MR DE VALERA.

Visit to Clare.

Mr Eamon De Valera held another of his series of conferences at Miltown-Malbay on Tuesday, and explained the policy of Fianna Fail, which was unanimously approved of by all those in attendance. An organising committee was formed, of which Mr T. G. Burke, Co.C., Conlaheen, is President, and Mr P. J. Hogan, hon. secretary. It was decided to take steps necessary for the formation of branches in all the districts in the area. When the branches are formed and properly registered at headquarters, a conference of delegates is to be summoned to form a Comhairle Ceanntair for the area.

DEATH OF MR HICKEY, RATHKEALE.

We regret to announce the death of Mr P. Hickey, M.P.S.I., of Rathkeale, which took place quite unexpectedly on Wednesday night last. Deceased, who was a most respected member of his profession, was held in the highest esteem by the people of Rathkeale, and of West Limerick generally. The deepest sympathy is extended to his young widow and family in their bereavement.

BY CANOE FROM FRANCE TO SURREY

On a holiday trip in a 12-foot long canoe, two Frenchmen have crossed the English Channel and completed the journey via the Thames, the River Wey and the Basinstoke Canal to Woking, where they are visiting friends. They left Calais on Friday and crossed the Channel in seven hours. The older canoeist, Andre Bournisien, is 39, and his companion 18.
