

DENTS.

letters or reports for ironing," and these to let us have them possible. Otherwise cannot, owing to coal.

TRISERS

and in all substitutes on Friday mornings. It in Saturday's issue for 2 p.m. on that day

CHRONICLE.

ED 1766)

AUG 7, 1928

ESTMENT.

d to the fact that indicates during the last amounted to 5,000 for the corres-. This is convincing the statement of ceers that conditions within the past six improved. It proves no stabilised, and a prosperous trade ally assured. The dates are not of the e majority could not . They are drawn i the working class i this movement a ney invested. That to the fact that the read, and getting It is a reassuring trates the faith of future of the Free invested in these l the expectations of as when the move- short years ago, few that it would bring nearly four million of the country it has stically, and, as was ng recently held is essentially a a strong appeal to a the small investor. subscribed represents m of thirty shillings ion. That is a hand- rift and an illuminat-

THE BANK HOLIDAY.

The exodus from the city for the August Bank Holiday, which commenced on Saturday was the largest since the great war. All the afternoon trains were crowded, particularly those to Kilkree, Dublin and Cork, while large numbers travelled by motor car and omnibus. On Sunday, the special excursion trains to Galway and Kilkree were crowded for the runs organised by members of the Arch-Confraternity attached to the Dominican Church and the Pioneer Total Abstinence Association of the Sacred Heart Church. The weather was gloriously fine both days, but yesterday the temperature fell considerably, and the conditions were not so pleasant or agreeable. Overnight and up to a late hour yesterday morning rain fell heavily in the city and district. It cleared about ten o'clock, but with the sky overcast, there was little to invite those who contemplated spending the day at the seaside to make the journey. However, a fairly large number took "pot luck" for it and availed of the cheap fares provided by the Great Southern Railways and the Bus Companies. On Sunday a big party arrived from Dublin and made the journey out to Ardara to see the Shannon Scheme. It was generally an enjoyable holiday, and the extent of the exodus from the city could be visualised by the quietness of the streets.

NEWCASTLE WEST SHOW.

At a meeting of the Newcastle West Show Society, Captain Curling presided. The other members in attendance were—Messrs D Culhane, J McCarthy, Ballykevin; J McCormick, M O'Sullivan, T Roche, T.C.; J O'Hara, M J O'Leary, A.R.C.S.E.I.; J Malone, D.A.T.I.; Mussy Langford, D O'Sullivan, and B O'Donnell, secretary.

The secretary to the Irish Rabbit Association promised every assistance. Mr P. Ahern, Aherlow, offered a special prize for the best cockerel or pullet bred in Munster of this year's hatch 1928.

Rev M Dunne, C.C., and Messrs J J Hough and L Curtin were elected members of the Committee. The list of instructions to exhibitors was revised.

Resolutions of sympathy were passed to Miss Riordan and to Messrs Condon and Donovan on the death of relatives.

CHILD'S FATAL BURN.

Kathleen Kennedy, aged a year and a half, succumbed in Barrington's Hospital yesterday morning to burns accidentally sustained on Saturday by falling into a tub of boiling water. At the time of the occurrence the mother, who lives in Windmill street, had only turned her back momentarily when she found the child in the water. The deceased was seriously burned on the back and head, and death was due to shock. An inquest was not considered necessary.

LIMERICK MAN DROWNED.

Bathing Fatality at Lahinch.

On Sunday evening crowds of holiday-makers at Lahinch for the August Bank Holiday week-end were shocked by the news that one of their number had met his death by drowning. The victim was Michael Howard, aged about 26 years, and a native of Limerick, where he was employed by Messrs Spaight's. Accompanied by a companion, Howard arrived at Lahinch in an early morning excursion train from Limerick. In the evening they went for a bath as the tide was coming in. Unfortunately they went out at a point on the shore farther from the recognised bathing place for men. They were only in the sea a short time when Howard's companion found himself being carried away by a strong current. He made for the shore, and, although a strong swimmer, experienced considerable difficulty in reaching it. On his way in he passed the deceased, who did not appear to be in any difficulty. Knowing, however, that Howard was not a very good swimmer, he shouted at him to "get in," as there was a current outside. Just as he reached the shore in an exhausted condition he heard Howard shout for help, and on looking back saw him go under.

A priest, who, it is stated, was a powerful swimmer, immediately struck out for the drowning man, but, notwithstanding a vigilant search, failed to locate him. Two hours afterwards the dead body was washed up by the incoming tide, and was taken charge of by Sergeant Dobbin, Lahinch. Mrs Gallery, formerly a matron of the Clare Sanatorium, and Miss Powell, a nurse, tried artificial respiration but without any successful results. Subsequently Dr D. Keane, M.O., Ennistymon, arrived on the scene, and pronounced life extinct. It is stated that the father and mother of the boy were on a holiday in Galway, where they heard the sad news. Deceased was unmarried.

The remains reached the city last night by motor hearse, and were met outside the Borough boundary by a large concourse of mourners. They were conveyed to St. Michael's Church, where they rested overnight. This morning Requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of the soul of the deceased, and the interment took place this evening in Mount St. Laurence Cemetery in presence of a large attendance of citizens.

ANOTHER DROWNING.

A second tragedy, which created another painful sensation, is reported from Lisdoonvarna. A young boy, named John MacSheehy, while picking berries at Doolin, about two miles from Lisdoonvarna, fell into a river and was drowned. The deceased was 12 years of age, and resided with his father and mother in a labourer's cottage at Ballyconroe, Lisdoonvarna. The body was recovered about an hour after the tragedy had taken place. Arrangements have been made for the holding of an inquest.

THE EAST LIMERICK MURDER.

LIMERICK

Limerick lay closed on Saturday the presence of tails—

MEN'S OPEN

G P Hughes 6-0.

LADIES' OPEN

Miss Byrne 1 to love.

MEN'S OPEN

G P Hughes 6-2, 6-1, 6-1.

MIXED

Final—Col Capt. Lyons and 9-7.

LADIES' OPEN

Final—Mrs Mrs Alton and 1

MEN'S OPEN

Final—R P Y two sets.

MEN'S OPEN

Final—P O B Cleve and R H

LADIES' OPEN

Final—Miss Final—Miss

DR

Declines

Dr O'Callaghan hammer champion of the British against America Saturday.

THE L

The continued night provided that was appreciated enhance the performance and was carried is a decidedly ne visitors the opp any period. Tw shown, and there tion of a fine together with known baritone, numbers.

THE GI

At the Grand stant Youth," a was shown to lions. The film depicts a love outlined. It is should be seen brightly told