his week for damages, of for plaintiff 401. with barrister, but not practical.

It the unrivalled manufaction of the unrivalled manufaction of the successfully for rried on successfully for atterson, Esq. and which to many persons in and dued by his family.

ecreased 17 minutes.

nn's Fever Hospital, for 1854 :— April, '54 41

218—259 242 3 5 5 1—259 July, '54 53

GERBKER, Physicians.

Deen directed to a para-

9-259

last post but one, with resions between myself and in which it has been set at I am as respectably unty as he; and that my at least equal to his. yself, considering what h saying so little.

dient servant, RICK DONNELLY.

art of last impression.)

ed a Representative Peer said it was the intention the whole or part of the difference between emabodying meant keeping e year. If the number of the training would take ere would be a sufficient Tuesday, at St. Peter's Church, Dublin, William Carte, Esq., Assistant Surgeon to the Forces, to Mary Eleanor Josephine, third daughter of James F Carroll, of that city, solicitor. Captain Sinclair, son of Lord Sinclair, to Anne, daughter of Sir John Pringle, Bart.

At Penetanguishene. Canada West, Thomas Hodgetts, Esq.,

eldest son of Captain Hodgetts. Staff Officer of Pensioners, to Amelia. daughter of John Shea, Esq., Inland Revenue, Drogheda.

to prise the transport DEATHS.

Yesterday morning, at his residence. Castle Trov. of favor. to the profound grief of his wife and children. Joseph Matterson, Esq. P ovision merchant, the most enterprising and successful of our commercial citizens, especially in the manufacture of Limerick Hams, whose name is celebrated all over the empire. His remains will be interred in Kilmurry church to morrow morning at 8 o'clock.

At Newborough house, near Adare, on the 6th inst. the residence of her sister, Mrs. Wilson, Sarah, fourth daughter of the late Benjamin Unthank, Esq. of this city.

At her residence, Ganville. Rathgar, Isabella the beloved wife of Maxwell M Master, Esq. of Dublin, and mother of Mrs. Duffield, of this city.

At Riverdale, county Westmeath, William Thomas Briscoe, Esq. J.P.
At Ballymena, Capt. E. S. Flinter, first class County Inspector of Constabulary.

At Ballydavid, consta Tipnerary, after a long illness, Judiki, the beloved wife of Patrick Murphy, Esq.

At Prince's quay, Trales, Agnes, daughter of Robert Macin-tosh, Esq. Bank of Ireland

At Ballyroe, Cashel, Helena, sister of D. F. O'Leary, Esq. At Ballina, Mayo Mr. James Gardiner.

In Trales, Elizabeth, wife of Pat Stack, Esq. solicitor.

At Clara, the Rev. Michael Phelan, P.P. Pitt, co. Kilkenny.

At Monkstown, Mary, wife of Robert Geoghegan, Esq. At Summerhill, near Dublin, Dr. Duke.

At Cleveden. Somersetshire aged 80, Elizabeth, relict of the late William Harris, Esq. of Bennett's-bridge, co. Kilkenny.

At the house of his brother, William Monkton, Esq. General Henry Monkton, of Stretton-hall, Staffordshire, aged 74.

In London, Daniel Spillan, M.D. translator of Andral's "Clinique Medicale."

At Hart-street, Bloomsbury-square, Julia, relict of Michael Sweeny, Esq. M.D. Deputy Inspector General of Hospitals.

Louisa Frances, eldest daughter of Thomas Hankey, Esq. of Fenchurch-street. At the Manor-road, Upper Holloway, George Waller, Esq.

late of Finsbury-circus, aged 77.

Jacob Waller Smith. Esq. R. N. of Kirkley, near Lowestoft.

At Burton terrace, near York, Henry Thompson, Esq. aged 81. Major Parkes. Esq. of Pontypool, aged 79.

At Wardie, Edinburgh, Elizabeth Knowles, wife of W. Pitcairn Knowles, Esq. of Rotterdam.

At Hamilton, James Cairns, Esq. late provision merchant, Glasgow.

At Rome, Patrick Chalmers, Esq. of Oldbar and Kintrochat, Forfarshire, N.B.

At Cambridge, Massachusetts, Chief Justice Wells, and at Washington, Judge Merrick.
On his passage from Barbadoes, D. A. Commissary General

Patrick Nagle Telier.

At a very advanced age, at the residence of his son, Greagh Rectory, county Cork, the Rev. Hans Caulfield, Prebendary of Kilmanagh, diocese of Ossory, a benefice which he had held for 53 years.

Aged 79 years, at the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham, Captain James Hay, Providere of the institution, and formerly of the 7th Fusileers.

At her sister's. Lower Gardiner-street, Miss Francis Irwin, eld st daughter of the late Edward Irwin, Esq., of Cumminstown, county Westmeath.

At Yealand Convers, Loncashire, the Rev John DeaneFreeman, A.M., Incumbent of that parish, son of the late Edward Deane Freeman, formerly of Castle Cor, county of Cork, Esq.

Electora Division of Electoral Division of Electoral Division

Electoral Division

Electoral Division o

Electoral Division o

Electoral Division o

Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of Electoral Division of

diami dista

Electoral Division of Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of

Electoral Division of in

Electoral Division of

The Ratebooks are a Ratepayer at my Office will be there open for hours of 10 o'clock in the Afternoon, during the date hereof, exclusing the date hereof, exclusing the date this 5th day

July 9.