

Clonmel, 31. Committed, to the County Jail, on the 28th inst. by the Right Hon. Earl of Tyrone, Thomas M'Grath and James Beckett, both of Carrick, and Mathew Beckett, of Carrickbeg, charged with having assembled in an illegal manner, on Monday the 14th inst. amongst a number of people, who call themselves Right Boys, and with having being principally active in administering oaths, and threatening the lives of such as refused to swear conformable to their regulations.

As a party of the light infantry of the First, or Royal regiment of foot, commanded by Lieut. Mannoeh, had taken the above prisoners in charge, in order to escort them to jail, assisted by John Cosgrave and Patrick Kennedy, constables, they were violently attacked in the streets of Carrick by a numerous mob, who pelted them with stones from the lanes and avenues so furiously that some of the army were very much hurt:—This treatment obliged them (for their own safety, and the more effectual security of the prisoners) to fire, though with reluctance, by which one of the mob was killed, and are informed more of them were wounded.

Last Sunday eighteen of the Right Boys were apprehended in Thomastown, county of Kilkenny, by Lord Clifden and Mr. Langrishe, assisted by a party of light horse, and committed to Kilkenny jail, escorted by a detachment of the 4th horse.

TRALEE, August 31.

Monday last, the Revenue of Dingle received information, that a quantity of smuggled goods were secreted in the house of one Nelagan, of Lough, near the harbour's mouth, for which place the Officers immediately set off, where they arrived about three o'clock in the afternoon, and made a seizure of fourteen kegs of brandy and seven bags of leaf tobacco. About 11 o'clock the same night, between 2 and three hundred men, supposed to be Right Boys armed with fire and side arms, attacked the house, into which they fired several shot, when an action commenced, which was spiritedly supported by the Revenue for a considerable time, until their ammunition was expended, and the house in flames whereupon the seizure was re-taken, and the Revenue most unmercifully treated.

Yesterday a letter arrived in town from Listowhill, requesting a reinforcement of the military, the Right Boys having threatened to set fire to the town on the following night—We have not yet heard whether they attempted putting their threats into execution.

His Grace has commanded me to express his Reliance on your Lordship's Zeal for the Support of the Laws and the Legal Establishments, and to Request you will communicate to the Magistrates and Gentlemen of Influence in your County, His Grace's Confidence and Earnest Desire, That they will by all means in their Power, give their best Assistance to Suppress the Combination of the White Boys, and bring to condign Punishment such as have dared to violate the Peace of the Country, and misguide the Multitude; That the Laws may cease to be infringed with Impunity, and that every good Subject may be quieted and protected; towards which good End, His Grace more especially requires the vigorous Exertions of the Magistrates.

Your Lordship will be pleased to assure all Persons, that in effecting those Purposes, they may depend upon every Support of Government, which may be in His Grace's Power to give.

I Have the Honour to be, My Lord,
Your Lordship's Most Obedient,
Humble Servant,

S. HAMILTON.

Right Hon. Lord MUSKERRY,
Governor and Custos Rotularum of the County of Limerick.

It gives us no small share of pride and pleasure to think that our noble countryman, the Earl of Inchiquin, has distinguished the generous attachment of this country to the heir apparent to the Crown, by complimenting him with his country seat for his summer residence: An instance of loyal affection manifested by no other Peer or Commoner of either realm.

Last Monday night a large pike of tythe hay, the property of the Rev. Mr. Preston, was maliciously and feloniously set on fire, on the lands of Ballynemona, near Dunrileague, and entirely consumed. This piece of wanton wickedness may convince the public that no crime, however heinous and capital, is too atrocious to deter those outrageous miscreants, whose repeated acts of violence have so often disturbed the peace of the country, and wounded the happiness of Society.—An offence equally criminal and penal, was committed on Sunday the 20th of August; a paper signed Captain Right, was handed to the Parish Priest of Ballylandre, and publicly read by him in the Chapel, threatening destruction to ten persons who had bought their tythes, if they did not immediately surrender them, and that all of that parish who should presume to take their tythes, should be buried alive, and particular persons were appointed to dig the graves and provide briers. The fellow who conveyed this paper to the Priest was taken prisoner that night by Charles Massey, of Griston, Esq; and was soon after escorted by him...

The Roman Catholics of Ireland have embraced every opportunity of shewing their Gratitude, for the many favours they have received from the present reigning Family; yesterday Te Deums were sung in all the Chapels of this City, for his Majesty's late providential escape from assassination.

The Magistrates of the County of Tipperary, have returned thanks to Mr. Hare of Cashel, for his late spirited conduct.

Married. Last Wednesday, Mr. David Herbert, Chandler, to the very agreeable Miss Joint, daughter to the late Mr. William Joint, Chandler; with a pleasing fortune.

+ JOHN DOWNES, will LET the Upper part of his HOUSE in Creagh-lane, (late Mr. Harrison's) on Reasonable Terms, to a Genteel Family.—He is as usual supplied with BOTTLED PORTER, highly Up. also every Article in the SPIRIT Line.
