curacca, Calcutta.

At Calcutta, Colonel J. Robertson, of the 46th Regiment, N.I. and Captain Cathcart, Junior Asistant to the Governor's Agent at Assam.

At Calcutta, aged 63, Frances, wife of Colonel Sir Joseph O'Halloran, C.B. Bengal Army.

On his passage from Van Dieman's Land to Sydney, Michael Redmond, late of Wexford, Esq.

At Paraiba, South America, Charles Le Marchant, eldest son of Captain S. H. Lawrence, Belmontt-cottage, Cork.

any climate. It is peculiarly worthy the attention of the military and mercantile services on shore and at sea.

Sold wholesale only by the Manufacturers, Messrs. M. and NICOLAS, No. 55, Millbank-street, London; and Limerick by W. BENNIS, William-street; M. George's-street; Mr. TRACEY, Bootmaker, P. and the principal Shopkeepers. Agent in Dublin, WESTON, No. 3, Anglesea-street.

22 Culm, Iron, and Coal
&c. &c. &c.

NOW discharging at O'Neill's and Harvey's, the Bridge Dock, Three Cargoes of BEST CULM, engaged as good quality as can be imported from Wales, more than one half large, will be sold as follows: 180 Tons, per Sarah Ann; 119 ditto, per Felicity, per William. Also, 120 ditto per Brilliant, delivered from Neath. As the season is now commencing, Lime, this Culm is well worth the attention of those chasing the article, and will be warranted to be 10 Barrells of Lime each Ton.

Now shipped, and expected to arrive in a few days, Leda, from Liverpool, a cargo of best ORRIS, large and round; also, per Amity, from Newport, 14 Tons Bar Iron; and per Perseus, from Liverpool, 5 Tons Horse Nail Rods, 3 Tons 24 Bundles single and treble Sheet Iron, 60 5.16, and 3-8 round each, 24 Bundles Spring Steel, 13 Bundles C. C. N. D. Steel.

The Subscriber has lately imported per Idea, 197 Tons Coal, 77 Tons Iron; per Gratitude, from Glasgow, 140 Tons Eightonmoor Coal; per Robert, from Glasgow, 160 Tons round Scotch; per Majestic, and Margaret Scott, from Newport, 32 Tons Coal, and 33 Tons Hoops, 40 Tons E. V. Spade Iron; per Hope, from Neath, 180 Tons Malt Coal; per Belick Castle, from Liverpool, 64 Tons Coal.

ALSO IN STORE AND YARD,

- 200 Tons English Bar Iron, well assorted
- 20 Do. E. V. Spade and Channel Iron.
- 50 Do. Nail Rods in 30lb and 60lb bundles
- 10 Do. Swedish and Scotch Iron.
- 5 Do. Low Moor Bars.
- 7 Do. Hammered ditto.
- 2 Do. Horse Nail Rods, Bradley's make
- 8 Do. Blister Steel, 2 Tons Spring ditto
- 3 Do. Chains and Back-bands.
- 25 Do. Hoops, from 1 inch to 6 inches.
- 3 Do. Dublin and Cork Shovels.
- 8 Pair Smiths' Bellows, from 27 to 30 inches
- 33 Warranted Anvils, from 3 qrs. to 2 tons
- 4 Iron Ploughs.
- 3 Tons Irish and Scotch Sheer Moulds
- 20 Do. No. 1 Calder
- 5 Do. Gartsherry } Pig Iron
- 5 Do. Monkland }

All of which he offers on the most liberal terms.

JOSEPH P. NEAVE

William-street and corner DUBLIN

5th Month 20th, 1833.

23 TO BE LET,

On a Lease of Lives renewable for ever, A LOT of Ground in Upper Roche's-street, in front fifty feet, with right of vaulting, hundred and eighty in depth, exclusive of the twenty feet wide. The above-mentioned lot is the Stores of the Messrs. Myles, and is at present occupied by Mr. Matterson as tenant at will.

Proposals to be received by GEO. C. ROSETTA, Cork: or by THOS. G. COPPING, George's-street.

24 JOHN GOSNELL & CO.
LATE PRICE AND GOSNELL