Major George Nugent, 7th Dragoons, re-assembled at the New Barracks, Lisburn. Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, who arrived fully equipped, had a review of his regiment on Thursday, before Major-General Monson, Lieutenant-Colonel Monument's senior, who reviewed the regiment, under Major-General Monument, under orders from the Secretary of State, and is attached to the garrison at Lisburn.

The 27th Regiment, which was reported as being in a state of insubordination, is now well-disciplined and is attached to the garrison.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.

The 35th Light Dragoons, under Lieutenant-Colonel Monument, are expected to be in Dublin on Wednesday for the King's visit.