DEATHS.

At Kilrush, on Monday, after a painful and protracted illness, which he bore with pious resignation and Christian fortitude, Arthur Brew, Esq. aged 28, eldest son of the late Geo. Brew, of Dunmore, Esq.

At Graigue, near Adare, aged 75 years, Mr. Philip Sparerling. He was upwards of 60 years a very faithful member of the Methodist Society. His walk through life was uniform and consistent with the Christian character, and his death was eminently marked with Divine peace and support, and the joyful anticipation of eternal life.

At Streamstown, on Thursday last, Mrs. Ievens, widow of the late John Ievens, Esq. of Mount Prospect, county Clare. Of scarletina, in Cork, William Waggett Webb, third son of the Rev. Dr. Webb.

At Ballyellis, county Wexford, the residence of his father, Richard Benjamin Dowse, late of Dublin, solicitor.

At Fermoy, aged 80, Mrs. Ellen Denney, in Castlebar, Mr. Thomas Martin, goldsmith and jeweller. Aged 84, James Brett, Esq. of Ballinakillin, county Wexford, the eldest Officer in the Revenue, and for thirty years commanding the Enniscorthy Yeomanry.

On Friday, aged 20 years, at the house of her father, Richard O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of Friars, county, Cahir, the esteemed wife of Thomas Ryan, Esq. of Baggot-street, Dublin. This event has awakened in all within the circle of her acquaintance a feeling of the most painful regret for the loss of one so truly estimable.

At her brother-in-law, B. B. Hill, Esq. Armagh, after a few days' illness, Mary, sister of Richard Parsons, Esq. Cragbeg, co. Limerick. At Banagher, Esq. of Clonmel, county Fermanagh, second son of the late William Back, Esq. of Grove, county Tipperary, father to the late High Sheriff, W. F. Barton, Esq.

At Haslar Hospital, aged 45, Captain G. Strangways, R.N. On the Continent, Mr. Samuel Watkin, formerly High Sheriff of Gloucestershire, in his 37th year.

At Bath, aged 28, Theresa Eliza, only daughter of the Rev. Henry Breerton.

In his 89th year, Mr. William Savory, the oldest member of the Corporation of Calne.

At Challock, near Stranraer, Mr. David Ritchie, sen. aged 85. In Edinburgh, John Heggie, Esq. Secretary to the Caledonian Insurance Company.

At Greenock, Mr. Thomas John Lynch, many years an actor of celebrity in the Theatres Royal, Dublin, Edinburgh, and Glasgow.

In Jamaica, in the prime of life, Alexander Francis Tanachie Tulloch, Esq. son of Francis Tulloch, late Major of the 10th or Inverness Militia. He was burned to death in a still-house.

At the Hotel De Princess, Rue Richelieu, Paris, the son of Colonel Sir Archibald Macleane.

At Paris, Charles Brackers De Hugo, Captain Commandant of the 4th Regiment of (French) Hussars.

The lowest Castor, article.

The Naval

I should not have to speak of the surpassing natural beauty and military advantage of this land, which can only be described as being in the true military and mercantile tradition of the name of 'Well and Prosperous'.

Sold wholesale and retail by Mr. STUART, and NICOLAS, Dublin, and Mr. Limerick by W. H. ROSE, in George's-street; and Mr. J. W. WRIGHT, in the principal street of Weston, No. 3.

Rose, a.

Galway, and others.

One o'clock in the morning, at the Quay, Dublin, some boats, and a ship, were engaged premises in April, 1835.

The above Signature, and the date, is the 4th day of June 1831.

Dated this 19th day of June 1835.

For particular notice, in the case of JAS. ROSE, Esq. and Mr. W. R. and Meekinburke, and Worrall, D. L. C.

Creed, P. C.

a.

Creed. bearing on the hour of One o'clock on the hour of One o'clock, it is charged to the Chambers on the hour of One o'clock, it is charged to the Chambers on the hour of One o'clock, it is charged to the Chambers on the hour of One o'clock.