

ing the different ally does before expect to be reral Cole has reus. The army e than 6000 men f it is my fate to I shall apply for very convenient —, from which e from England, he seat of his face.

cil of Ireland, i.

ament of Ireland,
's reign, entitled, appointment of of preparing or addresses to his acted, 'That all odies of persons, ituted or appoint-reising a right or of this realm, or ople of the same, ty, city, town, or under pretence of ner procuring an y law in church or citizens, and bur-ment thereof, and ocation duly sum-lawful assemblies;
ul for any mayor, r peace officer, and rised and required, risdictions, to disand if resisted, to end all persons of-is further enacted, ublish, or cause to or other notice of anner of appointe the representative egates, of the inha-e inhabitants of any ther district within y; or if any person ion or appointment, act in the choice or ives or delegates or ry person who shall ces respectively, berse of law, shall be eanour, mbly of persons held day of July instant, g of the catholics of gst others were enablished of the tenor of catholics be there-cause proper petirepeal of the penal hereto in all parts of bringing such petiion of the legislature ing sessions of Par-tee do consist of the ns, the catholic baro-hurch in Ireland, and the catholics in each the delegates of 1793 that number, and also y the catholic inhabient of the said persons nended to such comstitutional means ication of sentiment ongst the catholics of expressed their sentiments upon the important occasion.—The resolutions agreed to are as follows :

At a special meeting of the general committee of the catholics of Ireland, held in Dublin, at 4, Capel-st. on Wednesday the 31st July, 1811.

The Earl of Fingall in the chair.

Resolved.—That the catholic committee, having adjourned on the 25th July, to the 19th of October, 1811, have, notwithstanding deemed it expedient, to hold an extraordinary meeting on the 31st day of July, in consequence of a communication from Government to the Earl of Fingall, dated the 20th instant, to the following effect:—"That a privy council was to be assembled to take into consideration the expediency of issuing a proclamation declaratory of the law," &c. &c.
"and likewise the course to be pursued to insure its observance."

Resolved.—That this committee relying on the constitutional right of the subject to petition the legislature, in the way and manner specified in a resolution to that effect, passed at the last aggregate meeting of their body, do now determine to continue and persevere in the constitutional course they have maturely adopted, for the sole, express, and specific purpose, of preparing a petition, or petitions to Parliament, for their full participation of the rights of the constitution; and, that in so doing, they not only, in their opinion, do not violate, but act in strict conformity with its soundest principles.

Resolved.—That this committee will never meet under pretence of preparing or presenting petitions, but, for the strict and sole purpose of preparing and causing to be presented a petition or petitions.

Resolved.—That the right of petitioning, secured by the bill of right, is recognized by the 4th and last clause of the convention act, in the words following:—

"Provided also, that nothing herein contained, shall be construed in any manner to prevent or impede the undoubted right of his Majesty's subjects of this realm to petition his Majesty, or both Houses, or either House of Parliament, for redress of any public or private grievance."

Resolved.—That the resolutions of the late aggregate meeting of the catholics of Ireland, holden on the 9th of July, having appeared this day in an imperfect state, in a proclamation from government, we feel it expedient to republish them, viz:—

"Resolved.—That being impressed with an unalterable conviction of its being the undoubted right of every man to worship his Creator according to the genuine dictates of his own conscience, we deem it our duty publicly and solemnly to declare our decided opinion and principle, that no government can, with justice inflict any pains, penalty, or privation, upon any man, for professing that form of christian faith which he in his conscience believes.

"Resolved.—That we, therefore, shall persevere in petitioning the legislature for a total and unqualified repeal of the penal laws which aggrieve and degrade the catholics of Ireland.

"Resolved.—That in exercising this undoubted right of petitioning, we shall continue to adhere to the ancient principles of the constitution, and to conform also to the peculiar restrictions which by modern statutes, are imposed on the people of Ireland.

"Resolved.—That a committee of catholics be therefore appointed, and requested to cause proper petitions to be forthwith framed, for the repeal of the penal laws, and to procure signatures thereto in all parts of Ireland, and to take measures for bringing such petitions under the serious consideration of the legislature, within the first month of the ensuing sessions of Parliament.

"Resolved.—That said committee do consist of the catholic peers, and their eldest sons; the catholic baronets; the prelates of the catholic church in Ireland; and also, of ten persons, to be appointed by the catholics, in each county in Ireland; the survivors of the delegates of 1793, to constitute an integral part of that number; and also of five persons, to be appointed by the catholic inhabitants of each parish in Dublin.

"Resolved, That it be recommended to such a committee to resort to all legal and constitutional means of maintaining a cordial communication of sentiment & co-operation of conduct among the catholics of Ireland; and, generally, of promising the favorable reception of our petition.

"Resolved, That the appointment of the said persons be made forthwith.

We are very sorry to mention, that on Friday, between the hours of two and three o'clock, as dinner was preparing, the kitchen chimney of the house of Driorcong, (occupied by Thomas Irwin, Esq.) took fire, the sparks from which falling on the roof, instantly set it in flames; and notwithstanding every exertion to prevent the fire's spreading, the entire house was consumed to ashes. It is a consolation, however, that the furniture, &c. was saved, and no person hurt.— Connaught Journal.

BIRTH.—On Wednesday last, at the castle, Kilkenny, the lady of William Skelton, Esq. of a son.—On Sunday the 25th inst. at Elm Vile, near Clonmel, the Hon-Mrs. Harvey, of a son.

MARRIED.—By the Right Rev. Dr. Moylan on the 29th inst. at Douglas Farm, near Cork, the seat of D.
Moylan, Esq. Robert Honan, Esq. merchant of that city, to Catherine, the second daughter of the late R.
Moylan, Esq.—On the 17th inst. Lieut.-colonel Jones, of the 5th dragoon guards, to Matilda, second daughter to the Rev. Bruce Bruce, Rector of Becclea.—On Wednesday morning last, at Rathconan church, Robt.
Constable, Esq. of Lawlesstown, to Miss Carey, daughter of the Rev. Richard Carey, of Clonmel.—Wednesday, by the Rev. Henry Bevan, at Cahirnarry-church, Stephen Dickson, Esq. one of the coroners of this coto Mrs King, relict of the late George King, of Prospect Hall, near Patrick's-well, Esq.—A few days since, Charles Creagh, Esq. Major in the Clare Militia, to Louisa, daughter of, of the late Charles Costello, Esq. of Edmondstown, county Mayo.—In St. Anne's church, Dublin, John Warburton, Esq. to Miss Perceval.

DEED.—In Merrion-square Dublin, Henry Westenra, Esq.—On the 30th inst. at Rathmines, Mr. J. Coonan, of Trinity-place, Dublin, merchant taylor.—At Doncaster, Lieut. Gen James Sowerby.—On Saturday last, in Ennis, Mr. John Green.

Prime Teneriffe Wine, in QUARTER-CASKS,

ARRIVED to JOHN FITZ-GERALD, Grocer and Wine Merchant, William-street, who will dispose of the same off the Custom-House Quay, on pleasing terms. There is also shipping for him in the Thames, an assortment of Refined and Bright SCALE SUGARS, FINE TEAS, SPICES, &c. which, on arrival, he will sell on the lowest Terms. August 2.

NOTICE.

Excise Office, Limerick, August, 1, 1811.

I Request that all Quit or Crown Rents, and Arrears thereof, due to his Majesty at Easter last, may be forthwith paid into this Office, to prevent the disagree-ble necessity of enforcing them; which measure must be resorted to if this notice is not immediately attended to.
THOMAS FITZGIBBON.

Auction of Household Furniture.

O'DWYER,

Will hold an Auction at No. 4, Patrick-St.
ON WEDNESDAY, the 7th of AUGUST Instant.
Limerick, August 2.

FOR THE ASSIZES.

JAMES RYAN,

BEGS to announce to his Friends and the Public, his having this week received, at his established fashionable Woollen and Linen-Drapery, Silk-Mercery, Furniture, Hosiery, and Hat Ware-House, Patrick-Street,

THREE CASES OF THE Best Quality, & Newest Shapes, GENTLEMENS', BOYS', AND SER-VANTS' HATS,

Which he will Dispose of at his usual Moderate Terms.
N.B. An Extensive Assortment of MOURNING ARTICLES.