

nel Cortes being sick at present from Santa Fe brings favourable news and fully confirms prior accounts being tranquil in that quarter. The French here are now very sorry for their fate as to send off their goods, they are determined to remain here, and are proceeding into the interior. Generals Castello and Palacios has just arrived from Guernsey. The Commandant of Cherburgh is sending preparations to bombard was shot, he obtained leave to be taken on his eyes, and to give up the said "I cannot fear to die in so many shapes; and I will give the word to French soldiers to do so this once, and for I advanced with a firm step to be appointed to shoot him, and five paces, gave the words—Fire!"—They obeyed most dead in an instant.

List of passengers just arrived from Ely—Henry St. George; Mrs. and Miss Tucker; H. service; Miss E. Cornish, Miss Buchanan, Miss C. Buchanan, civil service. Mrs. Ross and Louisa Lowther, Capt. Mathers regt., Hon. A. Curzon, Capt. Blunt, Esq. civil service, Esq. merchant; Mrs. Hay, E. Hall.

General Advertiser

DAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1815.

have brought the papers of Monday, say—those of Thursday are still due. accounts we are in possession of from copy country, are to the 26th ult. and the French Press is still so shackled, we can look on nothing as authentic news, had from individuals resident in the country, which appears to be the fortresses still hold out—Humany others have refused to surrender. Allies.—The army of the Loire indeed, as was before stated, has been extended its cantonments, to demand require, with the Royalists in the Southern Departments, the execution are said to be the Protestants. it is not political, rather than religious. The Royalist party ally Catholics—The Revolutionist or be classed together, are for the most their political, the French people add will probably be the purchase of reconcile them, and the time which it is indefinite—The opening of the expected, if they act with promptness with wisdom, it will, in all of restoring order—It is anxiously other Foreign arrivals, so far as they found in our preceding columns,

THE ARMY.

101 fine young fellows, commanded by the 2d bat. of the 88th, quartered for Cork, there to embark, under the command of Lieutenants Janus and Ellis, Ashmore.

The following letter from the Bishop of Norwich, to William Roche, Esq. Chairman of the late Catholic Meeting; has been delayed publication before this, in consequence of the absence of Mr. Roche:

"SIR—The approbation of the wise and good men, is the best reward, which on this side of the grave, an honest individual can receive; for doing what he most conscientiously believes to be his duty; it cannot therefore but be highly gratifying to me, to find that so respectable a body of my Fellow Christians and fellow-subjects as the Catholics of the County and City of Limerick, approve of my humble exertions, in favour of a cause, which the mild spirit of our common Christianity, and every principle of truth, justice, and sound policy, call upon those to support who have at heart the true interest either of Religion or of Government. Accept my best thanks, for the very kind manner in which you have communicated to me the Resolution of the Meeting, held on the 21st of last month.

And believe me,
Your obliged, &c &c.
HENRY NORWICH.

Norwich, August the 5th, 1815.
To WILLIAM ROCHE, Esq. Limerick."

From the Dublin Correspondent.
We are authorised to give insertion to the following letter and statement, arising, as we conceive the matter, out of a passage in a speech reported in some of the public papers, to have been spoken by Mr. O'Connell in the aggregate meeting of the Roman Catholics, on Tuesday last. The passage alluded to, is in the following words:—

"All I shall say of him, (Mr. Peel,) by way of parenthesis, is, that I am told he has, in my absence, and in a place where he was privileged from any account, grossly traduced me. I said, at the last meeting, in presence of the note takers of the police, who are paid by him, that he was too prudent to attack me in my presence. I see the same police informers here now, and I authorise them carefully to report these my words—that Mr. Peel would not DARE, in my presence, or in any place where he was liable to personal account use a single expression derogatory to my interest or my honor."

To the Editor of the Correspondent.
SIR,
As I feel anxious that an early statement of a recent transaction, in which I have borne a part, should be before the public, I enclose a memorandum, to which I have to beg you will give insertion in your paper. I am, Sir,
Your obedient and humble servant,
DUBLIN, Sept. 1, 1815. CHARLES SAXTON.

MEMORANDUM.

"On the morning of Thursday, the 31st of Aug. I called upon Mr. O'Connell, and informed him, that Mr. Peel, having understood that he had expressed a wish at a public meeting on Tuesday last, that some communication should be made as from him to Mr. Peel—was desirous of learning the purport and terms of that communication, and that I had waited on him from Mr. Peel, for the purpose of obtaining them.

"To this application, after ascertaining that what he should say would not subject him to any consequences, either of law or parliamentary privilege. Mr. O'Connell stated the expressions used by him on the occasion referred to in terms so substantially the same, as those contained in the report of his speech at the public meeting, before mentioned in the Dublin Chronicle, that I was induced to take that paper from my pocket, and read from it that passage which related to Mr. Peel, remarking to him its similarity with what he had just stated; to this remark he assented, admitting that it was what he had said.

"Upon this, I observed to him, that, as it was clear his speech alluded to something that had fallen from Mr. Peel in Parliament. I was empowered by Mr. Peel to say to him, that there was nothing he had ever said; or that he had seen reported as said by him, with respect to Mr. O'Connell, that he did not unequivocally avow, and for which he would not hold himself responsible.

"As Mr. O'Connell did not offer any thing directly in answer to this communication, but was proceeding to comment on Mr. Peel's conduct, on this occasion, as handsome and gentlemanlike, (which he subsequently repeated with a desire that his opinion to that effect might be conveyed to Mr. Peel,) I took occasion to say, that I presumed Mr. Peel might expect to hear from him in consequence of the communication he had just received.

"His answer was, that it certainly was his feeling that a communication from him to Mr. Peel ought to follow, but that he must advise with his friends; for, that indeed, the nature of the communication with which I was charged seemed to make that course necessary. To this observation I replied that putting together the expressions he had then acknowledged, and the communication then made to him from Mr. Peel, the conclusion was easily drawn.

"On parting, it was sealed that whatever communication Mr. O'Connell should have to make in consequence of what had passed, I might expect to receive at the house of Mr. Otley.

JOHN CORMICK, A BANKRUPT.

Wednesday this bankrupt was brought up before the Master of the Rolls, as one of the Lords Commissioners of the Great Seal, under an Habeas Corpus and it was sought that he should be discharged from the commitment of the commissioners of Bankruptcy. His Honor with that patience which marks the discharge of his judicial duties, heard two counsel on the part of the bankrupt at great length, but did not call upon the counsel of the creditors to apply. His Lordship, after having expressed his disapprobation of the Bankrupt's answers upon oath before the commissioners, remanded him to Newgate.

ENNIS, SEPT. 2—A degree of anxious solicitude has been excited here during the whole of yesterday, for the safety of a gentleman of high respectability, and a magistrate of this county. A letter was received from him late on the preceding evening, addressed to one of the officers of the Clare regiment, requesting that a strong detachment might be immediately despatched to his relief, in a very remote and distant part of the county, where he was surrounded by some hundreds of his own tenantry, and menaced with destruction. The state of the regiment, being under the mandatory order of a route, deprived the officer of all discretionary authority, and the gentleman has been left to his fate. In this awful suspense the seriousness of the subject has been diverted by the inventive faculty of the less philanthropic, and we sincerely hope the result may not prove more calamitous than such rumours predict.—Ennis Chronicle.

THEATRE—We are happy to announce to the public, that our Theatre which has been closed for some time, opens on Friday night next, under the auspices of the Manager, the inimitable Mr. TALBOT, whose Theatrical celebrity is so well known in this city, as to render panegyric unnecessary. We understand that he brings with him an excellent Corps Dramatique, and we feel confident, that his exertions to gratify the people of Limerick, will ensure to him all the support which a generous and discerning public can bestow.

BIRTH.
Saturday, in Dublin, the Lady of George Hargrove, Esq. Surgeon, late of the Royal Horse Artillery, of a Daughter.

MARRIED.
This morning, by the Rev. Thomas Westropp, at Kilkenny Church, Richard Taylor of Hollypark in this county, Esq. to Miss Turhill, only daughter of Christopher Turhill, of Faha, same county, Esq.

At Croydon church, England, Nicholas Westby, Esq. eldest son of Wm. Westby, Esq. of Thornhall, Co. Dublin, to the Hon. Emily Waldegrave, eldest daughter of the Right Hon. Admiral Lord Radstock.

In George's church, Dublin, by the Rev. Mr. Bridges, Loftus Tottenham, Esq. second son of Nicholas Loftus Tottenham, Esq. to Elizabeth, only child of the late Hon. Abraham Creighton, and niece to the Earl of Erne.

In London, the Hon. Butler Danvers, son of the Countess of Lanesborough, to Miss Freemantle.

DIED.
In Patrick street, in an advanced age, Mrs. Friend, relict of the late Captain Friend, of this city.

In Cork, sincerely regretted, Emily, daughter of Robert O'Callaghan Newenham, Esq. of this city.

On Thursday last, at her son's house at Lakeville, county Kerry, Mrs. Russell, widow of Anthony Russell, Esq.

No alteration in the Market Prices.

NEW
Theatre Royal,
GEORGE'S-STREET.
THE Public are respectfully informed, The THEATRE will OPEN for a few Nights.—
On FRIDAY, the 8th Instant,
When a favourite COMEDY, with a Variety of Entertainments will be presented.
Limerick September 5.

Fashionable Woollen Drapery,
131, George's-Street, Limerick,
THOMAS WALLER,

INFORMS his Friends and the Public of his having received the most of his Goods per the Bridget, from London, and the Mary, from Liverpool—consisting of every Article in the above line—which has been selected with care and attention by himself, and purchased for Ready Money, from some of the first Manufacturing houses in England—from which he is enabled to serve his Friends, and all who are so kind as 457