

been the gathering of years, originally commercial purposes—and in litigating what? themselves had farmed for thirteen years—the Courts and the Public a strange paradox—sense—in the first instance legalizing by they believed to be wrong, and subsequently assumption in others of what they previously right—or in a more direct sense, while inants there was no scruple; but conscience hers were only doing quarter what they themselves. But the question is at rest, congratulate our fellow Citizens on escape of taxation they could not bear—We how-clude these remarks without recurring to party-like views taken of this suit, by a interest of that Body after the Cork verdict, ing in an extraordinary latitude of attack, nly at the Jury but at the learned Judge his charge—in the observations, we re- of old women sitting in judgment seats, e Shannon, &c. Will the Editor now put Bushe, and Judge Burton, with their bre-asts? The tone of such vapours is truly in and out of the Press, we shall have of the chapter.—

Establishing the Provincial Bank of Ire- House of Lords on Wednesday evening, e received the Royal Assent yesterday. of the 61st have proceeded hence to der Lieutenant Harris; to Patrick's Well ; to Dromcolleher, Lieut. M'Donnell; to Simmonds. Captain Gaynor, Lieutenant geon White have joined the detachment at ported that the 65th, and not the 78th, are 25th in the County Clare. Head-quarters ussars marched on Wednesday from Dor- ondor, to arrive on the 14th inst.

ancers marched on Thursday from Canter- Regent's Park Barracks.

ancers are ordered to march, on the 11th Brighton, for Weybridge and Chertsey, l arrive on the 14th inst.

s of the 4th, 5th, 9th, 27th, 33d, 35th, and 2nd Batt. 60th, are ordered from the to several stations in Ireland.

ral Sir Charles Doylé, K. C. B. will an Elley in the command of this District, antant.

Colonel Dick, 42d, and Lieutenant-Colonel are appointed Colonels in the army, and o to the King.

rd Combermere embarked on board the esday, for his command at Calcutta.

ided whether Sir Colquhoun Grant retires and of the Dublin District.

nsay will succeed to the Leeds Recruiting Colonel Salvin, appointed Major-General.

y last, the Lord Bishop of Limerick held itation for the Diocese of Ardferd and ralec Church.

Last, the Rev. Dr. M'Hale, was conse- an Catholic Bishop in the Chapel of May- by Bishops Murray, Kelly, M'Nicholas, rs.

gentlemen called to the Bar at the present s Creagh, Esq. youngest son of Richard ungan, County Clare, Esq.

registered Freeholders in this County enti- Elections:—187 of 100l. each; 1,032 of 20l.; and 10,793 of 40l. each—Total, County Cork, 17,865. County Kerry, 6,716. ary, 12,742. County Waterford, 2,568.

Counties, it is singular, that there are more Freeholders by a great majority—and more ere is no appearance of 100l. Freeholders erick.

Alderman Sir C. Marrett and Captain ded this day at Petty Sessions—The Court

DEATHS.

On Thursday, in Henry-street, of apoplexy, Lieutenant Williams, late of the 61st Regiment. The sincere regret which the sudden and unexpected death of this excellent individual has universally diffused, is a true criterion of the deservedly high estimation he was held in by all ranks of society. Of the Mendicity Institution he was an active and zealous advocate, ever attentive to its best interests; and his premature death will be deeply felt by the numerous inmates—his life was marked by a strict adherence to the purest feelings of virtue and religion. In the army he served with distinction, and was highly respected by his brother officers. His remains will be interred with military honors, at Munglin's Church, on Sunday.

Yesterday, at his Father's house in George's-street, after a tedious illness, Henry, eldest son of Henry O'Sullivan, Esq.—very much regretted.

In Newtown Parry, in this City, Mary, relict of the late William Gabbett, of Mour. Minnett, in this County, Esq. at an advanced age.

On Saturday last, by a fall from his horse, on returning from the country to his residence in Mallow, John Grove Seward, Esq. late a Captain in the County Limerick Militia. We have rarely had to announce the death of a gentleman, so universally and so deservedly esteemed. With an uniform gentleness of manners, there was united a warm benevolence of heart, as well as sweetness of disposition, which endeared him to all, who had merely a casual acquaintance: while those more intimate friends, who were bound to him by a long experience of his worth, now feel with deep and poignant sorrow the extent of their attachment and the heaviness of their loss. But that which sheds the brightest lustre on his character and conduct, was, an entire devotedness of mind, and an unceasing vigilance of attention to the comforts and happiness of an aged and Widowed Parent, who is now left at a very advanced period of life, to weep out the sad remainder of her days under that most afflictive of all privations, the death of an only son. "May the holy spirit of God, who can alone effect it, pour the balm of comfort on this poor Rachael's desolate and wounded heart!" The suddenness of this calamity has nearly taken from us the power of giving full and adequate expression to our feelings, but while we bend with humble and pious resignation to the awful and inscrutable dispensations of Providence, we can assert without a possibility of contradiction, that in the death of this lamented and most excellent Gentleman, filial virtue has lost one of its purest ornaments, friendship one of its steadiest and most faithful adherents, and society at large one of its best and most amiable members.

At her house, Merrion-Row, Dublin, after a severe indisposition which she bore with true Christian fortitude and resignation, Mrs. Maquay, Lady of George Paul Maquay, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, and daughter of the late Francis Gore, Esq. of Derrymore, County of Clare.

Tuesday last at Finnoe Glebe, Borrisokane, the residence of her brother-in-law, the Rev. Pierce Gould, Alicia, youngest daughter of the late Bingham Ellison, of Headford, County of Galway, Esq.

At Clonakilty, of fever, the Lady of Thomas White, Esq. Barrackmaster of Clonakilty, and daughter of the late Colonel Flood, of Roundwood. Queen's County.

In Tralee, on Thursday, George Purdon, Esq. father of the Fellow of Trinity College, Dublin.

At Ballythomas, in the County Cork, Win. Bullen, Esq.

In Mallow, Catherine, wife of T. H. Justice, Esq.

In Dublin, the wife of Mr. S. B. Brega, Printer.

At Bath, Thomas P. Lalor, Esq. only son of Mr. Lalor, of Cranagh, County Tipperary.

At Bandon on Wednesday, Mrs. (James) Scott.

At Crooke, County Waterford, Miss Catherine Hearn.

In London, Sir William Weller Pepys. Sir Robert Bateson Harvey, Bart. At Kiswick, in Norfolk, Mrs. Gurney, relict of the late Richard Gurney, Esq.

TO BE LET,
AND IMMEDIATE POSSESSION GIVEN,

Cassimere—Drab, Bloom, Scarlet, —Ladies Habits and Pelice Cloths—M gons, and Nanbucts—Russia Drills, st for Trowsers—over 500 yards of the London Waisteoats—300 pieces Manc Velveteens—a bale of India Nanbucts, India House, (therefore are engaged real of other Fancy Summer Goods.

LANDED ON THE 3d INST From on board the CLYDE, lying at the

An additional supply of Black and Blue Olive, Claret, Oxford, and Mulbery d fabric; the Black and Blue Cloths at 20 landing, will be found in value to exceed the kind ever offered to the Public. The consumption of this House, a further supply description of Cloths is daily expected

HAT WARE-ROOM

This department is now furnished with Beaver Hats, best quality, (engaged,) a very good description at 15s. 6d.—and from this down to 7s. 6d. may be had. A assortment of Silk Hats, manufactured plan, will never stop, and are engaged to and colour.

A Premium of 2½ per Cent. allowed on exceeding £5

ROBERT M'MAHON Limerick, June 11, 1825.

GLOBE INSUR LONDON.

D. F. G. MAHON

Begs to acquaint his Friends and that HE HAS REMOVED HIS OFFICE

NO. 3, LARGE MONTAGNE B

GEORGE'S STREET

BILLS ON LON

Government Securities, &c. &c. Those Concerns are fitted up in the

AGENCY AND OTHER BUSI

BUILDING GROUND in Mal Streets to be let reasonably, and on I for Beer at a Pepper-Corn, if prefer Limerick, 11

OLD WINE

R. BODKIN

IS EXTENSIVELY SUPPLIED Old Port, Brown and White Sher and Cape Madeira Wi

OF THE MOST ADMIRABLE

Which he offers for sale at prices consid House in the trade.

Persons purchasing in quantity, liberally allowed.

A few fresh Wine Pipes, Hogsh Casks, to be sold for the value.

Office, 40, Wi 11th June,

MR. KEAL

SURGEON DEN

FROM PARIS, LONDON, AND ED

GRATEFULLY returns his best Nobility, Ladies and Gentlemen Counties in its vicinity, for the distingu preference he has experienced since his a ence of which he hopes to merit, by s