

to Elizabeth, daughter of John Perrin, Esq. of Wicklow.
 At Chunar, East Indies, Charles Thomas Paske, Esq. son of Col. Paske, late of the Madras army, to Louisa, only daughter of the late Major Lockhard Maclean, of the Bengal Army

DEATHS.

At her father's residence, Corbally, Catherine, the beloved daughter of Thomas M'Namara, Esq.—sincerely regretted by her friends.

In Killarney, the wife of Capt. Falvey, 75th.

In Nenagh, Henry, youngest son of Mr. Henry Harden.
 At Ardageena, near Bantry, at the house of her uncle, Florence M. Carthy, Esq. JP, Ellen O'Sullivan, commonly called "Ellen of Inch"

At the Monastery of the Christian Brothers, in Cork, Brother J. J. O'Connor, aged 81 years, nearly 50 of which he spent educating the children of the poor.

At Lismore, Robert U. Penrose Fitzgerald, Esq. of Corkbegg county Cork

At Georgetown, county Waterford, James Barron, Esq. JP, aged 86, senior magistrate of the county.

In Tramore, Mr. Edmond Power, late of Waterford,
 In Skibberagh, Ellen, daughter of Eugene Leonard.

In Dublin, Kate, youngest daughter of the late James Savage, Esq. Finglas Wood, county Dublin.

At Vergemount, C.onskea, Adelaide, youngest daughter of
 M. Cregan, Esq. PRHA.

At Carysfort avenue, Blackrock, John Cullin, Esq.

At Mountrath, Mrs. Anne White.

At Goud Mines, county Wicklow, Julia, fifth daughter of Anthony Murphy, Esq. aged 17.

At Spring Garden Parade, John Joseph, fifth son of Mr.
 John Kerrigan.

In Dublin, Mr. John Molloy, formerly of Dunleer, county Louth.

Fanny Allman, daughter of Mr. Andrew S. Hart, FTCD.

At Danes ort, the Rev. E. Kavanagh, PP, aged 90, the oldest clergyman in the diocese of Ossory.

At Endererry, King's County, Mr. George Canavan.

In Dublin, Mary, relict of Mr. James Gormley, formerly of Henry-street.

In Dublin, Elizabeth, wife of George Cheeketts, Esq.

In Dublin, Robert Conway, solicitor.

At Kilbeggan, of scarlatina, Richard Joseph, son of John Locke, Esq.

In Chesham-place, the Hon. Mrs. Dawson Damer, relict of the late Hon. Henry Dawson Damer, and mother of the Earl of Portarlington, aged 72.

At Leeswood, Capt. W. Eytan, one of the few survivors who were engaged in the memorable battle of Trafalgar. He served in the Neptune.

Suddenly, the Viscountess Gage.

The Rev. Richard Watson, Vice President and Tutor of Queen's College, Cambridge.

At the Vicarage, Jane, wife of Thomas Barker, MA, vicar of Thirkleby.

John Alexander, only son of John Drummond, Esq. Royal Navy.

At the Rectory, Pewsey, Wilts. Duncombe Pleydell Bouverie, Captain 63d Regt. youngest son of the late Hon. and Rev. F. P. Bouverie, rector of Pewsey.

At Marston Rectory, Florence, daughter of the Rev. Thos.
 Dryrell

In Edinburgh, Mrs. Meiklam, sen.

On board the Parana, homeward bound from the West Indies, Robert Rogers, Esq. second son of Robert A. Rogers, Esq. of Whitechurch, county Cork.

At Lucknow, Oude, East Indies, Brigade Major Henry Park Wildig, HEICS, only surviving his wife but a few months.

In Bombay, Major Thomas Henry Ottley, Bombay Invalids, second and last surviving son of the late Major B. Ottley, of Norfolk.

At Yass, Australia, William, only son of Wm. Richardson, Esq. late of Spring-park, county Dublin.

David Meany
 James Shine, Ballyma-cresse
 Walter Bentley
 James Purcell
 Michael Browne
 Michael Quin
 Henry Rose
 Peter Tait
 Richard Power
 Carol Naish
 William E. Corbett, CE
 Richard Bentley
 Merrick Brothers
 Limerick, 30th May, 1857.

TO THE CLERGY, GENTRY, MERCHANTS INHABITANTS OF LIMERICK

GENTLEMEN,—

I have the honor to acknowledge the kind and flattering Address, presented recent appointment as Manager of the BANK OF CARRICKMACROSS.

Truly grateful am I, to know that my have met your approbation, and have b dantly repaid. I trust, that my future fully maintain the high opinion you hav and generously bestowed.

Your encomiums shall ever be appreci feel assured they are actuated by the ki

I feel that I am undeserving of such and am unable to pourtray my grateful kindness I have ever received from you.

May I be allowed to say, I feel proud in discharge of the responsible duties of of the Limerick Branch of the National fortunate enough to please my employ numerous friends and customers of that for which, no stronger proof is requ appointment I have just received, and t proval conveyed to me, in the handsom costly Service of Plate you have honored which I shall ever cherish as it deserves.

Although my removal from Limerick me considerably in the service of the N I cannot but much regret the loss of ma shall not cease to watch with anxiety th prosperity, and the rising importance City, Limerick.

I beg to remain, my kind friends, wi
 teem and lasting gratitude,

Your sincerely obliged
 WILLIAM AUGUSTUS M
 The National Bank, Carrickmacross,
 June 1st, 1857.

June 17.

There were 175 pianos, 460 hogheads and 280 casks of wine, consumed in Pick