

Friday of the horse to save his The following Mr. A. C. M St. Giles ; Mr. Stiff ; Mr. Pre Mr. Stacpoole's Mr. Kilkelly's Armstrong's Co

Stakes of 5 so hunters that hav the satisfaction of the owner or 4 yrs. old, 11st. aged, 13st. 3lb. this year to carry the blue post, or entered before meeting. Six S

Handicap of 3 30 sovs. for ho before 8 o'clock, ately after, 1½ m

Stakes of 5 so to be entered be weighted by th heats. Four Su

Stakes of 3 meeting, to na weights to be fix mile heats. Fo

Stakes of 3 so started for a pri —3 yrs. old, 9 11st. 5lb. ; 6 y heats, winner t of the second h subscribers or r

King's Plate entering each h the Clerk of the colour, the ow upwards to pay others double. a horse walking scales and straw with Mr. James entrance. All may be made by No horse can be entrance money prevent false sta

At Drosford, Hants, Captain Charles Parker, R.N. son of the late Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, to Kate, widow of the late Rev. Hely Hutchinson Smith.

At Croydon, G. L. Jacob, Esq. of the Bombay army, son of John Jacob, Esq. of Guernsey, to Emily, third daughter of Lieutenant-Colonel Utterton, Heath-lodge, Croydon, Surrey.

At Burghelere, Hants, the Rev. William Annesley, M.A. third son of the Rev. Arthur Annesley, Rector of Clifford Chambers, Gloucester-shire, to Laura Anne, eldest surviving daughter of the late Major-General Jones, of Fommon Castle, Glamorganshire.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, Mrs. Scott, wife of Richard Scott, Esq. attorney. At his residence, in South Terrace, Cork, after an illness of only four days, Joseph Garde, Esq. Alderman of the city of Cork.

On Thursday last, of fever, Richard Fitzgerald, Esq. of Bally-keale, county Clare, Attorney at-Law.

In Bridgefoot-street, Dublin, Mr. James Smyth, formerly of Meath-street, grocer, of a decline.

In Roche's-street, Mr. James Hayes, Tailor.

At Rodstown, near Kells, county Meath, aged 63. Jacob Dyas, Esq.

At Roscarbery, Elizabeth, widow of the late William Wolfe, of Coolcraheen, county Cork, Esq.

In Mecklinburgh-street, Dublin, Charles M'Carthy, Esq. many years connected with the Excise Department.

Henry G. Wise, Esq. of Cork.

At Cliff Cottage, Tramore, Thomas Murray, of Clonmel, Esq.

At Kilree, near Kells, county Kilkenny, John, eldest son of the late Mr. William Pollard.

In Clonmel, Mr. Thomas Davis, pawnbroker.

The Rev. Patrick Mooney, Roman Catholic Curate of St. Catherine's, Dublin.

At Cove, Ellen, wife of Charles Robinson, Esq.

In Killarney, Mr. Daniel O'Leary.

At Sullivan's-quay, Cork, Mr. George Larrymore, many years a respectable wine and spirit dealer.

At Castlebar, Anne, wife of Constantine Jordon, Esq.

In Portland-place, Dublin, Thomas Smyth, Esq.

John Day Collis, Esq. eldest son of the late John Fitzgerald Collis, Esq. of York-street, Dublin.

Barrack-Sergeant Simpson of the Royal Barracks, Dublin, formerly of the Grenadier Guards.

At Kilmore, the Rev. James Muldoon, Catholic Curate of that parish, and formerly administrator of the parish of Dungannon.

Suddenly, Dr. John M'Kittrick, of Downpatrick.

At Upton, county Carlow, aged 76 years, Robert Gray, Esq.

At Shevzilla, County Leitrim, Elizabeth, wife of T. Palmer, Esq. Rockingham, Boyle, in the 76th year, Mr. Alexander Kanning.

Mr. William Cobbett, M.P. for Oldham, Lancashire, at his farm, in Surrey, aged 73. He retained his faculties to the last moment, and died with perfect composure.

At Brighton, Sir Francis Laforey, Bart. Admiral of the Blue, and Knight Commander of the Bath.

Aged 83, Edmund Griffith, Esq. for many years Magistrate at the Malylebone Police-office.

In her 33d year, Sophia Eliza, the wife of Mr. Oliver Axford, of Sloane-square, Chelsea.

At Brunswick, Mrs. Cole, widow of the late Henry Wm. Cole.

At the Mansion-House, in his 16th year, John, youngest son of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of London.

At Wollaton House, in the county of Notts, the Right Hon. Lord Middleton, in the 75th year of his age.

At Callas, on the 31st of Jannary, Lieut. William Russell Drummond, of H.M.S. Satellite, in the 23d year of his age, youngest son of General Sir G. Drummond.

Cecil Tufton Phelp, Esq. Lieutenant Royal Navy, second son of the late Col. Phelp, of Coston, Leicestershire.

At Wing, in her 90th year, Mrs. Elizabeth Russell, widow.

At Mespil, Mrs. Margaretta Massey, aged 34, much lamented by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances.

PRICES OF IRISH STOCKS—JUNE 23.

| | |
|-------------------------------------|-----|
| Bank Stock, | — |
| Irish Three per cent Consols | 91 |
| Government Stock, 3¼ per Cent. | 98½ |