

Douglas, on quitting Corfu under a guard of honor of the of the harbour by 18 officers general Berkeley at the helm. eers, M. P. is on the Meath the only remaining of the the 5th Dragoon Guards h 20 years, when the present n Prince Leopold of Saxe her Majesty, was Colonel of a then had eight troops. en at Banagher, on the body oot, in charge of the battery, nder temporary derangement self, by placing the muzzle of s mouth, and discharging the instantaneous death. th Fusileers was executed at nce, and the whole garrison id Hammond and John Gal- of robbing Lieut. Costobadie, Hammond was servant. The on board an emigrant ship rd. military pensioner at Is. 4d. t Gloucester Assizes, to be der and robbery of William street had nigh fallen a pray week, by the heating of a which the family at locking nd the smell of fire was so at, that the lady of the house who found the rere of the shop the floor burnt. With prompt ation was happily extinguished. and formidable enemy, which a at all times to evade. Treasury, and family are at s appointed Surveyor of the om of Mr. Forrest. pigeons, stolen from Mr. Hodges ay night, were this day found f one of St. Mary's Parish eant Riedy, and identified by Harold's-cross, a monument is ate the labours of the late Rev. n the following inscription:— orted this life, May 14, 1839, in ge. He was a zealous, laborious, ster of the Gospel of Our Lord ut the United Kingdom; and century he was ceaselessly s work, in Ireland especially, in fairs and markets, regardless of of danger, uninfluenced by the are prudent in their own sight, on men to repent and believe

At Prestbury, the Rev. William Brewster, R.N. Newchurch in Rossendale, Lancashire, to Elizabeth Dickinson, daughter of Thomas Itchnor Watts, Esq. of Macclesfield.

DEATHS.

In William-street, Mr. James Lyons, formerly of the highly respectable commercial firm of Denis Lyons, & Co. of this city.
 At Tralee, John H. Blennerhassett, Esq.
 In Tuam, suddenly, Mrs. Blake Dowling, widow of the late Walter Blake Dowling, Esq. Carraroe.
 At Listrim, Tralee, Mr. Henry Oliver.
 At her father's residence, near Kanturk, Barbara, wife of Mr. Robert Walpole, of Tralee.
 At Lisduff, in the prime of life, John Smith, Esq.
 Mr. James Devine, Sub-constable, Corbally.
 John, eldest son of the Rev. John Nelson, Wesleyan Minister, Sligo.
 At Manorhamilton, Susan, wife of Surgeon Dundass, R.N.
 At Amien-street, Lorenzo Nickson, Esq. formerly Captain of the 1st West India Regiment.
 At Monkstown, aged 13 years, John Doherty, eldest son of James Johnston, late of Rutland-square, Esq.
 Bessy, wife of Gustavus Barton, Esq. and daughter of Peter Blake, Esq. Corbally, county Galway.
 At Lettermore, Kilkern, C. G. Station, Lieut. John Hackney, R.N. Chief Officer Coast Guard.
 At Rathmines, Thomas Hunt, Esq. of Lower Gardiner-street.
 At Merrion Avenue, Mrs. Crosthwaite, wife of the Rev. John Crosthwaite, whom she survived but six months.
 Mr. Henry Cuddy, teacher of Carnew National School, aged 21.
 At her son's house, Miller-street on the 8th inst. Mrs. Catherine Miller, wife of Capt. Macarthur, Slatefield.
 In Holles-street, Cavendish-square, Louisa Maria, daughter of Colonel Battine, C.B.
 At Florence, Mrs. Ann Hart.
 At Malvern-Wells, Frances, relict of the late Robert Jenner, Esq. of Wenvoe Castle, Glamorganshire.
 At Southampton, Mr. John Drew, brewer and spirit merchant.
 At Newcastle, Mrs. Mary Wilkinson, half a century a respected member of the Wesleyan Society.
 Louisa Henrietta, daughter of the Rev. William Stamer, Rector of St. Saviour's, Bath.
 At Petersham, the Hon. Keith Elphinstone, daughter of John, Lord Elphinstone, and wife of David Erskine, Esq. Cerdross.
 At Stonehouse, Capt. James Andrew Worth, R.N.
 At the Strand, Mr. Porteus, of the Liverpool theatre, an excellent representative of Irish and Scotch characters.
 In Grosvenor-place, Camberwell, Lieut.-Col. Alexander Bryce. Clifford King, Esq. late Major of the South Lincoln Militia.
 In Stonehouse, Fanny, daughter of Major Hill, 32d Regt.
 Mr. John Foster, watchmaker, Williamson-square, Liverpool.
 At Woodside Terrace, Glasgow, Robert W. M. Christie, son of James Christie, Esq.
 Suddenly, at Dalmarnock Road, Mrs. Neill Blair.
 At sea, Samuel, son of the late Samuel Livingston, Esq. merchant, Greenock.
 At Barbadoes, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Mallowny.
 At Toronto, Upper Canada, James Young, Esq. of the West Suffolk Militia, and late 3d Scots Fusileer Guards.
 At Jamaica, Assistant-Surgeon Daniels, Apollo troop ship.
 At Montreal, Susan, widow of Captain Alpin Grant, 42d Highlanders.
 At St. Ann's, Jamaica, John Camac, Esq. formerly of Ballymoney, county Antrim.
 At the Cape, on his return from India, George E. Campion, Cornet 4th Light Dragoons.
 At Bermuda, of an intermittent fever, Francis Seymour Nott, First Lieut. H.M.S. Racehorse, and eldest son of the late Capt. F. J. Nott, R.N.
 At Barbadoes, Dr. John Cane, 1st West India Regt.
 At Gibraltar, Lucy Mary, only child of George Ferris, Esq. R.A.
 In Dublin, Major John Bernard, late of her Majesty's 84th Regiment, and son to the late Captain Bernard, of Cork.
 At Dungannon, William Donville Stanley Monck, Esq. Barrister-at-law, aged 78 years, brother of the late Lord Viscount Monck.
 At Lismore, Thomas, eldest son of Richard Parks, Esq.
 At Moatfield, near Bray, Martin Brownly Rutherford, Esq. of Merrion-square.
 Robert Daniell, Esq. of Newforest, county Westmeath.
 At Clonaslee, Thomas Vicary, Esq.
 At Iffley, Oxford, in her 78th year, Rosamira, relict of the late William Nowell, Esq. Vice-Admiral of the Blue.

of Irish labourers. months in the year. Why is not this ag them employment England periodical hard-working, pat. Simply because no species of industry population. Either and multiply," mu employment must increasing number of Ireland could agriculture, do you would be sufficient has perhaps a nu daily toil? If you becomes a duty im obligations, to aid of employment as quate remuneration however, reluctant the experience w Board, we have pa weak hopes of you couragement of do prosperity of the count for the apat been for the mos benevolence of so that which would lation of other co be that anti-nation in the public mir cult to sacrifice h humanity. We since so fatal to the bes every attempt at re of suffering that is people. We shou and energies to th in which we have We should still be of some—to meet bear, if need be, t the slightest exp characterises the m the voice of duty result, or rather v distant, we are Body, and thereb exertions on beha est claims on our ourselves, howev watch the interes exertions the m lature, or change more certain pros (Sign

Limerick, 11th