

himself Roger Doyle, alias M'Namara, la, with a new milch cow supposed to in custody of the Police, and the cow of the Rev. Mr. M'Inerney, P. P. of

to say that the three Culhanes, whose hadfully fractured some time since, at the blood-thirsty savages who so barba- their brother, Michael Culhane,—are Rathkeale, under the care of Surgeon of the principals in the outrage have fished and fully committed for trial at the ulations of law and decency are stated in the town of Ennis every Sabbath every shop there is open for business, articles publicly hawking about, and car- ding in the streets as unconcernedly as ail of yesterday, due at 11 o'clock A. until within a quarter of two P. M., the wheels giving way near Newbridge. was sustained; but the circumstance of ay created an uneasy sensation in this

f wheat, near Stone-hall, in this County, a Waller, Esq. has been in ear these ten ogra, in this County, was well supplied stock, the most part of which was on high prices. The buyers were nume- any lots remained undisposed of.

an evident decline in the price of Milch eral fairs held during this week; and icularly two year olds, have fallen consi- late high prices which that description and Crew of the large timber vessel, the sailed in the George IV. for Bristol subscriptions in their behalf in that City hundred pounds.

es, Newsatle Course, will commence on oi September next.—(See Advertisement.)

st, Mr. Kelly, Inspector of Fisheries, he 19th Regiment and the Police, stati- searched the different townlands from ry-Bridge, adjoining the river Meague—ong nets, found in the houses of unqua- rut and destroyed a great number of s on which nets were fixed; and also des- ages fitted up in the river for the purpose nets from bank to bank. The nets taken ze of the mesh capable of destroying all d must have done considerable mischief.

had twelve persons summoned to the of Croom, on Tuesday last, for having cross the rivers Meague, Comogue, and which were most destructive to the breed-all of whom were convicted in a sum of . Kelly agreed with the Magistrates to or the persons to prostrate those weirs in as was pointed out to them; in case of alty to be enforced without reduction.

sions, on Wednesday, Alderman Sir C. . F. G. Mahony, with Captain Drought, on this day the Mayor, Aldermen Sir C. Mahony, with Captain Drought. Several posed of which will be given on Wed-ans were fined on Monday, in penalties of ch, for selling Spirituous Liquors on the

to the County Gaol, by the Rev. Edward ond Burke and John ... for cow-

DEATHS.

Yesterday, at Greenpark, in the bosom of her res- pected family, at an advanced age, Mrs. Ievers—a Lady who performed the relative duties of wife, mother, and friend, with singular felicity—and exemplified through- out her last illness, to her sorrowing friends, how faith and hope can sustain the dying Christian.

In the 70th year of his age, the Rev. Daniel O'Brien, Parish Priest of Kilnoe and Tomgrany—sincerely and universally regretted.

At her father's house, Rathkeale, the only daughter of Mr. John Dartnell.—This interesting child came by her death by falling into a pot of boiling water.

At Johnston Lodge, near Clones, Captain Samuel Johnston, late of the 4th Dragoon Guards.

In Dublin, aged 15 years, Edmund, second son of the late Edmund Cashin, of Waterford, Esq.

At Ferrybank, of fever, Mr. Patrick Murphy He had suffered amputation of his leg about a fortnight ago, caused by a fall from his horse.

Suddenly, in Tralee, on Tuesday, Mrs. Collins, wife Mr. Michael Collins, writing-master.

The wife of Mr. John Hoey, of the City Quay, Dublin. In London, Gawen Richard Nash, Esq.

At Dundalk, after a long and painful illness, much and deservedly regretted, in her 27th year, Margaret Browne, wife of William Arthur Browne, Esq. late of the 45th Regiment, and only surviving daughter of the esteemed late Yeomanry Brigade Major Ebhart, of the County Louth and Drogheda

At Richmond, Sir John Grey Egerton, Bart.

In London, Mary, wife of Charles Courtenay, Esq. of Buckland-house, Berkshire.

In London, Lady Sophia Heathcote.

At Richmond, Lord Spencer Chichester, third son of the Marquis of Donegal, aged twenty years. He had served some time in the 52d Light Infantry, was latterly promoted, and had just joined the 7th Royal Fusileers as Lieutenant.

At Shrewsbury, in her 85th year, the relict of the late Colonel Forester, of Ross-hall, Salop, and mother of Lord Forester.

At Nice, Mrs. Deane, wife of Captain Deane.

At Madrid, on the 13th May, George Thomas, eldest son of Thomas Martin, Esq. of Coleman-street, London.

At Port Macquarie, Captain John Rolland, 3d Buffs, Commandant of that settlement.

DEATHS IN THE ARMY LIST FOR JUNE.

Lieutenant-Generals—Trotter, M. Baillie, and Trent, Hon. East India Company's Service.

Captains—Brown, 41st Foot; Cassidy, 67th; Mauritz, 95th; Bullock, half-pay 41st; Skene, half-pay 81st; Ewing, half-pay Waggon Train; and Jenkins, half-pay 1st Ceylon Regiment.

Lieutenants Hume, 41st Foot; Gregorson, half-pay 73d; Thomas Taylor and Kennedy, 89th; Agnew, 2d Veteran Battalion; Taylor, late 12th Veteran Battalion; O'Brien, half-pay 38th Foot; Smyth, half-pay 41st Foot; Chapman, 56th Foot; and Graumann, half-pay Roll's Regiment.

Ensigns—Cunynghame, 24th Foot; Hewetson, 56th; Downing, 65th; and M'Clinchey, late 7th Veterans.

Paymasters—Woollard, Cambridge Militia, and Stone, Londonderry Militia.

Quartermasters—Marsden, 2d Dragoon Guards; and Crawford, Royal Artillery.

Assistant-Surgeons—Graham, 15th Foot; and Zierman, 8th Line German Legion.

EXCHANGES.

Lieutenant-Colonel Hutchinson, Cape Corps, with Lieutenant-Colonel Somerset, half-pay, unattached.—

Captain Leatham, from 1st Dragoon Guards, receiving the difference, with Captain Skinner, half-pay York Chasseurs.—Captain Higgins, from 7th Foot, with

Lord William Thynne, 27th Foot.—Captain Charlton,

WELCH SLATE

FRANCIS SPAIGH IS NOW LANDING AT HIS
100 Tons of the best BANGOR
WHICH WILL BE SOLD AT A REDUCED
He has also for Sale at his Stores, a large TIMBER PLANK, DEALS, CO
all which will be sold on moderate
Limerick, Ju

WINES. TEAS

T. M' MAHON
11, Patrick-Street,
HAS IN BOTTLE AND IN THE KING'S A LARGE STOCK OF
SUPERIOR OLD WIN

The following descriptions are selling at the Rates, viz:—

Fine Old Port.....	32s.
Madeira.....	46s.
Sherry.....	35s.
Teneriffe.....	32s.
Best Cape Madeira.....	20s.

Most of the above Wines may be had i
He has this week received the following

FRESH TEAS,

PER THE AURORA FROM LOND
FOUR Cwt Wax, Spermaceti and Kens

Fresh Spices and Pickles, per Lond
London; 38 Mats Wine, Quart and P
Britannia, from Glasgow; a few hogshea

Madeira, lately received from London, per and expects per first arrival from Oport

Old Port (vintage 1820,) which, with a Fine Patent Steam Sugar, Bright and M

ditto; Fine Old Malt WHISKEY,
Pickles, Sauces and Liqueurs; Old Glose

Pickling Vinegar; New Red Clover Se
&c. &c. &c.—will be sold at the usual

which his establishment is distinguished.
Best New Irish and Herefordshire C

ALE and PORTER, in fine order, in Limerick, J

AUCTION OF NEW DEAL

TO BE SOLD BY AU
ON WEDNESDAY, THE 8TH

At the Bonded Yard, on Messrs. Har
SEVERAL THOUSANDS OF

8 FEET 3 INCH NORWAY RI
They will be put up in small Lots

Purchasers.
TERMS AT SALE.

HENRY DENMEADE,
Limerick, June 4, 1825.

SUMMER IMPORTATI

NOW OPEN, AND ARE READY FOR INSP
WEST of ENGLAND WOOL

10. CHARLOTTE'S-QU
A SPLENDID variety of Super
Cassimere, Dreb Bloom, Scarf