

as protection.
ose of embar-
on any rights,
be strictly con-tant Episcopal
he alterations
he concerns of our petitioners uction; and if unequal as to e them applied ciency, seeking more powerful ministers of the lutary arrangellected without adverse party,
may be restored
inions.
t more especially al church to the cannot, at the proceeding as the e, would weaken te an universal
dity of every act
most earnestly
at the suppres-
dred and sixty parts of conso-
ed arbitrarily to e purpose, as it
of the numerical
ishes thus sepa-
e of partial calcuent, and is equally n which dissent
inciple in Ireland
otestant parishes
stances in which
n united benefice, almost exclusively
e time fail to be ligious point of s of the church
em, as leading to nd as holding out spectfully submit vindication of this st that the Roman
spiritual services,
ounded on palpable
a Catholic pays for g the demands for youngest daughter of John Corrigan, Esq. of Thomas-street, Dublin.

Edward Fitzgerald, Esq. of Spring-mount, in this County, solicitor, to Maria, eldest daughter of James Kearney, Esq. of this City.
At Castlebar church, Sergeant Major Browne, 1st Royals, to Miss Barlow, eldest daughter of Mr. Barlow.
At Douglas church, Cork, William, eldest son of Wm. Woodroffe, of Stephen's Green, Dublin, Esq. to Olnera Maria, eldest daughter of John Woodroffe, of the South Mall, Cork, Esq. M.D.
At Balleagh church, James Colquhoun Kemp, Esq. son of David Kemp, Esq. of Mount-Pleasant, Fife-shire, and grandson of the late Sir James Colquhoun, Bart. of Lees, to Esther, widow of Robert Newman, Esq. of Dublin, and daughter of William Moody, Esq. of Roe-house, Newtown-Limavady.
At St. Mary's, Marylebone, the Hon. Captain East, R.N. son of Lord Wynford, to the Hon. Marianne Kenyon, only daughter of Lord Kenyon.
At Grantham, George Blake, Esq. of Upper Norton-street, Portland-place, to Mary Ann, daughter of Peter King, Esq. of Leicester.
At Thursley, John Leech, Esq. of Lea, late Member for West Surrey, to Mary, only daughter of the late John Knowles, Esq. of Heath Hall, Surrey.
At Largs, Captain James Blair, of Greenock, to Mrs. Fleming.
At the Palace Chapel, Malta, by the Rev. J. T. H. Le Mesurier, M.A. Chaplain to the Forces, Captain Gilbert Champain, 5th Regiment, to Harriet Isabella Adelaide;—and, Thomas Eyre, Esq. also of the 5th, to Agnes Charlotte, both daughters of Paymaster Pennington, of the same Regiment.
At Lachine, Canada. Mr. D. Buchanan, half-pay, 90th Regiment, to Agnes, youngest daughter of Mr. D. Nelson.

DEATHS.

On Wednesday last, at Cove, Mrs. Ellen Mason, wife of Walker Jackson Mason, Esq. of this City,—a Lady sincere and affectionate in all her relative duties, and deeply regretted by her family and friends.
Alicia, daughter of Richard O'Shaughnessy, Esq. of Friarstown, in this County.
Sarah Jameson, wife of the late William Bellchere, Captain and Paymaster of the Royal Meath Militia, and daughter to the late Edward Jameson, Esq. of Cork.
At Wellington-square, Cork, Anne, daughter of Rd. Rawlins, Esq.
In Killarney, John Kearney, Esq.
Miss Whitty, daughter of the late Nicholas Whitty, Esq. of Wexford.
In George's-street, Cork, after giving birth to a still-born child, Ellen, wife of Mr. William Oakshott.
At Buxton, Thomas Dunbar, Esq. of Cork, merchant.
Elizabeth, the infant daughter of Reuben Harvey, Esq. of Cork.
Mr. Michael Butler, of Ennis.
Patrick Power, Esq. of Bellvue, M.P. for the County Waterford, of a severe bilious attack induced by unremitting attention to his Parliamentary duties.
In Clonmel, Mr. Michael Bourke, master-tailor.
In Dublin, Mr. William Glanville, lately of Waterford.
At a very advanced age, Joseph Shekelton, Esq. of Walterstown, county Louth.
At Ballyconnell House, county Donegal, aged 10 years, Marcus, youngest son of the Rev. John Olphert, Rector of Newtownlimavady, county Londonderry.
Suddenly, aged 18 years, Anne, eldest daughter of the Rev.
Thomas Birney, Rector of the parish of Aughavea.
Lady Georgina North, daughter of the Countess of Guildford.
In Woburn-square, London, Evan Jones Cruchley, Esq. Lieut. R.N.
At Brighton, Marianne, widow of the late Rev. Sir C. Musgrave, Bart. of Eden Hall, Cumberland.
James Gibson, Esq. M.D. of Heathfield, Handsworth.
At Ray Lodge, near Maidenhead Bridge, Berks, Isaac Pocock, Esq.
At Little Missenden, Bucks, in her 81st year, Mrs. Cleaver, widow of the late Bishop of St. Asaph.
At Brislington House, near Bristol, Edward Long Fox, M.D. aged 74.
At Greenock, Mr. Robert Hutton, sen. of the Excise.
At Boulogne, Daniel Donovan, Esq. late of Midleton, Cork, aged 80.
Charlotte, wife of Dr. O'Callaghan, Editor of the Montreal Vindicator,—and Edmund, his infant son.

44 se
MERTON
and will date. It consi
folding doors,
Kitchen, Lard
Carpets, Beddi
every accomm residence, and and potatoes a
A well-encl
with other offic and there is a If required t
immediately ad
Application
Office, Francis

25 E
AN English
A wishes an respectable re
comprises a co in pencil, Cha
the first two c &c. Her obj active duties cultivation, b affectionate as November, b (post-paid) a

26
WANTED
instru branches of F
of an only ch
engaging, co
her pupil, as
and genteel ences will be Letters (p
Post Office,

27 to be WELL
ADWEL Family,) an
the rere of t
These Pre
that could be are capable a trifling exp along one of Applicati