

coming by land from beholding her family, to the dangers of the new with her family was affecting in the town parted with its logne.

On their arrival, to the about an hour; they felt warmth. An incident, upon the truth of some Coates, once so world of London, occupants at the Hotel du politely surrendered to As the King ascended red Mr. Coates with a e latter answered by à la France et l'Angle- par toujours!" The tunity, and replied to what better than that eternal prosperity to peace between them; I live, you shall have at the Newport Teeto- to the Race Course at in a very large body, ds tipped with green. e recent investigation when the Magistrates account of a similar ct we may not with- r the friends of Tempe- outset sincere admirers at principle, so essen- and national prosperity h many advocates of ate as injurious to the g men in large masses, nem from a distance in d as we believe in the nconvenience to them- t to this movement or not only to the spirit the express letter of naturally creates alarm regarded with jealousy well-minded persons.— o more such demon- cause will be suffered ry parade, or artificial advantage of any acci- deplore it.

w presided at a grand Society in Cork, on that since he had last ers had been added to present available means to expose the mischievous correspondent who forwarded the communication, and who must have known he was penning a falsehood.]

DEATHS.

Monday, at Lower Cecil-street, at the age of 95, Barbara, widow of the late John Staunton, Esq. of this City. She has left considerable bequests in charity.

At her father's residence in Killarney, Jane, second daughter of John Murphy, Esq. and niece to Christopher Galway, Esq.

At her sister's residence, Blackrock-road, Cork, Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Seymour, Esq.

At the Cottage, Youghal, the residence of her brother-in-law, James Wallis, Esq. Mrs. Mary George Wallis, daughter of the late Captain William Dorman, of Harbour Hill, near Kinsale.

In Cork, Ellen, relict of Mr. Jerry O'Brien, of Innoshannon.

At Lisburn, Joseph Caldbeck, Esq. Under-Sheriff of the County Down, second son of William Caldbeck, Esq. of Lisburn.

At Oranmore, Frances, daughter of Mr. R. A. Rowan, H. C.

Lewis Gibson, Esq. of Kilboy, county Cork.

At Castlemartyr, John Lewis, son of Mr. Henry Kenah.

At Monkstown, Mr. Joseph Stevenson, of the Bank of Ireland.

At Upper Buckingham-street, Brabazon Stafford, Esq. in the 82d year of his age.

In the 80th year of her age, Mrs. Leland, relict of John Leland, Esq. of Drogheda.

At Drumshallon, county Louth, Gorges Henzill, Esq.

At Fairy-hill, Tipperary, Thomas, the only and beloved son of John Smithwick, Esq.

At Bræ-head House, Margaret, wife of the Rev. James Crawford, of Derry.

James Hunter, Esq. of North Queen-street, Belfast.

In Sligo, Mr. Thomas M'Kee.

At Dungannon, the Rev. Thomas Murray, many years Curate of the parish of Ballygawley, county Tyrone.

At Cabra, John Brophy, Esq. salesmaster, of Smithfield.

Anne, wife of Mr. Thomas Ellis, Castlebar.

In Creighton-street, Mr. John O'Farrell.

At Portliff, Cavan, Mary, daughter of the late Arthur Monypenny, Esq.

At Carrick-on-Suir, Mrs. Quinlan, relict of R. Quinlan, Esq.

At Clonasslee, Queen's County, the Rev. Michael Graham, P. P.

At Strabane, Mr. Robert M'Carter.

At Letterkenny, in the 82d year of her age, Catherine, relict of the late James Gallagher, Esq. of Swilly View.

At Bundoran, Mrs. Pressly, relict of the late Mr. Pressly, of Wattlebridge, county of Cavan.

In Merrion-row, Anne, relict of the late Thomas Heron, Esq. of Callan, county Kildare.

At Broadstairs, the Right Rev. William Otter, D. D. Bishop of Chichester, in the 72d year of his age.

At Hastings, aged 17 years, Lucy, eldest daughter of Donough O'Brien, Esq. and niece of the late Sir Edward O'Brien, Bart. of Dromoland, county Clare.

At the Blackrock, Dublin, James Knight, Esq.

The Rev. Dr. M'Gill, Professor of Divinity in the University of Glasgow, aged 75 years.

Of fever, Dr. Armour, of Stranraer, N.B.

At St. Kitts, William Gordon, Esq. Stipendiary Magistrate.

Awfully sudden, Captain Wm. White, many years in the employ of the City of Dublin Steam-packet Company.

Accidentally drowned, at Trinidad, Mr. Andrew Drinan, aged 19 years, only son of John Drinan, Esq. of Killarney.

At the Bell and Anchor Tavern, Hammersmith, Captain John Edward Johnson, late a Commander in the East India Company's Maritime Service.

At Stonehouse, aged 71, Major Andrew Kinsman, Paymaster to the Royal Marines, Plymouth.

At Park-crescent, Portland-place, the Hon. Lady Edmonstone, wife of Charles Woodcock, Esq.

In Weymouth-street, Jane, widow of the late Colonel Douglas, of the East India Company's Service.

At Tonbridge Wells, in the 97th year of her age, Mrs. Fanny Ross.

In Gloucester-street, Portman-square, Duncan Campbell, Esq. of Inverniel and Ross, Argyleshire.

In Newington-place, Kennington, Jane, relict of the late Joshua Rowland, Esq.

Wrecked, off Bombay, in the ship Lord William Bentinck, Beauchamp Villiers, fourth son of George W. V. Villiers, Esq. of Bath, and of Tours, in France,

THE INGENIOUS
MECHANICAL WORKS
A FINE MODEL OF GRINDER, generally all perfect pieces of mechan
AN EXCELLENT FA
DARLING AND HER F
THE WRECK OF THE
picture of life, and conveys representation of a steam-
A SPLENDID MOVING
SCOTT, AS LARGE AS ONE HUNDRED AND
considered one of the best ever executed.

THE BEST A
THE GREAT
THE MOST EXTENS
NOVE

Is always to be Civet Cat an

THE SUCCESS
Which have attend

S M I
Patent Scre

ON BOARD THE
HAVE induced the DE
SCREW PROPEL
under Act of Parliament
15, FISH-STREET HILL Boat Proprietors may be mation by applying ether
Capt. CHAPPELL, R.N. w
the particulars relative to Propellers into into Vess Paddle Wheels, as well as and acceleration of speed
this new propulsive princ
yet completed.

Yacht Owners, Canal
structors, or Fitters, of A Letters of Marque, Priv which purposes the Scre applicable, may receive a applying as above, or to ei
post Agents, as follows:—

Christopher Claxton,
Ship Office, Bristol
William Laird, Esq. Da
James Olham, Esq. Civ
Captain Baswall, R. N.
R. B. Grantham, Esq.
near Gloucester.

Mr. Hothum, 4, Rye F
Mr. Carl Kentgen, Bre
H. F. Mathyssens, An

ARCHIBA
Limerick, August 26.