on Thursday last, of decline, at Newborough, in this County, Richard, youngest son of the late Richard Wilson, Esq. of Ballinacurra, near this City, aged 23.
At the house of his brother, the Hon. and Rev. R. B. Stowford, Clissiers, Windsor Castle, the Earl of Courtown, K.P., aged 90 years.
At the Glebe House, Killaloe, on the 13th instant, Sarah, the beloved and lamented wife of the Rev. Richard Martin, Registrar of the Diocese—a Lady of the most humane and charitable disposition.
In Clare-street, John, son of the late Mr. Jeremiah Hall, builder,
In Dublin, where he went for the benefit of his health, Joseph MacDonnell, Esq. of Carranacon, county Mayo, and for which county he was twice a candidate.
Robert Jones, jun., second son of Robert Jones, Esq. of Peterstreet, Dublin.
Eleanor, widow of the late Mr. James Miller, of Fishamble street.
Richard Maguire, Esq. one of the Burgesses of Cork.
In Cork, Frances, youngest daughter of Quarter-Master Doyle, 97th Regiment.
At Bristol, county Carlow, John Willcocks, Esq. Surgeon to the Borris Dispensary, and eldest son of the late John Willcocks, Esq. of Fermoy.
At Mount Kennet, Mr. Robert Crawford, many years a respectable Pilot of this port.
After a few days' illness, in Ballygriff, county Tipperary, Mr. Edward Dalton, beloved and mourned by all who had the pleasure of being acquainted with her, and whose hospitality and charity can only be duly appreciated by those who shared both.
At Kilmore, the Rev. James Muldoon, Catholic Curate of that Parish, and formerly administrator of the parish of Dungan-non.
At Upton, county Carlow, aged 76 years, Robert Gray, Esq. at her residence, Shooter's-hill, near London, Mary Ann, wife of Colonel Dodgson, formerly of the 56th Regiment.
In his 91st year, the Rev. Geo. Gray Stuart, seventh and youngest son of the late Hon. Archibald Stuart.
At Croydon, the Hon. George Anderson Pelham, aged 49, only brother of Lord Yarborough.
John Harvey, Esq. of Teddington, Middlesex, in his 34th year.
At Porto Bello, near Edinburgh, aged 22, Charlotte, grand-daugher of the late Sir David Ochterlony, Bart.
Edmund, youngest son of William Norris Franklyn, Esq. of Barnet, Herts.
At Gerard's-cross, Mrs. Cannon, late of Benfield, Berks.
At Hull, aged 80, Isabella, widow of the late Captain William Fowsey.
At Jamaica, aged 19 years, Thomas, son of Captain John Hayman, of the Trinity House, occasioned by the accidental bursting of a piece of Ordnance.
At York, Edward Wheldon, Quartermaster of the 6th Carbineers, age 46 years, after a tedious illness, which he bore with Christian resignation.
In Liverpool, Mrs. Lunt, wife of Captain William Lunt, of the 23d Highlanders.
Mr. Incledon, the celebrated vocalist.
Of yellow fever, on board His Majesty's ship Vestal, at Jamaica, George Williams, Esq. Surgeon of that ship; and private letters have been received from the ship, by persons in Plymouth neighbourhood, which state that two of her officers and sixty one of her crew have fallen victims to this formidable malady.