ROYAL EXCHANGE ASSURANCE,
Established by Royal Charter of Parliament,
In the Year 1720
FOR ASSURING BUILDINGS AND SHIPS FROM FIRE
AND ALSO
FOR THE ASSURANCE OF LIVES
Office, No. 117, George's-street

WHERE Assurance on Lives, can be sooner and easier effected than in any other Insurance Establishment in Ireland: Policies issued AT ONCE, without consulting Directors, whose lives are to be assured, have but one Agent, who does not put the party to the expense of procuring Medical Certificates, which are indispensable at other Offices.

Lives Insured as high as £10,000; and the age of Seventy-five years.

Persons whose lives are assured by this Office are allowed to pass in decked vessels from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and to and from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark and Man, and also to pass, in tickle-decked vessels, from British ports and harbours, to and from Flushing and Ushant, with liberty of port between Flushing and Ushant, without and without being subjected to apply for a Licence, for special permission.

Manufactories, Buildings, and Goods, are insured—Farm Houses, Cattle, and Haggard, in dock, or while repairing, Insured on notice.

The wealth and experience of this Office enables it to insure Mills, and other special risks, on the most moderate Premiums.

The Persons Insured at this Office are not bound to contribute to an uncertain fund or contribution—no covenants, nor liable by Act of Parliament, for good the Losses which may happen—the Corporation being an unqualified Assured. By this salutary system the Public be afforded substantial protection, and the stability of an Insurance Company secured.

Losses are paid, in full, without delay, and for Claimants are prepared gratis.

Bills of Rates, and every other information, may be had on application.
