

hall were present, the Duchess of Archioness Camden, and the Ladies Anna Pratt, the Marchioness of Downes Hill, and Lady Castlereagh. Of these, besides the dinner company, the King and the Archdukes; the King of the two princes, his sons; the Prince of the greatest treats enjoyed by the King in observing the excellent health and cheerfulness.

Miss Allen (one of the young Ladies present, in going to see Bonaparte) was and a Coroner's inquest was held on her body afterwards conveyed to Totnes where her body was much injured, but was preserved in clothes: her veil remained over her face, which was generally regretted by the whole neighbourhood. She had been most amiable and engaging in her life, and in the bloom of youth, about 21 years of age. The body of the other young Lady is preserved in spirits.

General Advertiser

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1815.

have received London Journals to the date of the 29th ult.

unhappy country still continues to be in the scene of internal disquietudes—The open in the middle of this month—If the Government are supported with firmness, it will be the suppression of those civil dissensions which disturb them—The articles published under the signature of Fouché and Talleyrand, appear to be fabrications.—An ordinance has been issued for disbanding the cannoniers and coast artillery, and for the maritime forts and batteries.—The military expenditure, the King hopes to be able to retrieve itself—Even before the evacuation of the Island of Elba, it could not be in a very flourishing condition, but how impoverished since, both by the resources drawn from it, for the organization of an army, and by the contributions levied by the allies. It is but too true to feel some of the evils attendant on a system of such a nature.

THE ARMY.

have arrived at Aughnacloy—They are the Dublin City Militia. The Fermynagh Militia arrived at Mullingar. The 1st and 2d divisions of the 10th Regt. arrived in this garrison, to do duty in the place of the 1st and 2d Divisions. The 1st and 2d Divisions of the 10th Regt. have been replaced in Cashel by the Royal Artillery. The 1st and 2d Divisions of the 10th Regt. will march in here to-morrow and will be quartered at Trillick and Killarney. The 1st and 2d Divisions of the 10th Regt. are to join the 1st and 2d Divisions of the 10th Regt.

of the Queen's own, under the command of the Duke of Devonshire, arrived from Fermoy, in Clonmel, and is now composed of the following:—South Cork, North Cork, North York, and the 20th.

a detachment of the 2d Dragoon Guards, from Edinburgh.

the South Lincoln Militia marched on Wednesday a detachment marched the Westminster Regiment of Militia arrived in Canterbury from Hythe on left Brighton on Thursday se'night,

the great pleasure of the recent promotion of the rank of Major Gen. in the army is gallant officer may soon be expected to produce some interesting papers, of the proceedings of this of rational liberty, since Ferdinand's have contemplated the authentic statements of those who fell, with the politics of sympathy; who shall not have traced the Pyrenees with interest, and his return to England as a man deserving

Late Arrivals at Castle Connell.
Mr. Waller & family—Sir Richard & Lady Harte—Mrs. Harte & family—Mrs. Fitzgibbon & family—Miss Vereker—Mrs. Vandeleur—Mr. Fennell & family—Misses Hunt—Mrs. Millet—Mr. Fitzgerald—Miss Warburton—Mrs. Dolphin—Mrs. Coghlan—Mrs. Ryan—Mrs. Savage—Mr. Kirwan & family—Mr. Butler—Mrs. O'Connor—Mrs. Hickey—Mr. Callaghan—Misses Roche—Miss Dillon—Mr. Wallace & family—Mr. Potter & family—Mr. T. Callanan & family—Mrs. Hunt—Miss Ievers—Mrs. O'Shaughnessy—Mr. Mahon—Mr. Bayles &c.

CLONMEL, AUG. 30.

Amongst all the outrages which have disgraced our country in their practice and disgusted ourselves in their narration, there occurred on Monday last, one of the most atrocious description. Of the topics of legislation, which occupy the rabble of the land, one, in which they hope to overawe the loyalty by the defiance of the law is the tythes, and a new oath has been administered throughout this country, affecting to bind those, by whom it is taken, not to pay more than two shillings an acre tilled and untilled for tythes, and, wherever this sum is not agreed to by the clergyman, to give him his tythe in kind.

In conformity with this regulation, notices were served last week by a vast number of persons parishioners of the Rev. Mr. Woodward, rector of the Union of Feihard, to draw his tythes in kind on Monday last, and the succeeding days.—Accordingly, on that day being the first, Mr. Isaac Ryall, Mr. Woodward's tythe agent, went with a number of horses and carts procured for the purpose from the principal gentlemen of the neighbourhood, to the lands of Michael Quirk and Thomas Morrissey, at Lowes Green, where they proceeded to divide the corn. They had been a very short time at this occupation, when a very large body of men, armed, with their faces blackened, rushed into the field, and before they came within killing distance, fired several shots at Mr. Woodward's agent and men who, it appears, had been lulled into a security by a legal form and precision of the notices, and went unarmed to conform themselves to the notices of the farmers. Thus entrapped without means of defence, into a situation premeditated for their murder, the men had no other resource but in flight, in which providentially they were fortunate enough to succeed without the loss of any life, leaving behind the horses and carts, which were triumphantly driven off the land by the victors. M. Palliser, to whom the matter was instantly communicated, immediately took out a military party from Feihard; but the insurgents had fled before his arrival at the place.

The farmers, who had served these notices, all declare that they had been compelled to do so by armed banditti, who came by night, and obliged them to swear as we have above stated, that they would give their tythes in kind, unless they could procure them at two shillings an acre, for land tilled and untilled. In the present instance the people have been pleased all along with the conditions of Mr. Woodward's dealing, and he has always been desirous to treat with his parishioners on the most reasonable terms in the valuation and receipt of his income, which being constantly resident, he spends amongst his flock, and, perhaps with a larger portion distributed in acts of charity and benevolence, than is diffused by many men of his income and family. It is not the man but the system is the object—the law is to be resisted by the plunderbuss, and the quantum of income to be measured by the caprice of an arrayed insurgency.

Committed to Clonmel Jail, by H. Langley, and Thomas Miller, Esqrs. Edward Mara and Edward Moyers, charged with violent suspicion of being a party who fired at Mahew Singleton and other police constables, when on duty at Rathcannon on the evening of the 21st inst.—and by Vere D. Hunt, Esq. Joseph Ryan, charged with posting a threatening notice on the house of Wm. Bourke.

BIRTH.

In Leicestershire, Lady Sophia Whichcote, of a daughter.

MARRIED.

At Cheltenham, — Marks, of Virginia, Esq. to Miss Sarah Chambers, youngest daughter of the late Francis Chambers, Esq. of Waterford.
Wm. Russell, Esq. M. D. to Miss Jane Sherwood, eldest daughter of Lieut. Col. Sherwood, of artillery, and commissary of stores, Fort William.

DIED.

At Dunmore, Co. Waterford, Thomas Alcock, jun. Esq. eldest son of Alderman Thos. Alcock, Esq. of Waterford.
Suddenly, aged 46, James Sullivan, of Ballygate, County Waterford, Esq.

LIMERICK MARKET PRICES.

|                         | S. | D. | S. D.          |
|-------------------------|----|----|----------------|
| Wheat, .. .. .          | 1  | 9  | to 11 0        |
| Oats, .. .. .           | 0  | 10 | 0 11           |
| Barley, .. .. .         | 0  | 10 | 0 0            |
| Tallow, (rough) .. .. . | 8  | 0  | 0 0            |
| Pork, .. .. .           | 0  | 0  | to 0 0 per cwt |

Price of Butter—112s.—108s.—100s.—90s.

RESOLVED—that these our Resolutions and Address be presented by the Senior Officer present; and that they together with Lieutenant Colonel BAGWELL's answer be published in the Correspondent,—Southern Reporter,—Limerick, and Clonmel Papers.

J. COLPOYS BLOOMFIELD.

Major Tipperary Regiment.

Bantry, 20th July, 1815.

DEAR SIR,

THE disembodiment of the Officers of the augmentation having so suddenly and unexpectedly called you from the Regiment in which you have served for twenty years, with so much Credit and Honor to yourself, (depriving us also of many valuable Members of our Society) allows but little time to consider the best mode of testifying in the strongest manner, the feeling of regret by which the Corps is actuated. By being deprived of you, Dear Sir, we lose a Soldier, a Friend, and in the fullest acceptance of the term, a Gentleman. In whatever situation you are placed, be assured you take with you, the best wishes of your Brother Officers, and the Blessings of the Soldier, whose welfare it has been your constant study to promote.

Accept then, Dear Sir, with the warmest wishes for your Health and Happiness, a Piece of Plate, voted you this day as a slight testimony of our Esteem and Regard, which you so deservedly possess.

We beg leave to enclose a copy of our Resolutions, and remain,

Dear Sir,

Your attached and sincere Friends,

For self and Brother Officers,

J. COLPOYS BLOOMFIELD,

Major Tipperary Regiment.

To Lt. Colonel BAGWELL,

&c. &c. &c.

Tipperary Regiment.

East Grove Collage, Cove, Sunday Morning.

GENTLEMEN,

I HAVE only this moment had the honour of receiving your kind and most flattering Address, together with your Resolutions.

If any circumstance could sooth my Feelings at separating from my dear Brother Officers, it is that of obtaining your unanimous approbation of my conduct, during the period we have served together in the Corps.

Accept, Gentlemen, my most warm Thanks for the cordial and cheerful support you have at all times afforded me (when I have had the honor of Commanding the Regiment) in the necessary duties imposed on us—without which my feeble efforts would have been unavailing.

Your munificent token of regard and esteem, I receive with sincere gratitude—and shall ever consider it as the proudest event in my life—that you have judged me worthy of thus testifying your approbation and affection.

Whatever may henceforward be my fate, I shall remain in memory the many happy years we have passed together.—Most sincerely wishing you my dear Brother Officers—and each individual of the Tipperary Regiment, every Happiness.

Believe me to be,

Gentlemen,

Your most obedient and faithful servant,

BENJAMIN BAGWELL,

Lieutenant Colonel.

To Major J. COLPOYS BLOOMFIELD,

and the OFFICERS of the Tipperary

Regiment.

By the Lord Lieutenant & Council of Ireland:

A PROCLAMATION.

WHITWORTH.

WHEREAS, We have received Information on an Oath, that the Coach conveying His Majesty's Mail from Cork to Dublin, was, on the Night of Sunday the Thirteenth Day of August Instant, attacked by a Party of Armed Men, at present unknown, at a place called the Five-Mile-Stone, between Cashel and Littleton, who fired several Shots at same, and wounded one of the Dragoons escorting same:

And Whereas, His Majesty's Postmasters General have offered Rewards for the Apprehension of the Persons concerned in the said Outrage:

Now, We, the Lord Lieutenant and Council, do hereby publish and declare, that if any Person or Persons concerned in the said Outrage shall, within the space of Six Calendar Months, next after the Dated of this Our Proclamation, discover the Person or Persons concerned in the said Offence, so as that he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof, such Person or Persons so discovering shall receive His Majesty's most Gracious and Free Pardon.

Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin, this 22d Day of August, 1815.

Erne. Castle Coote. Norbury. W. Downes

G. Howell. James Fitz Gerald. Patrick

Duigenan. Robert Peel.