

DEATHS.

This morning, at her residence, Henry-street, after a short illness, Susan, relict of the late Rev. Godfrey Massy, Vicar of Bruff, and Secretary to the Limerick Protestant Orphan Society. Mrs. Massy buried a beloved daughter a few weeks since, and a son also since her lamented husband's death; and four children have now to mourn the death of both parents in little more than one year.

Sunday last, at Castle Troy, after a lingering illness, aged 20 years, Anne, eldest daughter of the late Joseph Matterson, Esq. of this city, having survived her beloved father only a fortnight.

Last night, at his house in Nelson-street, to the inexpressible grief of his family, Alexander Trousdell, Esq.—an affectionate husband and parent, a most upright citizen, exemplary in all religious and moral duties.

At Booterstown near Dublin, Mr. Thomas Byrnes, late of Cecil-street, in this city, retired corn merchant.

In Borrisokane, Charlotte widow of the late Robert Paok, M.D. of Carrickmacross, and daughter of the late Rev. Pierce Gould, of Finnea, county Tipperary.

At Leamington, Warwickshire, Maria, daughter of the late Thomas Arthur, Esq. of Glenomera, county Clare, aged 42.

In Mullingar, John Edward Butler, Esq. C.E. aged 30, second son of James Butler, Esq. D.L. Waterville, co. Kerry.

In Kingstown, Mary Warren, daughter of the late Henry B. Warren Darley, of Kildare-street.

Edward Watson, Esq. of Laskan county Wexford, son of the late Col. Jones Watson, 65th Regt. who fell a sacrifice to civil war on the hills of Wexford, 1798.

At his father's house, St. Francis's Abbey, on Saturday last, Mr. James Ahern.

At Queen-street, Mr. Michael Flanagan.

At her residence, South Lodge, at an advanced age, Mrs. Coghlan, relict of the late David Coghlan, Esq.

In Main-street, Clonmel, Mr. Edward Moore.

At Glen Mills, Anne, daughter of the late John Power.

Ann, relict of the late Mr. George Gamble, of Waterford.

At the residence of her father, Bagwell-street, Clonmel, Isabella, daughter of Mr. Thomas Clarke.

At Frybrook, Boyle, Henry Fry, Esq.

At Heytesbury-terrace, Miss Adair, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Robert Adair, Esq. of Mount Vernon, co. Antrim.

Drowned at the Rock, while bathing, Thomas, eldest son of the late Peter Rutledge, of Rockford cottage, Blackrock.

Rose, wife of Edmond B. Lawless, Esq. Upper Temple-st.

At Park-gate, Chester, Frances Law, relict of the late Alexander Law, Esq. of Mountjoy-square, Dublin.

At Eaton-square, Catherine, eldest daughter of Sir Edmund Filmer, Bart. M.P. aged 21.

At Baywater, Charles Barclay Hanbury, Esq. aged 66.

At Watford, Herts, John Westlake, Esq. late of H.M.'s Customs, aged 93.

In Castle Mull, Isle of Sky, Capt. John Strachan of the Ythan, Montrose.

In Duke-street, St. James's, John Callendar, Esq. late Surgeon 7th Hussars.

At Beechwood villa, near Selkirk, James Murray, Esq. of Philiphaugh, aged 87.

Thomas Meynell, Esq. of Kilvington hall, and The Fryerage, Farm, Yorkshire, aged 80.

Thomas Allan, Esq. banker, Edinburgh.

At Gatecombe Isle of Wight, aged 20, Charles Thomas Gilbert, son of Major Caldecot, of Holton hall, Lincolnshire.

At Baden-Baden, James Walthall Hammond, Esq. of Wistaston hall, Chester.

In Ostend, Thos. Meyrick Feild, Esq. late of the War-office.

At the Falls, West Maitland, Mr. Thomas Ledsam, aged 73, formerly a native of Fermoy county Cork.

Mr. Patrick Whelan, Steward of the Marine and Emigrant Hospital at Quebec.

In Quebec, Mr. Jeremiah Crawley, late of Tralee.

On board the ship Marlborough, aged 21, Henry, second son of the Rev. H. W. W. Liddiard, of Dublin.

At Penrith, N. S. Wales, the Rev. John Vincent, eldest son of Richard Vincent, late Veterinary Surgeon of the Bunniskillen Dragoons, and son-in-law of the late Wm. Hughes, Esq. Cork.

At Wellington, New Zealand, Peter Wolfe, Esq. formerly Captain 65th Regt.

At Liria, county Cork, Mrs. Sophia Ellard, relict of the late Philip Oliver Ellard, Esq. in the 87th year of her age.

At Waterford, of typhus fever, Thomas Parsons, Esq.

At Rylands, county Wexford, Augustine Pentland, Esq.

At the County gaol, where he had been an efficient turnkey for 20 years, Mr. John Quinlan, aged 74 years.

At Mountpleasant-avenue, Rathmines, Thomas Wilson Levv, Esq. for many years of the Chancery Registry-office.

At Scarborough, Phillis Sophia, relict of Lieut.-General Middlemore.

At Lisbon, Richard Hyland, Esq. of Monastereven.

At West Cliff-terrace, Ramsgate, Captain Edward Hodges, E.I.C.S.

Subscriptions per Unstamped, 4s 4d; plement containing

Pere
BY POSITIVE
At No. 6.
ON THURSDAY
niture, Windows
and Rugs; Plated
and Steels; Stair
Timepieces, Patent
White and Gold mo
and Desert ware;
and stands; Feather
Mattresses; Blanket
and plain Grates, K
try and Kitchen ut
Sa

July 22.
PEREM
Perfectly U
A T No. 6, Rut
the 27th Inst
Hangings and Blind
Rugs, Plated Ware,
Steels, Stair Carpet
pieces, Patent Oil
White and Gold Mo
and Desert Ware, T
Stands, Feather B
Mattresses, Blanket
and Plain Grates, F
Kitchen and Pantry

TAKES leave to peremptory in reserved Auction, a street, the following
viz. 18 Baloon Cha
Hair Cloth; 12 do.
in Leather; 1 Crow
and Hair Seated A mask; 2 do. in Chi Loungers; set of P
of Plain do. Cylind
Plain do. Glass Ca
splendid enclosed S
50 x 40; 2 pair of
Plain do. Lounger
Cabinet Breakfast
and Writing do.; C
sells and Kilde
Bronze and I
Patent Candle and Stand, White and
Dinner and Dessert
Stands, Salvers, S
Engravings, Tea U
man, French and I
Palliasses, Feather
Mattresses, Blank
gany, Hardwood, a
Tables, Basin Stan
Racks, Chests of Chairs, Pantry and Sale

July 21.