

acks are enlarging so considerably, that ac- will be had for an entire Regiment. gins, of the Artillery in this Garrison, is he rank of Captain.

y Promotions appear in Tuesday's London

61st, 88th, and the 2d Battalion of the Rifle e completed their Augmentation Establish-

t returns received from the different recruiting eat Britain and Ireland, it appears that up- 00 men have been enlisted for the British ow serving in India.

ing is expected on a visit to Portumna Castle, s son-in-law, Earl Clanrickarde ops of Limerick and Clogher, are on a visit hishop of Derry, at his beautiful residence swilly.

Miller, Esq. late Supervisor of Londonderry, ointed, under the new arrangements, to be ollectors of Excise.

. W. Hare, who has just returned from ontradicted the report that he has no inten- ing for the Representation of Kerry, the ng the fact?

Papers say, there is no doubt whatever of of Mr. Jephson, for the Representation of op of Killaloe and family sailed from Dub- land on Wednesday.

of Leitrim and the Hon. Colonel Townsend, arrived in Dublin.

orney-General, his two sons and daughters, n-in-law the Rev. Sir Francis Lynch Blosse, ady, arrived at Swinburn's Hotel, yesterday, at of the former, Old Connaught, Bray, and morning on an excursion to the Lakes of e and his wife, the daughter of Lucien Boua- arrived in Waterford.

Wyse, whose recent sudden death occasioned u at Killarney, was brother to the gentleman d a daughter of Lucien Buonaparte.

W. Busted, Esq. of Cavan, has been ap- he situation of Chief Clerk of the Supreme udicature, in Newfoundland.

parties proceeded hence this morning to grouse e represented that game is more abundant this the oldest sportsman can recollect.

occurrence took place in George's-street, on ight, which afforded some amusement. A ed by a posse of drovers, ran suddenly into a confectionary shop, to the terror and amaze- e inmates, threatening ruin and destruction o array of glasses, pastry and jellies, which pre- selves in the most fanciful and inviting shapes, es. Penetrating to the interior, the animal ound a table, on which was displayed a rich of glasses and viands, and rushed through the into the street, amid the shouts of its pursuers, ering the slightest possible injury to the variety ware exposed to its fury.

s Company is engaged this week laying down n pedestals for the lamp-posts in the main The light must be very brilliant to illuminate the nce at which they stand from each other, if it ant to put down more than arg to be seen at a Malhay, with its sublime and romantic sce- only fashionable bathing place on the Western ary succeeding week attracts a greater number

The Hotel established on a superior scale, ibrated for its capital baths, excellent accomo- nd particular attention of the proprietor to his Invariably spoken of in the highest terms, and o supports the character the establishment has

Wednesday, at his Lordship's seat, Shugborough, Staffordshire, the Viscountess Anson, of a son and heir.

MARRIAGES.

In Nenagh, Mr. William Gleeson to Margaret Frances, eldest daughter of the late Mr. P. Kennedy.

Robert Sharpe, Esq. of Coolbeg, County Wicklow, to Ellen, eldest daughter of Joshua M'Cormick, of Upper Coombe, Dublin, Esq.

By special license, at the house of the Duke of Clarence, Charles-Street, Berkeley-Square, London, Mr. Philip Sidney, of the 1st Life Guards, son of Sir John Sidney, of Penshurst, to Miss FitzClarence. The Dukes of York and Sussex were present at the ceremony.

At St. George's Bloomsbury, James Bradshaw, Esq. a gentleman of immense property, to Miss M. Tree, late of Covent Garden Theatre.

At Wakon-upon-Thames, Edward Beale, Esq. of Caher, County Tipperary, to Eliza, grand-daughter of the late Major Abington, of Cobham, Surrey.

Edward Goulburn, of the Middle Temple, Esq. to the Hon. Esther Chetwynd, sister of the present Viscount Chetwynd.

The Rev. Charles Ward, Rector of Maulden, Bedfordshire, to Susanna, daughter of the Rev. Robert Foster, Prebendary of Wilts Cathedral.

At St. James's Church, London, Major Henry Barrington, late of the 3d Dragoons, to Miss Brent Foote, of Barns, Surrey.

DEATHS.

In Newenham-street, after a lingering illness, Sarah, second daughter of the late George Bennett, of Castle Crea, in this County, Esq.

In Denmark-street, Mrs. Beck.

At Newcastle, in this County, Mrs. O'Brien, wife of Mr. Morgan O'Brien.

Suddenly, at Tralee, Lieut.-Colonel Spring, late of the 57th, a gentleman universally lamented—he has left a widow and numerous offspring.

On the 15th instant, Frederick, second son of Edward Hearn, Esq. Richmond-avenue, Dublin.

At an advanced period of life, Miss Marshall, daughter of the late Captain Thomas Marshall, of Londonderry.

At Stranmore House, John Nicholson, Esq. aged 63 years.

At Spa-Lodge, near Ennis, Mrs. Fallon, widow of the late H. Fallon, Esq.

At Carrickfergus, the Rev. Richard Dobbs, one of the Aldermen, and Deputy Mayor of that town.

In Sligo, aged 20, James, son of Doctor Coyne.

At her house, in the Circus, Bath, Lady Leslie, widow of Sir Edward Leslie, Bart. deceased, of Tarbert, County Kerry

In Cork, John Power, jun. Esq.

In Bagwell-street, Clonmel, Mr John Hill, silversmith

In Wexford, Mr. William Anglin.

At Gurteen, near Glass-house, County Kilkenny, Mr. Edmond Grant, at the advanced age of 102 years.

In Galway, the wife of Mr. Wm. Murphy, chandler.

In Cork, Mr. Callaghan Hastings, writing-master.

At Anderston, aged 52 years, Mr. John Duncan, inventor of the patent tambouring machinery.

At Oxenheath, Kent. Sir William Geary, Bart. many years M. P. for that County.

At Dallington, near Northampton, Sir John Riggs Miller, Bart.

At Ellesborough, Bucks, the Rev. John Hamilton.

At Metcham, Elizabeth Judith, wife of Captain Furber, R. N.

Andrew Bonar, Esq. Banker of Edinburgh.

At Bath, Mrs. Madden, widow of Colonel Madden, of the 15th Foot, and sister of the late Colonel S. D. Pearse, of the Hon. India Company's Service.

On the 3rd of August, his Serene Highness the reigning Prince Frederick Charles, of Lowenstein Westheim, the senior of the house of Lowenstein Westheim, in the

69th year of his age

TO BE LET,
FROM the 29th of September ne
and PREMISES, No. 4, RUTLA
tenanted by Mr. JAMES MYLES. Appl to Mrs. HUNTER, Upper Catherine Limerick, A

NOTICE

IS HEREBY GIVEN that the M Lord BLOOMFIELD and those KINAHAN, in the Barony of Ow heavily Poisoned.

Laughton, A

CAUTION

WHEREAS THOMAS M. M.
in my service as Groom, left m last, and was then paid his wages; I persons not to give him any Credit wha count, as I understand he has been try in my Name for which he had had am determined not to be answerable for engagements he might or may hencef will not allow the same.—Given under cottony, the 19th day of August, 1825.

THOMAS F

AGRICULTURAL S

FOR THE

PROVINCE OF MUNSTER

THE Trustees for the establishing TURAL SCHOOL for the MUNSTER inform the Public, that taken in the Neighbourhood of this City
The Irish Relief Committee have Sum of Money for this desirable would, of itself, be insufficient for the support of the undertaking, it is Landed Proprietors, and the Public come forward with Subscriptions, in afforded by English liberality, to enab put forward the Establishment upon mended by the London Committee.

The trustees select the following fr of the London Committee, for the Public, and which will afford an outli on which the school is to be conducted

“That a Farm of not less than 100

“Sixty Acres shall be taken, in a cen

“situation, in each of the province

“Connaught, and in it shall be erect

“Houses and offices, capable of “Young Men, who are to be bo

“instructed, at stated periods, in

“and Arithmetic, and taught the me

“of Agriculture, by an English c

“Farmer, under whose direction t

“cultivated by the Pupils.”

“The religious instruction of the y

“to the Clergy of their own persuas

“Every Donor of 50*l.*, or Sub

“upwards annually, to have the p

“one Pupil to the School; and any “associated for the purpose, whose

“shall make up the same amount,

“right.”

“Each Scholar to pay the Sum o

“sion, or 3*l.* annually during his re

“Gentlemen wishing to become

Subscribers, will please apply at the further information may be had.

By Order,

JA