nt and Members of the Corporation of mber of Commerce, Limerick.

I have had the honour to receive the address adopted at a general meeting ation on the occasion of my promotion Collector of Customs at Plymouth, departure from Limerick.

atisfying to me to learn that my anxious ine a zealous discharge of my duty as s Port, with a proper regard to your accommodation, has not been unsuc-is only right for me to say that this is attributed to the ready co-operation of h whom I have had the good fortune to and to the intelligence of the Merchants which has enabled them so clearly to r a compliance with their wishes might with the regulations of this department service, that I have seldom felt myself holding any accommodation for which
