

body of Bourke, the Coroner's contractor and all other parties

tion F., of the Limerick fishery on Wednesday last, and unanimous—Major Scott, of Kilmogh House, Ballymahon, Co. Wick, Esq. JP, of Castleconnell. The nursemaid, has been arrested in connection with the serious and barbarous murder of a young girl in Kent, the details of which have already been published.

East Agricultural show at Belmullet, was very numerously supplied, and there were a large number of visitors.

At Petty Sessions the Magistrate sentenced a man to a term of imprisonment for assault at the suit of the wife of the Rev Patrick O'Brien, v. the Rev Patrick O'Brien, on a religious affray in connection with a dying man. The parties in fault, and dismissed.

Mr O'Brien died this week at Shannon, at the advanced age of 106.

The South Dublin Union have elected Mr. Fox, R.C., Chaplain of the Union, in violation of the law, and contrary to the duties of the Commissioners.

A man has been left for execution at the gallows of Patrick Mahony at Kilmashogue, Co. Wick, his remains having been reserved for the Courts.

The Wicklow have passed a resolution in the law so as to enable them to proceed for applotting County Cess. At the Criminal Court, London, a lady named Mrs. O'Brien, was convicted of a robbery at a fancy fair in the early part of last month at Drogheda, and sentenced to six months imprisonment.

A suicide, and which had nearly proved fatal, was made on yesterday in the prison named William Moore, a private of the 9th Regiment of the 1st Garrison, and who had been committed to the authorities, for a desperate attack on a corporal of the same regiment, the details of which were reported in last CHRONICLE. On the day room in company with two other men, and was in the act of shaving himself when he inflicted a fearful gash on his chin with a windpipe down from the chin to the throat, the assizes being proceeding, and gentlemen being in attendance at the house, which almost adjoins the prison. Doctors Galston, Gore, and others were on the scene and rescued the unfortunate by stitching up the wound, and performing these other services which are necessary there are, however, but slight daughter of the late John Godson, Esq. of Bantry. In Tralee, Mr William D Manning, of Dingle, to Johanna, daughter of Mr James Ashe, Bridge-street, Tralee.

At the Great Chapel, Waterford. Owen Carroll, Esq, jun, to Miss Condon, daughter of the late David Condon, Esq, of that city, merchant.

In St. Mark's Church, Dublin. William Percival Pison, of Tarbert, county Kerry, to Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Benjamin Colman, of D'Olier-street, Dublin.

At St Peter's Church, Dublin. Alexander John Chambers, of Rockville, Vancouver's Island, son of the late Hugh Chambers, of Clontarf, Esq, to Fernanda Margaret, daughter of Captain Haeger de Mamiel, late of the Guard du Corps of Charles the Tenth of France, and niece of Viscount Carlingsford, of Swift's Heath.

At Trim, Henry Drury, 5th Royal Lancashire Regiment, to Mary Vallancey, daughter of Wm Wetherall, Esq, of Lissane Lodge, King's County.

At Monkstown Church, county Dublin. George W. Oldham to Sarah Emily, daughter of Gilbert Cockburn, Esq, of Vesey-place, Kingstown.

DEATHS.

On Friday evening, in Hartstonge-street, to the inexpressible grief of her husband and family, Elizabeth, the beloved wife of Francis Weldon Walsh, Esq, and daughter of the late Sir Christopher Marrett. Her short but severe illness was borne with Christian fortitude, and the fullest trust in the merits of that Divine Saviour, whose faithful servant she had been throughout her exemplary life.

At Altavilla, on the 10th instant, to the inexpressible grief of his wife and children, aged 58, Richard Dickson Daxon, Esq, late of Carradota, in the county Clare. He bore a painful and lingering illness with exemplary patience. His remains were removed for interment in the family vault at Kilowen, on the 13th instant.

At Cavendish-square, London, the Countess of Wicklow.

At Middleton House, county Cork, the Rev Wm Greene, LL.D. Vicar of Tullilase.

At Factory-hill, Cork, Thomas Martin, Esq.

At Day-place, Tralee, Elizabeth Helena, child of Jerome Quill, Esq.

At Nelson-street, Tralee, Mrs Michael Kennedy.

At Gordon-street, Clonmel, Mary, relict of the late Daniel O'Brien, Esq.

At Waterloo Buildings, Dublin, Jane, widow of the Rev S Malcolm Morgan.

At Haddington-road, Dublin, Mrs Teresa Scully.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Eliza, wife of Edw. W Cooper, solicitor.

At Blackrock, county Dublin, Ellen, relict of the Rev John Potterton, formerly Vicar of Lusk, county Dublin.

At Westland-row, Dublin, Prudence, wife of Mr J O'Gorman.

At Ballymullock, near Larne, Elizabeth, wife of William Simpson, Esq, solicitor.

At Carrickfergus, Alice, relict of the late John Legg, Esq.

Isaac, son of Isaac Willan, Esq, Malahide.

In Derry, Isabella, relict of the late Andrew Colhoun, Esq, of Jamaica.

At Longford, James Bridgeman Edgeworth, son of the late Thomas N Edgeworth, Esq, of Kilshtrewly, county Longford.

At Chandos House, Jersey, John Hume, Esq, late of Downs Lodge, county Wicklow.

At Secunderabad, Captain John Canavan, 1st Battalion 18th Royal Irish Regt.

At Barracopore, Capt M'Donald, Paymaster 6th Regt.

At Secunderabad, Clara Frances, wife of Thomas Crawford, Esq, M D, Surgeon 18th Royal Irish Regt.

Suddenly, at Bath, Robert Manners Croft, late of the 1st Royal Dragoons, son of the Archdeacon of Canterbury.

At St. Helier's, Jersey, Frederick Gore, Esq, son of the late William Gore, Esq.

At Portland-place, London, Major John Arthur Moore.

At Bilston, Staffordshire, Wm Taylor, Esq, formerly M.P. for Barnstaple.

At Notting-hill, London, Major-General Wavel.

In London, Louisa, the Dowager Lady St. John, of Bletsoe, and relict of the late Right Hon Mr Justice Vaughan.

At Manchester-square, London, Bernard Van Oven, Esq, M.D.

At Pimlico, John Coote Stirke, Esq, son of the late Colonel Stirke, 12th Regt.

large Coals Figure superiour, and in the Apply to MAJOR July 11

Meadows to MR. BOUCHIE Primest Upland on THURSDAY, the 11th inst. suit Purchasers, July 14

Meadows to MR. WHITE Primest heavy Crop, on MONDAY, the 11th inst. o'Clock, in lots to suit

ALL whom it may concern, in the power to Set or Let the macnevin, for any period July 14

Pale Old AND SOLD TWENTY-SIX

4, GEORGE-STREET JAMES FOREIGN Sample Bottles contain June 16

Pale, Brown TWENTY-SIX The Produce of Spain June 16

4, GEORGE-STREET JAMES WINE

The R FOUR PEN Are quite a New Blend Wheaten Flour, by London.

They are manufactured by a process, which preserves the Freshness for a length of time. Packed in original Bales. Sold only by JAMES F. (Opposite) June 16