

DEATHS.

At Adare, on the 28th inst. of hooping cough, Elizabeth Sarah, the infant daughter of Dr. Worrall.

At Lamlara, county Cork, at an advanced age, Margaret, relict of the late Standish Barry, Esq.

In Black-street, on the 23rd, Lucy, daughter of the late John O'Grady, Esq. of Castlefarm, in this county.

Saturday last, at the Causeway, Ennis, James G'Gorman, Esq. commonly called the "O'Gorman." He was brother of Nicholas Purcell O'Gorman, Esq. QC, and uncle of O'Gorman Mahon, late M.P. for Ennis. His funeral was attended by all the members of Masonic Lodge 60, Ennis, of which he had been several years Master. The deceased gentleman was reputed the most expert angler in Clare, and a devoted admirer of the gentle Isaac Walton.

At Stradbroke, Blackrock, Jane, relict of the late George M. J. Drought, Esq. of Glencarrig, county Wicklow, and formerly Police magistrate in Limerick.

At Garryowen, Mr. John Fitzgibbon.

At Kinsale, aged 82, Mrs. Catherine Bishopp, widow of the late Edward Bishopp, Esq. M.D.

Anna Matilda, eldest daughter of John Furlong, Esq. Richmond, Fermoy.

At Emlaroy, Jane Mary, wife of Oliver Armstrong, Esq.

At Bansha, Tipperary, aged 94, Mr. Darby Ryan, author of the popular ballad "The Peelers and the Goat."

At Mountrath, Charles L. Sandes, Esq.

At Leixlip, Dublin, William Fergusson, Esq. M.D. in the 70th year of his age.

At Ballymoney, the Rev. John Boyd, Minister of the Presbyterian church, Moyvore, Westmeath.

At Leinster-square, Rathmines, Susan, wife of Richard H. Courtenay, M.B.

At Aglish house, James, eldest son of James Hingston, Esq. George Valentine, son of Richard Cashell, Esq. Dublin.

At Levitstown, county Kildare, Wm. B. Caulfield, Esq. JP.

At Rathdrum, of scariatina, Elizabeth Sibyl, only daughter of Edward C. Clarke, Esq.

At Stillorgan, suddenly, Mr. Alexander MacLagan.

In Jervis-street, James Vaughan, Esq. solicitor.

At Beresford-place, aged 73, Monica O'Connor, sister of the late Hugh O'Connor, Esq. of Mountjop-square.

At Blackhall-street, James Leishman, Esq.

Mr. Mathew M'Cleary, of Lower Pembroke-street.

The Rev. James Ennis, R.C. curate of Meath-street.

Suddenly, Patrick Kelly, Esq. Proprietor of the Drogheda Argus newspaper.

At Kirkcubbin, Mr. James Filson, assistant surveyor, co. Down.

At Lisburn, Mary, widow of Joseph Richardson, and daughter of the late Joseph Strangman, of Waterford.

Aged 21, Adam Richard Gason, youngest son of Captain N. Browne, late 1st Regt. of Waterloo road, and of Clohamon house, county Wexford.

In Belgrave-square, Lady Annabella Ramsden, relict of the late Admiral Ramsden, and daughter of the 13th Marquis of Winchester.

In Sackville-street, General Lord Charles Somerset Manners, KCB, aged 74.

At Kensington palace, Robert Lyons, Esq.

At Wilton rectory, Northamptonshire, Christian Rose.

Thomas G. W. Carew, Esq. of Crewcombe court, Magistrate and Deputy Lieutenant for the county of Somerset.

At Rose-hill, Caversham, Oxon, Henry John Shepherd, Esq. QC, aged 71, late Commissioner of the Insolvent Court.

At Devizes, Alfred Caswell, Esq. of Binfield, Berks, barrister-at-law, son of the late Rev. R. C. Caswell, vicar of West Lavington, Wilts.

At Clifton, Marian Frances, daughter of Capt. Furlonge, Paymaster of the Bristol Recruiting district.

At Kensington, Mr. T. Romer Travers, the vocalist.

In Edinburgh, William Dryden, Esq. late Collector of Inland Revenue, Drogheda.

James Irvine, Esq. of Belmont road, Liverpool.

At Tou'ouse, the Very Rev. Father Maillard, Provincial of the Company of Jesus.

in this matter necessary matter.

Dated this
GEORGE A
the Assignee

IN THE

ncumbe

In the Matter
John B
O
Isabella
Pet

Francis Samu
John M.
Peti

Thomas
Peti

Owner and an annual sum

The improper
certain Lands
of Clare, prod

The improper
certain Lands
of Clare, prod

The improper
certain Lands
in said County
£121 3s. 4d.

Dated this 3

For Rentals
Office of the C Dublin; or to essars. O' BR ing the carriag
23, Kildare-str
W. H. M'GE
street, Dublin;
JOHN M. WI
Abbey-street,
THOMAS KEA