DEATHS.

On the 15th instant, to the inexpressible grief of her afflicted family, Arabella, second daughter of Benjamin Frend, Esq. of Rockbush, and grand daughter of Colonel Gough, of Ardella.

At the Globe house, near Killorglin, Kerry, the Rev. Connolly O'Neill, for many years the venerable Rector of that parish.

At Lower Gloster-street, Dublin, Margaret, wife of Mr. Thomas Hugh, Esq., of Ennis, Miss Power, sister of the late William Power, Esq. of that place.

At Audley Place, Cork, aged 69 years, Anne, relict of the late John Skottowe, Esq. Commander in the Hon. the East India Company's Service.

At Port-Stewart, Rosa, wife of Thomas Harpur, Esq., of College-square, North, Belfast.

At Rathmines, near Dublin, of a short illness, William Evans, Esq., late of Henry-street, in this City, a worthy and exemplary man. His death is sincerely regretted by his friends, and to an affectionate young family the loss is irreparable.

After a few hours' illness, at Claremont, Dundalk, the seat of his nephew, Thomas Fortescue, Esq. Samuel Meade Hobson, Esq., of Merrion-square, Dublin, Assistant Barrister for the county Tipperary. In private life, as a husband, a father, and a friend, he was thoroughly likeable; his public duties, as Chairman of a large and extensive County, he performed with strict impartiality.

At Cheltenham, Maurice King, Esq. of the Irish Bar, one of the late Commissioners of Corporation Inquiry on the Leinster circuit.

At Bray, Miss Frances Maria Dwyer, in her 52d year, fifth daughter of John Dwyer, Esq. of Marlfield, Cabinteely, county Dublin.

At Passage East, Waterford, aged 78, David Richardson, Esq., one of the oldest Lieutenants of the Royal Navy.

In Upper Harley-street, London, Jemima, the wife of Sir Joseph de Courcy Laffan, Bart.

Charlotte, wife of Mr. Biggar, Aldersgate-street, and sister of the late Admiral B. Douglas, aged 72.

At the Bank of England, having just completed his 75th year, Thomas Captain Knatchbull, on half-pay of the 26th Light Dragoons, aged 65.

In Compton-terrace, Islington, John Warran, Esq. aged 78.

At Tadmor-stonehouse, King's-road, Captain Thomas M. Carter, late 101st Regiment.

At St. Mary's-place, Poplar, Commander T. Favel, R.N.

At Bath, Mrs. Sydenham, widow of Major-General Sydenham, Commandant of the Madras Artillery, in her 86th year.

At North Cave, aged 88, Mrs. Ann Mook, of Thorpessett, near Malton. She was a member of the Methodist Society 61 years an active Magistrate of that county.

At Haslingden, in her 71st year, Mary, the widow of George Hargrave, Esq.

At Shrub's Hill, Thomas Moat, Esq. Vice-President of the British College of Health.

At Ifracombe, Catherine, widow of the Rev. John Bogey, and sister of the late Sir Samuel Romilly, aged 80.

In Cheltenham, Lieut.-General Prole of the Hon. East India Company's Service.

John Oliphant, Esq. Special Magistrate at St. Catherine's, Jamaica. At Kingston, Jamaica, James, son of Bernard Casey, Esq. of Belfield, county Mayo.

At Clarendon, Jamaica, the Rev. J. Corbett, Wesleyan Missionary. At St. Mary's, Jamaica, James Jackson, Esq. special Magistrate, and formerly Lieutenant and Adjutant 94th Regiment.

At Honduras, Elizabeth, wife of Major M'Pherson, 2d West India Regiment.

At St. Paul's, Thomas James Mathias, Esq. in his 82d year.

At Interlaken, in Switzerland, (having been unfortunately drowned when bathing), Charles, second son of Major-General the Hon. P. Stuart, aged 18 years.