rapid consumption, John Upton, Esq. in the 30th year of his age, to the inexpressible regret of a beloved and affectionate wife and a numerous circle of sorrowing friends and relatives, to whom he was endeared by his kind and gentle nature. It has seldom been our lot to record the death of a gentleman of more acknowledged integrity or higher principles. He departed in the certain hope of a blessed resurrection, leaving to those who loved him the consoling conviction that he has passed from this life to a glorious immortality—that he has but fallen asleep in JESUS.
