

as well as the sums not yet received received, and in general every thing not yet levied, and in such a manner these sums shall remain to the respective rights, and in their particular execution, our residuary legatee having any right any claim to them; and in order to any stagnation in the progress of public and of the usual payments.

follow eight articles, which contain the dispositions.—By the 4th, the Elector Cologne, Munster, and Merzenheim, the articles left there.—By the 5th, he 100,000 florins to the Chapter of and the same sum to Cologne, and of the Teutonic Order, for the purpose of solemn service to be performed for him of his death.—By the 6th, he settles a pension of 1200 florins on his Valet de as Elector.—By the 7th, he recomhis successor his other servants.—The 10th, and 11th articles, relate to the of his will.

royal Highness the Archduke Charles, et is ordered to cause a statement of his property to be made out; and Prince an, the residuary legatee, has assigned to M. Meyer, Counsellor.

from the OBSERVER.—Aug. 30. the extraordinary activity assumed by movement in negotiation for peace, that sels (the Vigilant lugger, from Deal, Nancy, from Dover), were on Friday with dispatches for Calais.

Blowing up of the Jason Frigate. the time since announced the loss of this the French coast, in the neighbourhood also, and we have now the satisfaction to that owing to the gallant interference of the enemy has been deprived of the which refused to him from the accicaptain Cunningham, of the Clyde, com-the Squadron on the coast, being apprised the intention of the enemy to float the the Jason into St. Malo, they having in hauling her under the protection of their batteries by lighting her of her determined to attempt to burn her—ly on the 5th inst. the boats of the under the orders of Lieutenant Ross boarded the wreck notwithstanding formidable opposition presented by the a gun-brig, seven flats, besides row-ce. with which she was surrounded.
Ross proceeded to set her on fire, but the rising of the tide, the project prove. The condition of the vessel was such as to make her a valuable acquithe enemy; and the failure of the at-destroy her, far from depressing the our people, only suggested the swed and pots successful effort.

our trade to that part of the world has latterly very much increased and still likely to do so.

On Monday next, the most interesting race that has been for many years, is appointed to be run at the Carragh. The celebrated horse Disdiamond, purchased by Col. Hyde, of the County Cork, for upwards of 700 guineas, is to run against Captain Kelly's Ralph, and Mr. D. B.
Daly's Hank, (formerly Horatio) for the gold cup and 600 guineas, exclusive of the bye-bets, which amount it is said, to near 50,000l.

Extract of a letter from Belfast, Sept. 1.— The Bishop of Meath landed at Donaghadee on Friday last, from on board the Palmer packet, from Portpatrick. He came from England by way of Edinburgh and Glasgow.—Same day arrived from Portpatrick, at Donaghadee, from on board the Palmer packet, his Grace the Lord Primate of all Ireland.—Yesterday, the Bishop of Elphin embarked at Donaghadee for Portpatrick, on board the Aillborough packet.

DIED.—At Portpatrick, Mr. Jas. Torrence, late Captain of the Westmorland Packet.

Tralee, Aug. 28. Yesterday morning a meeting took place at Ragh, near this town, between D—l O'G—ll, Esq; Attorney, and George H—ll—m, of the county of Limerick, Esq; when, after discharging a case of pistols each, without effect, the affair was amicably adjusted. They were attended to the ground by Esq; James Mahony, of the Kerry Militia, and — Spread, of the county Cork, Esq.

LIMERICK,—SEPTEMBER 5.

The Grand Jury of the Co. Kerry, at Summer Assizes, as a mark of their approbation, of the loyalty, readiness, and good conduct of James Demery, private in the Royal County Limerick Militia, (now quartered in that county) in the detection and prosecution of the desperate gang of Villains in the neighbourhood of Castle-Island, have subscribed 25 Guineas, to be given to him, and requested the other Magistrates and Gentlemen of the County to add their tribute of applause by further subscriptions, which has been liberally complied with already, to the amount of Twenty Guineas more.

Price of Rape-seed this Day—24s. per Barrel, of 16-stone.

Price of Butter this day—Full Bonads, 88s.
86s.—82s.—Coarse, 86s.—84s.—80s. per cwt.

DEAD. Yesterday morning, at the Glebe-house in the North Liberties of this City, the Rev. John Wardlaw, Chanter of this Diocese; his extensive Charities dispensed to every object without distinction, makes his death a grievous loss to the Poor—he was in every respect an Ornament to Society, and as such is universally lamented.— Thursday at Newagh, William Kingsley, Esq; Attorney, a gentleman deservedly lamented by a numerous acquaintance.

Caution any Gen either keeping in his Empl SIMON SULLIVAN, who a about two months, left my ser without any previous notice, o the articles in his care, some missing.—He is a smart well wore a blue body-coat, leather

Limerick, Sept. 4, 1807

THREE Hundred P on real and personal fo and if required in the Cour Application to be made to Rob Esq. (2p) Limerick

Unfurnished Lo

TO be Let, and immediate Commodious Lodgings in cupied by Mr. Edw. Dartnell, Quay. Application to be mad WALLER, at said House.
[c] Limerick.

Ballygriffin, near

TO be Let, and immediate House and Demesne of containing 113 statute Acres, b the River Blackwater, in a fine and in a most desirable neighbo ly equidistant between the Mar low, Doneraile, and Castletow miles of Cork, inclosed and co with stone-walls—the House an commodious, in staunch repair mediate reception of a large f walled-in Garden, containing Gravery, which bears uncomm delicious kinds, two Houses, one and every description of Wall-dance and in high perfection—th five Acres, Trees young and i Grounds in great heart, and County superior in quality for f and Tillage. Application to M who will close as soon as reason ed. Mr. P. Halleran, Steward shew the Lands. [4p] Sept

TO be Let, from the such term as may be agr of the Fairs and Markets of R Red House, opposite the Sess Garden and Out-Offices App to Mr. Daniel M'Carthy, at fi close with a proper tenant whe offered, and if agreeable, will a

STOLEN last Monda between Holycross and Th Gelding 5 riling 6 years old, so hair on his hind part, a star in fore legs turned out; the pro Power, of said place, two guin him for the gelding alone, or f same, and prosecuting the thief [1p]