DEATHS.

On Saturday last, in Upper Gtsworth-street, aged 12 years and a half, Elizabeth, eldest daughter of G. W. Dodd, Esq., late of this City. This dear child exhibited throughout her illness a perfect acquiescence to the Divine will, and strongly proved her attachment to that blessed Redeemer, who had loved her, and washed her in his own blood, and clothed her in his own righteousness, so that her spirit with all of these glorious truths to her heart was expressed by her daily remarks, and even cheerfulness under suffering—her eyes always brightened on the scenes that so much instructed her in the ways of God. Thus ended the short career of one highly favoured. May she speak to the young by her early removal from time to eternity!

At Clifton, of fever, Dr. Evans, son of Captain Evans, of Galway, Sarah, the beloved wife of Joshua Abell, of Eustace-street, Dublin, in her 27th year.
John Johnson, Esq., of Peasfield, Cork.
