

MORROGH is not, however, acting thus. In his letter he onslaught on the action of the led or influenced by Mr. and Mr. O'BRIEN," and which opinion, "made them ridiculous only in the eyes of foes but Quite true, Mr. MORROGH. n set of creatures all the Whig small fry are proving themselves, and how the opponents of are laughing up their sleeves and manner in which they are the prospects of Ireland to personal ambition. Before this the at home and abroad were led that the party under Mr. JOHN were the only barriers to e, and that their policy was so at it should be stamped out. g members were held up t models of unity, fighting n under the leadership of JUSTIN . The Donnybrook ructions in reet, the prolongation of the between HEALY, DILLON and ater on, and the Sextonian epist week have helped to disillusionds of those of our countrymen misled at the general election, r other day brings signs and at the complete break-up of y is at hand. Mr. MORROGH was HEALY'S most zealous lieutenants—the party solely because of temporary defeat. He was a h cow while he lasted, but his will know him no more nor the length of his purse. We the selection of a candidate East Co. k to replace Mr. MOR- lead to fur. ther scenes in the d and happy p. rty led by Mr.

olders of
general meeting of shareh
k Leader Printing and Publ. ching limited, will be held at these oh. ces
ay, 21st June, 1893, at one o'clock.
Ginnane, secretary.

aggregate of twenty-three weeks the
the Great Southern and Western Rail-

nesday nights were equally faithful. Last night in The Gamester, his portrayal of the unfortunate "Beverley" rited the deepest attention of the audience. To-night Mr. Tearle takes his benefit. The play selected is Richelieu. In addition Mr. Tearle will recite Professor Aytoun's beautiful poem, "The Execution of Montrose." To-morrow night he will close his engagement with Richard III. Those of our fellow-citizens who have not yet seen Mr. Tearle should do so before the end of his visit.

THE SHOOTING OF MR. MOLONEY, SOLICITOR.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM)

ENNIS, FRIDAY.

The four prisoners arrested for complicity in the firing and wounding of Mr. Weldon Moloney, solicitor, on 1st June, were discharged from custody to-day by the Crown. On the application of Mr. J. Cullinan, Crown Solicitor, the five remaining prisoners were remanded for eight days on the deposition of Dr. James Moloney that the injured man was not fit to give evidence or undergo cross-examination for one month at least. An application for bail was refused by Mr. Jones, R.M. Mr. O. Cullinane, B.L., with Mr. Miniken, solicitor, appeared for prisoners.

DEATH OF MRS. GUINANE.

The death of the above lady, wife of Mr. Michael Guinane, Lansdowne Milk Factory, has occasioned deep regret. Her death took place, after a short illness, at St. John's Hospital on Wednesday last. The funeral took place to-day from St. Munchin's Catholic Church, where the remains were removed prior to interment. The cortège was followed by large numbers of friends and by the employés of Messrs. O'Levee, by whom deceased was held in the highest esteem. The coffin was covered with wreaths.

FUNERAL OF MR. A. MANNING.

The many friends of Mr. John Manning, victualler, Queen-street, will read with regret of the death of his son, Mr. A. Manning, aged 19 years, which occurred on Tuesday last. Some few weeks ago deceased contracted a cold, which ended in his death. He was a great favourite with all who knew him, and the greatest sympathy is felt with his family in their sad bereavement. The funeral cortège to St. Laurence's cemetery testified the regard in which he was held. A large number of wreaths were carried by the members of the Sodality of St. Thomas of Aquin. The clergy present were—Rev. Dr. Hallinan, Adm.; Rev. Father O'Donnell, O.C.; Rev. Father Quigley, O.P.; Rev. Father M'Cormack, O.P. The chief mourners were:—John Manning (father), John, Robert, George, and Thomas Manning (brothers), J. Kiely, J. Winters, &c., &c.

THE PARLIAMENTARY HOME RULE FUND.

To-night a meeting, presided over by the Mayor, will be held in the Town Hall, at eight o'clock, in support of the fund for the battle of pledge before next court of

DESERTY
A young woman named
charged with deserting her
on last night. The child
the father, it was alleged,
to his support.
Sergeant M'Aree prosecuted
found the child alongside John-street near the bridge
danger of falling into it.
to take the child and she would do "seven years' first

The prisoner said she only to see if the father would towards its support. She
the child any harm.

John Murphy, the man
the child was left, said a
could hear the sound when
into the house on the floor.

The Mayor—Why did she Witness—Because the
father lived there.

The Mayor (to accused)—
for 14 days, and at the end
bail for 12 months, or in
and the child will be handed

Constable Brennan charged using obscene language in Colloney-street. The party
others named Tracy.

There were a number
the suit of the Lenton party

Constable Swan stated that pestilence in Collooney-street
there for the past few months.
Miss Tracey is a very good
also her mother.

The magistrates decided stable Brennan against M
language to fine her 5s and
In the case of assault
Miss Tucker were fined seven days, and bound to
months in £5 and two sureties
one month's imprisonment
dismissed.

TRESP.
Michael M'Donnell, a
charged with breaking a
with trespassing on the property
Mr. Barrington appeared
Mr. Moran defended. Fine

EXCURSION TO

On Sunday next the W
Company and the West C
have combined to run an
will leave Limerick at 8
class, 6s; second class, 5s
The usual fares will be charged Ennistymon. Fares to second class, 3s; third class, Sixmilebridge can also be low fares.

LINLITHGOW

To-day at noon the res
took place yesterday at L
as follows:—

Hope (Unionist)
Ure (Liberal)