

Augustus George, son of the late Capt. Fletcher, 77th Regt.
o Carolina, daughter of John Watson, Esq. Melbourne.

DEATHS.

At Knockaderry house, in this county, on the 25th inst. Thomas D'Arcy, aged 20 years, eldest son of Thomas D'Arcy Evans, Esq. JP.

At Killarney, Maurice Brennan, Esq.

At Blackrock, Mrs. Ryan, widow of the late John Ryan, Esq. Collector of Inland Revenue Manchester.

At Adelaide terrace, Cork. Mr. Robert Allan.

In Nenagh, Mr. William Jones, victualler.

At Queenstown, William, son of J. W. Cox, of Glanworth, county Cork.

At Sandvill, near Castleisland, Lucy, daughter of Mr. John Powell.

In Bolton-street, Mr. James Joseph Moore, aged 17, of Lake Mount, county Monaghan.

At Haddington road, Mrs. G. Halpen, aged 70.

Margaret, wife of Mr. James Bermingham, Francis-street.

William Foster, Esq. Belfast, aged 72.

Capt. John Strick, of the yacht Guitana.

At Inellan, Dunoon, Major J. W. Renny, 19th Regt. Bombay Native Infantry.

In Upper Harley-street, London, Jane, widow of Captain John Surman, late 15th Hussars.

In Shalford-place, the Chevalier de Colquhoun, LL.D., Representative of the Hanseatic Republics, of the Grand Duke of Oldenburg, and Consul General of the King of Saxony, aged 76.

Jane, relict of the late Capt. Mundell, 69th Regt.

At Sussex-square, Brighton, George Reid, Esq. son of the late Sir Thomas Reid, Bart. of Ewell grove, Surrey.

Aged 30. Capt. Charles Thorold, late 34th Foot.

Thomas Morris, Esq. of Green Castle, Carmarthenshire.

Margaret Seymour, widow of Lt-Col. T. H. Elliot, and formerly of Braco castle, Perthshire.

At Foston rectory, near York, the Rev. Wm. Spencer Whitelocke, son of the late General Whitelocke.

At Ponghnill, near Ludlow, Salop. Capt. Langston, aged 87.

At Maidstone, Margueretta, relict of Robert Russell, Esq. of Lloyd's Coffee house, London, aged 82.

Aged 91. Joseph Glover, Esq. of Dalton fields, Yorkshire.

At Coldharbour, Whetstone Mr. Todd, aged 72.

At the Ursuline Convent, Georgetown, Demerara, Mrs Anne O'Brien (in religion Sister Mary Joseph Regis), daughter of Robert O'Brien, Esq. formerly of Brooklodge, co. Waterford.

At Melbourne, after a protracted illness, aged 20 years Mr. Edward W. Jones, third son of the late John Jones, Esq., George street, Limerick—a very intelligent and moral young man.

At Granada, Spain, of cholera, the Rev Henry Watson Barnard, canon residentiary of Wells cathedral, and vicar of St. Cuthbert.

On board the Saldanha, on the Bosphorus of Crimea fever and cholera, Lieut. James Wemyss, 93d Highlanders, only son of Lt-Col. Wemyss, HEICS.

At Smyrna, Mrs. Dumaresque, daughter of the late Michael Legge, Esq.

The Rev Charles Flanagan, PP Montserrat, West Indies.

Once July 25th 1855.

Great Southern Railway

ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S CATTLE

ON WEDNESDAY

and 9th August, Fife Tickets (available for the issued from Dublin, Limerick and Kilkenny, and from
to Carlow and back at six
also on WEDNESDAY

For the convenience of Banquet, Special Trains
leave Carlow at Half-past Dublin and Kilkenny, ca tions ; and

On THURSDAY

For the convenience of
a special Train (First and Kildare for Carlow on arrival from Dublin, and the 3 p.m.
will return from Carlow
day Morning, to meet the

(By Order), W

King's Bridge Terminus

SCARIE

NOTICE TO BUILDERS

THE Board of Guardians
on WEDNESDAY, the 25th
of, by PUBLIC AUCTION
known as the "Centre Shed"
which lies between the Shed. They will be put Feet.

Sale to commence at 11 o'clock
The time of having the Workhouse Premises to
The Sheds can be seen at house.

(By order of)

Board-room, July 20.