

At the British Embassy, Frankfort-on-the-Maine, Captain G. Walter Story, to Margaret, daughter of the late John Anderson, Esq.
At Calcutta, Captain Henry Coningham, 4th Madras Cavalry, to Anna Maria, eldest daughter of Brigadier Bowen, Colonel Commanding the Eastern Frontier Bengal Army.

DEATHS.

At Stoneville, in this County, on Tuesday last, Hugh Massy, Esq. sincerely and deservedly regretted by his many respectable relatives and friends.

Eleanor, widow of the late John Ievers, of Six-mile-bridge, county Clare, Esq.

At Rathkeal, in the 85th year of his age, Paris Anderson, Esq. formerly Supervisor of Excise in Kerry, and late Permit officer in this City.

At Clifton, on the 18th instant, in her 23d year, after a severe and protracted illness, borne with the utmost Christian resignation and fortitude, Barbara Theresa, wife of Michael John Staunton, Esq. and the truly interesting and highly accomplished daughter of William Fitzgerald, Esq. of Geraldine, near this City. This amiable young person, elegant and unaffected in her manners, engaged the affection of all who were acquainted with her. Her virtues and acquirements will not easily be forgotten, as they live entombed in the recollection of her inconsolable family. Society at large must regret the premature demise of one so eminently gifted. Had a life more lengthened been her lot, society could not hesitate to include her amongst her proudest ornaments. Her remains were interred yesterday in the family vault Kilquane.

At Mountpleasant, Dublin, aged 18 years, Elizabeth Trayer, eldest daughter of Counsellor Abbott Trayer, of Clonmel.

At Newbridge, the residence of his grandfather, in the 23d year of his age, William Joyce, jun. youngest son of William Joyce, Esq. of Athlone.

In Nassau-street, Dublin, Mr. William M'Cleary, in his 82d year,— he was a Captain in the Dublin Independent Volunteers.

Aged 9 years, Teresa, youngest daughter of James Creagh, Esq. of Ballygriffin, county Cork.

At Rathmines, H. Everard, Esq. of Great Brunswick-street. Of consumption, Mr. William Hearne, of Fleet-street, Dublin.

In Caherciyeen, Mr. John Huggard, late of Killarney, grocer.

In Tuam, Mrs. Kirwan, wife of John Kirwan, Esq.

At Athenry, Mrs. Burke, wife of James Burke, Esq.

At Droumhoumper Castle, near Killarney, at the age of 87 years, John Coltsman, sen. Esq.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, Isaac Varian, Esq.

At Waringfield, Hester, daughter of the late Rev. Lucas Waring, Rector of Kilkeel, county Down.

In Dundalk, Joseph Purcell, Esq.

In London, Captain Richard Hall, late of Monaghan, aged 77 years.

In Randolph-street, Camden New Town, Mary, widow of the late William Kinnard, Esq. and one of the Magistrates of the Thames Police.

At Kensington, Mr. Richard Harris, for years publisher of the London Gazette, aged 72.

At Holm Hill, Carlisle, Joseph Salkeld, Esq. late of Cork.

At Welham, near Malton, in his 68th year, Robert Bower, Esq. late Major of the East Riding Militia.

At Balham, Richardson Borradaile, Esq. in the 73d year of his age.

At the Rock Point House, Cheshire, Margaret, youngest daughter of the late William Molyneux, Esq. of Liverpool.

At Newport, Isle of Wight, Captain J. Blomer, 31st Regiment.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, Jane, youngest daughter of Colonel Gustavus Rochfort.

At East Cowes Castle, Mr. Nash, the celebrated architect.

At Dieppe, Charles Cumberland, Esq. aged 71.

At Antigua, the Hon. John Duncombe Taylor, Chief Baron of the Exchequer, and late Speaker of the House of Assembly there.

Captain Richard Newton, of the 4th Bengal Native Infantry.

At Gowahutti, Bengal, Captain H. J. G. B. Cathcart.

At Futtehguhr, Bengal, James Fisher, Esq. Lieutenant and Interpreter of the 1st Native Infantry.

19 IMPOR

UNDER the Patronage of General SIR J. G. ROBERT JAMES, of Inspecting General of
of the London Veterinary

HO

Immediately after turned to grass or into restraint, as no horse
gnaw it, although fire
the human hand. It applied, the Horse man
hair returns in ten da
young.

Extract from the Report to the Adjutant General

“ HAVING seen it
heard it well spoken to think favorably of nor should I hesitate to recommend its use
another ; but to offer
medicine for adoption might possibly be congative of the principal Professor Coleman, to then directed by the efficacy. The following Royal

“ I have the honor
in various public papers Blister Ointment with Charles Dalbiac, I find
James's Blister Ointment
Veterinary College; Ointment has considerable than the blister ointment
gists to grooms and owners irritation and inflammation chief.

Upon these Reports
the Commander-in-Chief be used in the Cavalry

THE OINTMENT

Sold in one-ounce
2s. 9d. ; and four-
Grafton-street, Dublin Medicine Venders in N.B.—Country
satisfactory reference