DEATHS.

At Howth Castle, America Isabella Maria, fourth daughter of the Right Hon. Earl and Countess of Howth.

In Cork, Anne, wife of Captain Cotter, Waterloo steamer.

On Merchant's Quay, of typhus fever, in the prime of life, Miss Catherine Walsh, daughter of the late Mr. Reddy Walsh, architect.

In Eccles-street, Dublin, aged 21 years, Joseph, youngest son of the late Colonel Donaldson.

At Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, Robert Hebben, A.M., after a painful and protracted illness.

In Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, the relict of the Rev. W. Whiteside.

At the Surgeon-General's in Dublin, the infant son of the Rev. J. Crampton, Jun.

At Clontarf, in the 53rd year of his age, Hugh Wallace Watson, formerly of Portaferry, county Down, Esq.

At Maryborough, where she had been for a few days, Frances, the beloved wife of the Rev. George Borrows, Wesleyan Missionary at Tarbert.

In Wexford, Mrs. Mary Mulligan, aged 89 years.

At Roscrea, Mr. Isaac Pawlett, merchant, aged 64 years.

At Younghal, William Morgan, Esq.

In Clonmel, at an advanced age, the Rev. A. Guilfoyle, O.S.F., formerly of this City. His remains were interred in the Franciscan Convent, Clonmel.

In Clonmel, William Chaytor, Esq., formerly Mayor of that town.

John, eldest son of Mr. James Daly, printer, of Dublin.

At Mountjoy-place, Dublin, Maria, wife of Rowley Heyland, Esq.

At Rathmines, aged 13 years, Nicholas Murray, second son of Mr. Nicholas Murray Mansfield, of Stephen's Green.

Rather suddenly, at his house on the Mall, Waterford, Mr. William Clarke, for many years Assay Master of that city.

At Lymington, in his 65th year, James Brown, Esq., Collector of Customs at that place.

At Mary Ann, wife of the Rev. W. Bacon, superintendent Preacher of the Wesleyans in Nottingham.

At Buckingham, in his 35th year, Edward Bartlett, Esq. banker.

At Hereford, lady of Felix Calvert Ladbroke, Esq.

At Clare Hall, Herts, in his 77th year, the Rev. Andrew Sharp, 43 years the incumbent of Rambourgh, Northumberland.

At Clapham, Mr. William Franks, aged 65.

Suddenly, at Cheltenham, Miss Sarah Jackson, daughter of the late Colonel Jackson, of Enniskeen, county Mayo.

At Glasgow, Margaret, only daughter of the late Colonel MacDougall, of Polkshair.

In Edinburgh, in the 71st year, Hannah, mother of Sir Joshua Rawe, Chief Justice of Jamaica.

At Bussora, Captain O. A. Woodhouse, 3d Light Cavalry, Bombay.

To be Sold cheap.

A GOOD SECOND-HAND GIG.

Has not run more than eighty miles since built.

To be seen at Mr. RYAN'S Coach Factory, Bedford Row.

Limerick, May 9.

OFFICERS can be supplied with all the necessary accoutrements for the campaign. It will be found a great convenience to all officers, to erect their camp equipage, under the direction of Mr. DELAHAYE, Army Road Stores, Limerick.